During the month of Ramadan, each defendant had personal knowledge & involvement of the violation of my 1st Amendment Right after being made aware of the proper feeding times for Muslims from 5/16/18 - 6/7/18, as well as having several grievances written & submitted via paper Grievance as well as on the Pod Kiosk system. No changes were made with the earliest Grievance being submitted on 5/17/18. Now on 5/21/18, during Ramadan, around sunset time (Maghrib) Tray, while Officer Gunn was running Housing Unit E and Cpl Lachowski was running Housing Unit 3 unit control (which controls Housing Unit A-E) I was only provided with one Common Fare tray in which according to the Ramadan Contract I signed in order to participate as well as state law states that I'm entitled to 2 meals once the sun has went down. Now I was only provided with 1 meal by Officer Gunn and once I stated to her I am missing my Common Fare Bag her response was there is no such thing as a Common Fare Bag so once I continued to complain she placed a call to Unit Control which was being ran by Cpl Lachowski she said "He also said there is no such thing as a Common Fare Bag and if there is I'm not going to get one." Now this particular time of day was after the kitchen was closed which resulted in me not being fed a whole meal.

On 5/25/18, I stated to Sgt. Jones as a Muslim my sunset tray (Maghrib) should be warm when served. Sgt. Jones stated to me "I don't care if the tray is warm or cold. Get out of my face. If you have a problem file a grievance."

On the morning of 5/28/18, Sgt. Armstrong stated to me once when the trays were ^{late} that he knew exactly when the trays were to be passed out he does this every year but said he wasn't going to get any trays because he didn't feel like it.

Next, on 5/29/18, another occasion breakfast trays were late again they were brought in by officer Shiplett & Officer Childs I denied the tray due to the fact it was past the Fajr Sabah time at that point I was asked repeatedly by Ofc. Childs to take the tray she also admitted to knowing the trays were late by saying "I know they're late just take them. No one is gonna tell."

Ofc. Shiplett then stated "yeah the trays have been ready but I had to catch up on my rounds in other pods/units first."

Shortly after that day while still observing Ramadan on 5/29/18 Ofc. Bregant stated to me after I denied my tray due to the fact that it was late "that even though they were available for some time now and I know you all ^{have} to eat by a certain time I just can't do it when it's supposed to be done. Sorry"

Also, I was told by Cpl. Lachowski on a particular day that it's no need to continue to grieve us we have been doing Ramadan for years as Cpl. Wright nodded in agreement. (5/26/18)

Now, Ofc. Solomon that works Patrol in the kitchen was made aware of the Salah time frames through the Grievance Procedure and after being informed of the issue she said "that she was not going to alter her schedule or come in earlier to feed them" (speaking of Muslims participating in Ramadan) and this message was relayed to us by an officer Taylor.

Next, Trinity Food Services Manager Mr. Keith was made aware of my communal fare tray issues as a whole through the Grievance Procedure dealing with the Cleanliness of the tray, Food Temp/ Portions & the Blessings of the Food by an Imam at no particular time have any of the problems been fixed. Even now that Ramadan has ended I still continue to receive cold, dirty, & disproportionate trays after an Inmate Grievance Response was sent to me stating that the problem will be corrected. (5/24/18)

Next, Sgt. Talley, An Inmate Grievance Officer, who has only returned exactly 1 of my many Grievances that I have submitted & who also continues to deny the existence of all my

Other many Grievances, has personal knowledge and Involvement of the violation of my 1st Amendment Right because he has made no attempt to recover any of my other Grievances and because even after I made him aware of the problem I was GRIEVING and he said he would check into the matters nothing happened. Even after I asked him to stick around and see the trays for himself he declined the offer and left the pod. 6/15/18

Also Sgt. Spratley, An Inmate Grievance officer, who has responded to my one Grievance & Appeal has told me "that I don't have any Grievances on file step 1 or Step 2 to even obtain an '983 form" has personal knowledge & Involvement in violating my 1st Amendment Right mainly because of the retaliatory nature & undue delay in regards to the many other grievances I have submitted pertaining to this matter which has hindered immediate relief to issues on said grievances that were either hidden or blatantly destroyed.

During the month of Ramadan, the volunteer imam, provided us with Qurans. Chaplin Joe Collins said we would only be able to receive them at his discretion. At no point since they arrived has the chaplain made them available. At this point I'm being Devoid of all Islamic material that should be made available per request. Chaplin Joe Collins also frequently moves the times of Jumah on Fridays which takes the Muslims in Housing Unit 3 out of the Dhunicr salah time frame

If he allows Jumah at all which was actually cancelled on 6/8/18. However, all other religious Denominations are able to meet and worship several times a week.

Next, Jeffrey Newton, Superintendent of Riverside Regional Jail, continues to retain Personal Knowledge and Involvement in the violation of my 1st Amendment right. Even though no one on care contact was made or statements he shall be held accountable under the Principle Agent theory in which each defendant acted under his command or authority in which he can be held liable for their actions and or alleged violations. through constructive notice.

Often, throughout Ramadan I can be viewed in my assigned cell offering salah at various scheduled times during each day as well as in Jumah or Fridays. Also, I can be viewed on pod security cameras filling out & turning in various grievances to different officers assigned to control this housing unit on the aforementioned dates and others as well.

Furthermore, My A1C Blood sugar count had to be checked on more than one occasion during Ramadan (last checked 6/7/18 by nurse Campbell) due to the negligence of each defendant and their non-compliance of my Islamic Beliefs by each defendant named.

Due to these violations, by each defendant named, I have been mentally, physically & emotionally scarred and the damage is irreprehensible. The residual effects of these acts can be felt daily in the social & religious climate around me dealing with inmate to officer relationships and or interaction.
