

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

Carlos Morales Feliciano, et al.

v.

Civil No. 79-004(PJB)

Alejandro García Padilla, et al.

O R D E R

On March 31, 2016, the parties submitted a joint motion requesting that the claims period begin on May 15, 2016. See Doc. No. 10585. Pursuant to that motion, the six-month claims period shall run from May 15, 2016 until November 15, 2016. Upon agreement by the parties, at least seven days before May 15, 2016, plaintiffs shall (1) publish notice of the claims period via full-page advertisements in El Nuevo Dia and Primera Hora, the two largest circulation newspapers in Puerto Rico, and (2) take the notice website live. Plaintiffs shall post the claims form on the notice website. In addition, at least seven days prior to May 15, 2016, defendants shall post notice of the commencement of the claims period and claims forms in the libraries and living quarters of every penal institution in Puerto Rico.

All of the above-described notice methods shall (1) be in both English and Spanish, (2) state the claims period, (3) explain where a claimant can find a claims form, and (4) describe how, and to whom, claimants should submit their claims form. The parties may seek reimbursement for performing these steps by requesting a disbursement of fine funds, supported by relevant invoices.

SO ORDERED.

/s/Paul Barbadoro
Paul Barbadoro
United States District Judge
Sitting by Designation

April 1, 2016

cc: Counsel of Record