

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Mons, et al., )
)
Plaintiffs, )
)
v. ) No. 19-cv-1593 (JEB)
)
)
Kevin K. McAleenan, et al., )
)
)
Defendants. )

[PLAINTIFFS' PROPOSED] ORDER

As discussed at the status conference on January 7, 2020, the Court orders the following over Defendants' objection:

The Court clarifies that the continuing class that this Court certified in the order dated September 5, 2019, is defined as follows: (1) all arriving asylum seekers; (2) who receive positive credible fear determination; and (3) who are or will be detained by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement after having been denied parole by the New Orleans ICE Field Office, including all those denied parole after September 5, 2019. The Court further orders that the continuing class meets the conditions supplied by Rule 23.

The Court further orders Defendants to provide a copy of the previously agreed upon class notice (both the English and Spanish versions) on an ongoing basis to provisional class members as defined herein. In the alternative, if Defendants choose, they may distribute a copy of the previously agreed upon class notice (in English and Spanish) to all arriving asylum-seekers, on an ongoing basis, who are detained by ICE at a facility within the New Orleans Field Office.

The Court further orders Defendants to distribute a copy of the previously agreed upon class notice (both the English and Spanish versions) to all provisional class members who arrived on or after September 5, 2019, and are currently detained at facilities within the jurisdiction of the New Orleans Field Office. This distribution shall commence during the period between January 14, 2020 to January 28, 2020. In the alternative, if Defendants choose, they may distribute a copy of the previously agreed upon class notice (in English and Spanish) during the referenced two-week time period to those provisional class members who arrived on or after September 5, 2019, and are currently detained at facilities within the New Orleans Field Office who were not previously provided a copy of the class notice, or Defendants may choose to distribute a copy (in English and Spanish) during the referenced time period to all individuals who arrived on or after September 5, 2019, and are detained at facilities within the jurisdiction of the New Orleans Field Office.

~~Further, the Court orders Defendants to provide class members who do not speak English or Spanish with interpretation or translation of the notice in a language that they understand.~~

SO ORDERED.

United States District Judge

J. Bowberg