

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DIVISION

OGLALA SIOUX TRIBE and ROSEBUD SIOUX TRIBE, as parens patriae, to protect the rights of their tribal members; MADONNA PAPPAN, and LISA YOUNG, individually and on behalf of all other persons similarly situated, vs.

Plaintiffs,

LISA FLEMING; MARK VARGO; HONORABLE CRAIG PFEIFLE; and LYNNE A. VALENTI, in their official capacities, Defendants.

CIV. 13-5020-JLV

DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

Incorporating the order of March 30, 2015 (Docket 150), the order of February 19, 2016 (Docket 217), and the court's orders of December 15, 2016, (Dockets 301 and 302), for good cause shown and pursuant to the court's inherent equitable authority, the court enters the following declaratory judgment.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that pursuant to the Indian Child Welfare Act¹ and the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, ¹25 U. S. C. § 1901 et seq. ("ICWA").

the following rights exist for the benefit of Indian children, parents, custodians and tribes in 48-hour hearings² and all subsequent emergency proceedings:³

THE RIGHT TO ADEQUATE NOTICE

1. The ICWA affidavit must state with sufficient detail the facts⁴ which justify the emergency removal of an Indian child⁵ from its parent or custodian and the facts which warrant the continued separation of a child from its parent or custodian to “prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the child;”⁶

²SDCL § 26-7 A-14 directs “no child may be held in temporary custody longer than forty-eight hours . . . excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and court holidays, unless a . . . petition has been filed . . . and the court orders longer custody during a noticed hearing” These proceedings are commonly referred to as a “48-hour hearing.”

³“Emergency proceeding means and includes any court action that involves an emergency removal or emergency placement of an Indian child.” 25 CFR § 23.2 (December 12, 2016). “These proceedings are distinct from other types of ‘child-custody proceedings’ under [ICWA].” Executive Summary to the Department of the Interior’s regulations implementing ICWA, 81 Fed. Reg. 38778-38876, 38793 (June 14, 2016) (“Executive Summary”).

⁴At this point these are only “alleged facts” until proven during a 48-hour hearing but will be referred to as “facts” unless otherwise indicated.

⁵All references to “child(ren),” “parent(s),” and “custodian(s)” will mean Indians as that term is defined by 25 U.S.C. § 1903(3).

⁶25 U.S.C. § 1922. “[Section] 1922 does not permit consideration of ‘emotional damage or harm’ in § 1922 emergency proceedings under 25 CFR part 23.” (Docket 301 at p. 7).

2. The petition for temporary custody (“petition”) must:
 - a. state what documents, if any, are incorporated by reference and copies of all incorporated documents⁷ must be attached to the petition;
 - b. describe that the purpose of the petition is to seek continued temporary custody of a child with the South Dakota Department of Social Services (“DSS”);
 - c. advise that the State has the burden to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that continued removal is necessary to prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the child;
 - d. advise the parent or custodian of the possible immediate and ultimate consequences of the proceeding;
 - e. advise the parent or custodian of the right to request that the state proceedings be transferred to tribal court;⁸
 - f. advise that if the parent or custodian is indigent, the court will appoint counsel and will grant a continuance, not to exceed 24

⁷If the incorporated document is a police report subject to the provisions of SDCL § 26-7A-29, the States Attorney or his designated deputy must file a written motion or make an oral motion to the court permitting the disclosure of the police report to the Indian parent or custodian and their attorney.

⁸As required by 25 U.S.C. § 1911(b).

hours, to enable counsel to become familiar with the facts of the case and confer with the parent or custodian;⁹ and

g. state that the parent or custodian and their attorney have the following rights at the 48-hour hearing:

1. to contest the allegations in the petition;
2. to require the State to present evidence in support of the petition;
3. to cross-examine the State's witnesses and the preparers of any documents presented to the court; and
4. to subpoena witnesses and present testimony.

