*Admitted Pro Hac Vice
Pro Hac Vice Application Forthcoming

1 Plaintiffs respectfully move for leave to file an emergency motion for 2 provisional class certification prior to waiting seven days following the parties'
3 meet and confer as prescribed by C.D. Cal. Local Rule 7-3 (L.R. 7-3). The 4 emergency motion seeks provisional certification on behalf of two subclasses of 5 medically vulnerable people in ICE custody. Plaintiffs have moved for preliminary 6 injunctive relief in response to exigent circumstances arising from the lethal and 7 imminent threat of the COVID-19 pandemic.

8 Local Rules are established to promote the Court's efficiency, and the 9 Courts have broad discretion in their application. Threshold Media Corp. v.
10 Relatively Media, LLC, CV 10-09318 DMG (AJWx), 2013 WL 12331550, *1
11 (C.D. Cal. March 19, 2013) (citation omitted) ("Decisions from the Central District 12 of California reflect a flexible approach to the application of Local Rule 7-3").
13 Local Rule 7-3's objective is for counsel to discuss "the substance of the 14 contemplated motion" so that that a resolution may be reached, eliminating the 15 "necessity for a hearing." Id. at *2.

16 On March 20, 2020, Plaintiffs e-mailed Defendants' counsel to inform them
17 of the serious concerns regarding ICE's inadequate response to the COVID-19
18 pandemic. Decl. of Jared Davidson ¶ 3, attached as Exhibit A. Defendants
19 responded later that day referring Plaintiffs to ICE's guidelines regarding COVID-20 19. Davidson Decl. ¶ 4. On March 23, 2020, Plaintiffs notified Defendants of their 21 intention to file a motion for emergency relief in light of Defendants' ongoing
22 failure to adequately respond to the threat of COVID-19 as well as an emergency
23 motion for class certification. Davidson Decl. ¶ 5. Plaintiffs also requested that 24 Defendants waive the meet and confer requirement or, in the alternative, waive the 25 seven-day waiting period following a meet and confer. Id. The Defendants 26 responded that they were willing to meet and confer that same day, which 27 occurred. Davidson Decl. ¶ 6. On March 24, 2020, Plaintiffs followed up to inquire
28

1 whether Defendants were willing to waive the seven-day notice requirement.
2 Davidson Decl. ¶ 7. Defendants responded that they do not object to waiving the 7-
3 day waiting period. Id.

4 Plaintiffs satisfied the substance of L.R. 7-3 by notifying Defendants of their 5 intention to file an emergency class certification motion and meeting and 6 conferring with Defendants. Further, Defendants have indicated that they do not 7 object to waiver of the seven-day waiting period. Given the critical and immediate 8 threat of COVID-19, a seven-day delay will exponentially increase the risk of 9 harm, even death, facing Plaintiffs and the subclass.

10 For all these reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court exercise
11 its broad discretion, for good cause shown, to grant the Plaintiffs’ unopposed
12 motion for leave to waive the seven-day period and allow Plaintiffs to file their 13 emergency motion for class certification. A proposed order is attached.

1. My name is Jared Davidson, and I am amongst the counsel for Plaintiffs in the above-referenced case. I am submitting this Declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Leave to File an Emergency Motion for Provisional Class Certification prior to waiting seven days following the parties’ meet and confer as prescribed by Local Rule 7-3.
2. In this case, Plaintiffs allege, inter alia, that Defendants fail to provide adequate medical care in detention facilities run by Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”), thereby placing Plaintiffs and similarly situated people at a substantial risk of serious harm. Accordingly, Plaintiffs’ counsel has been carefully monitoring the spread of COVID-19, its implications for Plaintiffs and the putative class, and ICE’s response.
3. On March 20, 2020, Plaintiffs e-mailed Defendants’ counsel to inform them of Plaintiffs’ serious concerns regarding ICE’s inadequate response to the COVID-19 pandemic for people in ICE custody. In that communication, Plaintiffs specifically identified numerous deficiencies in ICE’s protocols, including inadequate screening, failure to protect medically vulnerable people, and failures to address pre-existing inadequacies concerning staffing and access to medical care.
4. On the same day, Defendants’ counsel responded. In that email, Defendants’ merely referred Plaintiffs to a website operated by ICE describing ICE’s guidance. Defendants failed to address Plaintiffs’ serious concerns regarding ICE’s inadequate responses, as reflected in their guidance.
5. On March 23, 2020, Plaintiffs notified Defendants via e-mail that they intended to file a motion for emergency relief in light of Defendants’ ongoing failure to adequately respond to the threat of COVID-19. Plaintiffs also informed Defendants that they would file an emergency motion for class certification on behalf of medically vulnerable people in ICE custody. Plaintiffs inquired whether Defendants would stipulate to class certification or any Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 requirements. Plaintiffs also requested that Defendants waive the meet and confer requirement or, in the alternative, waive the seven-day waiting period following a meet and confer.
6. On March 23, 2020, Defendants responded via e-mail that they would be willing to meet and confer the same day. The parties thereafter met and conferred. Plaintiffs again requested that Defendants stipulate to class certification or, in the alternative, to any of the requirements of Rule 23.

1 Defendants declined to do so at that time. Plaintiffs also requested that 2 Defendants waive the 7-day waiting period following the meet and confer in 3 light of the emergent issues. Defendants' counsel represented that they 4 would inquire with their client.

5 7. On March 24, 2020, Plaintiffs inquired via e-mail whether Defendants'
6 counsel had conferred with their clients to determine whether they would be 7 willing to waive the 7-day notice requirement. Defendants responded that 8 they do not object to waiving the 7-day notice requirement.

9 8. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is copy of the above-described e-mail
10 exchanges between the parties.

11 9. Due to the real and growing threats of COVID-19, Plaintiffs fear that any 12 additional delay will magnify the risk of harm—and even death—facing 13 Plaintiffs and the subclass.

14 I declare under penalty of perjury that the statements above are true and correct to 15 the best of my knowledge and that this declaration was executed on March 24,
16 2020 in New Orleans, Louisiana.
