04/21/2020		MINUTE ORDER: As discussed in todays telephonic hearing, the Court ORDERS that Plaintiffs' 61 Emergency Motion for Preliminary Injunction is DENIED. Plaintiffs are ultimately seeking relief that is either beyond the scope of their suit or has already been granted. In other words, as the Court has already enjoined Defendants to follow their Parole Directive, see ECF No. 32-33, it is unnecessary to do so again. To the extent that Plaintiffs' Motion recasts their case as one relating to conditions in the detention centers resulting from COVID-19, that is beyond the scope of their suit. In addition, the recent decision in Fraihat v. ICE , see ECF No. 68-1, appears to offer Plaintiffs (and others) the relief they seek here related to the review of high-risk detainees. As discussed, Plaintiffs remain free to file a motion for contempt that contends that Defendants are currently not complying with this Court's injunction and the Parole Directive. So ORDERED by Judge James E. Boasberg on 4/21/2020. (lcjeb2) (Entered: 04/21/2020)
