03/02/2018	154	AMENDED ORDER - (The Court issues this amendment to its prior order, [Filing No. 148], to address the designation of class representatives and class counsel, which was inadvertently omitted from the original Order.) This case arises out of a challenge to policies regarding the treatment of individuals who are incarcerated in Indiana Department of Corrections ("IDOC") facilities and who suffer from the chronic Hepatitis C Virus ("HCV"). Plaintiffs Michael Ray Stafford, Charles Smith, and Douglas Smith ("Plaintiffs") raise claims on behalf of themselves and similarly situated individuals that policies maintained and implemented by the Defendants in this action have resulted in the improper denial of treatment to incarcerated individuals who are infected with chronic HCV. Presently pending before the Court is Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification, in which Plaintiffs seek to certify a class involving only their prospective declaratory and injunctive relief claims. [Filing No. 99 .] For the reasons herein, the Court grants Plaintiffs'

		Motion and certifies, as modified, the proposed class. The Court therefore GRANTS Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification, [Filing No. 99], modifying the class definition to include: "All current and future prisoners in IDOC custody who have been diagnosed, or will be diagnosed, with chronic HCV." Moreover, the Court DESIGNATES Michael Ray Stafford, Charles Smith, and Douglas Smith as representatives for the class action pursuant to Rule 23. The Court further DESIGNATES Mark W. Sniderman and Robert A. Katz as lead class counsel pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g). (SEE ORDER). Signed by Judge Jane Magnus-Stinson on 3/2/2018.(APD) (Entered: 03/02/2018)

04/05/2018	163	 STRICKEN PER ORDER DATED 4/6/2018  Joint MOTION for Protective Order Stipulated , filed by Plaintiffs CHARLES SMITH, DOUGLAS SMITH, MICHAEL RAY STAFFORD. (Sniderman, Mark) Modified on 4/6/2018 (SWM). (Entered: 04/05/2018)
04/06/2018	164	ORDER STRIKING STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER: On May 2, 2017, the Court issued its Order Regarding Protective Orders, which provided in relevant part as follows: "In the event an agreed protective order is required in this matter, the parties shall file a motion seeking the entry of such an order, attaching thereto the proposed protective order." [Dkt. 55 at 1.] That order also required the inclusion of specific language in any proposed protective order filed, as well as a detailed description of any information sought to be protected by an "Attorney's Eyes Only" provision. On April 5, 2018 the parties filed a submission of a uniform "Stipulated Protective Order". That submission was not accompanied by a motion and did not comply with any of the other requirements of the Court's May 2, 2017 order. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) states: A party or any person from whom discovery is sought may move for a protective order.... (emphasis added). The Court acts on motions, not proposed orders. Docket No. 163 is, therefore, STRICKEN. If the parties seek a protective order, they should properly file a motion requesting such relief, which motion and proposed order fully comply with the Court's prior orders. Signed by Magistrate Judge Mark J. Dinsmore on 4/6/2018. (SWM) (Entered: 04/06/2018)

09/13/2018	186	ORDER - This case arises out of a challenge to the medical care that inmates receive while incarcerated in Indiana Department of Corrections ("IDOC") facilities. A class of Plaintiffs who suffer from chronic Hepatitis C infection ("HCV") contends that IDOC's policies regarding HCV treatment have resulted in the withholding of effective treatment to the vast majority of HCV-infected inmates. Plaintiffs have raised three claims against three IDOC officials, (collectively, "Defendants"): Robert E. Carter, Jr., the Commissioner of IDOC, Dr. William VanNess, IDOC's Chief Medical Officer, and Monica Gipson, R.N., IDOC's Director of Health Care Services. Plaintiffs contend that IDOC's treatment of individuals with chronic HCV violates the Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the Rehabilitation Act. Plaintiffs have moved for summary judgment on their Eighth Amendment claim, and Defendants have cross-moved for summary judgment on all claims. For the reasons that follow, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs' Motion as to liability on the Eighth Amendment claim, and DENIES Defendants' Cross-Motion on all claims. For the reasons stated herein, the Court GRANTS IN PART and DENIES IN

		PART Plaintiffs' evidentiary objections, as set forth in this Order 166 ; GRANTS IN PART and DENIES IN PART Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Dr. VanNess and Ms. Gipson as defendants, to the extent that it DISMISSES Ms. Gipson 173 ; DENIES Defendants' Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment on all claims 173 ; MODIFIES the class definition to include all current and future prisoners in IDOC custody who have been diagnosed, or will be diagnosed, with chronic HCV, and for whom treatment with DAA medication is not medically contraindicated; DECERTIFIES the certified class as to the ADA and Rehabilitation Act claims only 154 ; and GRANTS Plaintiffs' Motion for Summary Judgment as to liability on the Eighth Amendment claim. 166 The Court requests that the Magistrate Judge confer with the parties at his earliest possible convenience in order to establish a schedule for the remaining proceedings. The Court also ORDERS the Clerk to update the docket to reflect that Plaintiffs raise this suit on behalf of themselves and other similarly situated individuals. (SEE ORDER). 10/16/2019	265	ORDER - On October 15, 2019, the Court held a hearing on the parties' Stipulation to Enter into Settlement Agreement, dkt. 253, to determine if the proposed stipulation is fair, reasonable and adequate as required under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). Plaintiffs were present by counsel Mark Sniderman and Robert Katz. Defendants were present by counsel Jordan Stover, Lyubov Gore and Ilene Smith. The court reporter was Jean Knepley. Counsel addressed the history of the litigation, notice that was given to class members, comments received by class members and others, and the relevant factors identified in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e)(2). The Court ORDERED plaintiff's counsel to submit a motion for attorneys' fees by October 22, 2019. Prior to the hearing, counsel filed a proposed order, dkt. 264-1. 12/11/2019	275	ORDER DISCUSSING NON-PARTY REQUEST FOR COPIES - On December 9, 2019, Ronnie Bee Cislo filed a motion for copies and a "Notice By a[n] Interested Party Seeking Assistance." Dkts. 273 & 274. Mr. Cislo's motion for copies, dkt. 273 , is granted to the extent that the clerk is directed to include a copy of docket 253 with Mr. Cislo's copy of this Order. Docket 253 is the Parties Stipulation and includes the most pertinent information in this case. The motion is denied as to all other requested docket entries which total 2278 pages of filings in this case. If Mr. Cislo wishes to purchase a copy of these additional filings, he may write to the clerk noting the documents he requests and including payment. Copies cost $0.50 per page, so the total cost for his current request would be $1139.00. Mr. Cislo's notice, dkt. 274 , states that he is a former inmate of the Indiana Department of Correction ("IDOC") who suffers from Chronic Hepatitis C. He believes he is a member of the class in this action because class counsel Mark Sniderman reported to the Court in case number 1:18-cv-02511-RLY-DLP that Mr. Cislo appeared to be a member of the class. But Mr. Cislo was in IDOC custody at the time Mr. Sniderman submitted that report. Because Mr. Cislo is no longer incarcerated in the IDOC, he is not entitled to any injunctive relief in this action.
