The City of Seattle and the United States ("Parties") hereby jointly move to convert the Court's temporary restraining order regarding the City's Crowd Control Weapons ("CCW") Ordinance (Dkt. 630) into a preliminary injunction in order to facilitate review under the process set forth in paragraphs 177 to 181 of the Consent Decree ("Policy Review Process"). The Parties further stipulate that the preliminary injunction shall expire only by Court order (either after demonstration that the Policy Review Process has taken place or has been rendered moot) or by joint motion of the Parties recommending that the preliminary injunction be terminated and approval by the Court.

In light of this stipulation, the parties further request that the deadline for the Parties' response to the filings of the Accountability Partners (required by July 22, 2020 Order (Dkt. 626)) be stricken and such briefing instead be incorporated into the same Policy Review Process and its related briefings. The Parties believe that briefing in advance of that time would be premature and may be rendered moot.

Respectfully submitted,

DATED this 1st day of October, 2020.
