06/28/2018		MINUTE ORDER: Defendants' 162 Memorandum Regarding the Admissibility of the May 17, 2018 Internal Guidance notes that if the Court orders that the Guidance be disclosed to Plaintiffs, significant portions of the document would need to be redacted due to various privileges; Defendants fail to indicate with specificity which sections would require redactions or which privileges would apply. It is therefore ORDERED that, on or before July 9, 2018, Defendants shall submit to the chambers of Magistrate Judge Meriweather, for in camera review, a new copy of the May 17th Guidance that includes precise annotations identifying which sections of the document Defendants believe should be redacted and clearly identifies the privilege(s) on which each proposed redaction is based. It is further ORDERED that Defendants shall also submit for in camera review, on or before July 9, 2018, any declaration or other documents necessary to formally assert the relevant privilege(s); if the declaration contains privileged information, Defendants shall prepare a redacted version for service upon Plaintiffs.