3. The parent or custodian and tribe must be given a copy of the ICWA affidavit and the petition at the earliest practical time but in no event later than the commencement of the 48-hour hearing; and

4. At the commencement of the 48-hour hearing, on the record the court must:

- a. state what documents have been provided to the court and confirm that copies of the documents have been given to the parent or custodian and tribe;

⁹"In any case in which the court determines indigency, the parent or Indian custodian shall have the right to court-appointed counsel in any removal, placement, or termination proceeding." 25 U.S.C. § 1912(b).

- b. provide a clear statement of the purpose of the proceeding and the possible immediate and ultimate consequences of the hearing;
- c. advise of the right to counsel and appoint counsel if the parent or custodian is indigent and requests the assistance of counsel;
- d. grant a continuance, not to exceed 24 hours, to permit counsel to prepare and consult with the parent or custodian and tribe; and
- e. state to the parent or custodian and tribe that they have the certain rights with respect to the petition, namely:
 - 1. to request that the State proceedings be transferred to tribal court;
 - 2. to contest the allegations in the petition;
 - 3. to require the State to present sworn testimony in support of the petition;
 - 4. to cross-examine the State's witnesses;
 - 5. to subpoena and present witnesses in opposition to the petition;
 - 6. to require the State to prove by a preponderance of the evidence presented during the 48-hour hearing that continued removal of a child is necessary to prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the child; and

7. to require the State and the DSS to use active efforts¹⁰ to reunite the family.

THE RIGHT TO PRESENT EVIDENCE

1. Parents, custodians and tribes have the right to subpoena witnesses and must be permitted to present sworn testimony and other evidence during a 48-hour hearing; and
2. Parents, custodians and tribes have the right to subpoena any person who provided information in support of or in contradiction to the ICWA affidavit or petition.

THE RIGHT TO CROSS-EXAMINE

1. Parents, custodians and tribes have the right to cross-examine witnesses including the DSS child protection services staff member who signed the ICWA affidavit as well as all other witnesses whose statements form the factual basis for any document submitted to the court for consideration during the 48-hour hearing.

THE RIGHT TO COUNSEL

1. If indigent, parents and custodians have the right to the assistance of court-appointed counsel; and

¹⁰“Any party seeking to effect a foster care placement of . . . an Indian child under State law shall satisfy the court that active efforts have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that these efforts have proved unsuccessful.” 25 U.S.C. § 1912(d). See also 23 CFR § 23.2 (December 12, 2016) which defines “active efforts.”

2. If counsel is requested, but not immediately available, or if counsel is appointed, counsel may request the 48-hour hearing be continued for a period of time not to exceed 24 hours, to permit the parent, custodian and tribe and counsel to prepare for the hearing.

THE RIGHT TO A DECISION BASED ON THE EVIDENCE PRESENTED AT THE HEARING

1. The decision of the State court must be based solely on testimony and evidence presented during the 48-hour hearing;
2. The States Attorney's presentation must include testimony showing the active efforts of DSS to reunify the family following the emergency removal or placement; and
3. The decision of the State court must be articulated on the record and include specific findings as to whether DSS engaged in active efforts to reunify the family and any reason authorized by § 1922 that continued placement with DSS is necessary to prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the child.

THE 48-HOUR HEARING MUST USE THE § 1922 STANDARD

1. At the conclusion of a 48-hour hearing, a child must be restored to the custody of its parent or custodian unless the State proved by a preponderance of the evidence that continued custody with DSS is necessary to prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the child.

DSS MUST USE THE § 1922 STANDARD IN DETERMINING WHEN TO RETURN AN INDIAN CHILD TO THE HOME

1. In the event a temporary custody order is entered at the conclusion of a 48-hour hearing, DSS shall immediately report to the court that the justification for the temporary custody order has ended because returning the child to its parent or custodian will not place the child at imminent risk of physical damage or harm; and
2. In the event a temporary custody order is entered at the conclusion of a 48-hour hearing, the court shall immediately return the child to its parent or custodian as soon as justification for the temporary custody order has ended because returning the child will not place the child at imminent risk of physical damage or harm.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the court retains jurisdiction for the purpose of enforcing and modifying this declaratory judgment and for the purpose of granting additional relief as may be necessary and appropriate.

Dated December 15, 2016.
