INTRODUCTION

1. This case presents circumstances that would have been unthinkable to our Founding Fathers. The Executive Branch has adopted an unconstitutional policy of favoring aliens that have unlawfully entered the United States over actual U.S. citizens, both native and foreign born, with the inalienable right to live here. In doing so, the Biden Administration respected the putative rights of those illegally entering the United States, while simultaneously showing contempt for the actual rights of U.S. citizens. This preference is unlawful and violates the Equal Protection Clause.

2. Specifically, the Biden Administration has disclaimed any COVID-19 vaccination requirement for unauthorized aliens, even those being released directly into the United States. Although the Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”) offers vaccination to aliens it apprehends unlawfully entering the United States, it does not insist that they be vaccinated—even if they are being released into the U.S., rather than being immediately deported. Many refuse: reporting indicates that roughly 30% decline the offer of vaccination.¹ That is so even though COVID-19 is prevalent among migrants: “more than 18% of migrant families who recently crossed the border tested positive for COVID before being released by Border Patrol. Another 20% of unaccompanied minors tested positive for the virus.”²

3. The upshot is that aliens unlawfully crossing into the United States are not bound by any federal vaccination requirement whatsoever. Their rights to choose to be vaccinated—or not—command the unadulterated respect of Defendants. Those of U.S. citizens: not so much. The same Administration that would not dream of infringing upon the right of unauthorized aliens to choose whether to be vaccinated (or not), has no equivalent regard for the rights of United States citizens.

¹ Michael Lee, “Biden’s vaccination mandate doesn’t include illegal immigrants,” Fox News (September 9, 2021), <https://www.foxnews.com/politics/biden-plan-for-forced-vaccinations-doesnt-include-illegal-immigrants> (accessed September 10, 2021).

1 4. Instead, the Biden Administration has announced multiple, unprecedented 2 federal mandates requiring U.S. citizens to be vaccinated against COVID-19, upon pain
3 of losing their jobs or their livelihood. In particular, on September 9, 2021, President 4 Biden pronounced that his “patience is wearing thin”³ with Americans who choose not to 5 receive the COVID-19 vaccine. President Biden announced plans to require that all private 6 employers with more than 100 employees impose COVID-19 vaccine mandates on their 7 employees; that all federal employees and contractors receive the COVID-19 vaccine; and 8 that virtually all health care providers receive the COVID-19 vaccine.

9 5. At the same time, driven by President Biden’s campaign promises of lax 10 immigration enforcement and loose border security, Defendants have created a crisis at 11 the southern border leading to an unprecedented wave of unlawful immigration into the 12 U.S. And even though about one in five aliens arriving in the United States without 13 authorization are infected with COVID-19, Defendants let these aliens refuse vaccination, 14 thus protecting aliens’ freedom and bodily autonomy more than for American citizens.⁴

15 6. Indeed, as Table 1 (taken from Defendants’ own website) shows, DHS 16 encounters with unauthorized aliens are at their highest level in years, and continually 17 increasing.

1 7. Although the precise contours of the federal vaccination mandates are not 2 yet clear, the violation of the Equal Protection Clause is already evident and egregious. In 3 a nutshell: unauthorized aliens will not be subject to any vaccination requirements even 4 when released directly into the United States (where most will remain), while roughly a 5 hundred million U.S. citizens will be subject to unprecedented vaccination requirements.
6 This reflects an unmistakable—and unconstitutional—brand of favoritism in favor of 7 unauthorized aliens.

8 8. This discrimination in favor of unauthorized aliens violates the Equal 9 Protection Clause. Notably, alienage is a suspect class that triggers strict scrutiny. More 10 typically (and almost invariably previously), this discrimination was against aliens rather 11 than for them. See, e.g., Graham v. Richardson, 403 U.S. 365, 371, 375-376 (1971); 12 Application of Griffiths, 413 U.S. 717, 721 (1973). But the same principle applies to 13 favoritism against U.S. citizens in favor of aliens. Defendants’ actions could never 14 conceivably pass strict scrutiny.

15 9. Moreover, even if only rational basis review applied, Defendants’ 16 discrimination is still unconstitutional. Given that, on information and belief, hundreds of 17 thousands of aliens apprehended by Defendants are being released into the United States, 18 and given Defendants’ palpable indifference to whether these aliens are vaccinated, 19 Defendants’ simultaneous and unhealthy fixation as to whether U.S. citizens are 20 vaccinated is irrational and indefensible. Defendants’ policy of absolutely excluding 21 unauthorized aliens from all vaccination requirements, while subjecting U.S. citizens to 22 multiple, unprecedented, sweeping, and intrusive mandates is wildly unconstitutional and 23 should not stand.

24 10. Because Defendants’ respect for individual rights vis-à-vis vaccination 25 mandates appears to extend only to unauthorized aliens, and not U.S. citizens, their actions 26 violate the Equal Protection Clause and should be invalidated. American citizens should

1 be entitled to treatment at least as favorable as what Defendants afford to unauthorized 2 aliens. This Court should accordingly declare this preferential treatment unlawful and 3 enjoin actions taken pursuant to it.

4 11. The illegality and incoherence of Defendants’ policies is also apparent in 5 their differential treatment among immigrants. Those who illegally enter the United States 6 will not be subject to any vaccination mandate. In stark contrast, aliens who go through 7 legal channels to obtain work visas, lawfully enter the United States, and are employed by 8 a company with more than 99 workers, will be subject to the vaccination mandate.
9 Defendants’ policies thus discriminate between immigrants by unconstitutionally favoring 10 those who illegally entered the United States over those who lawfully did so.

11 12. Defendants’ unlawful actions here, however, are but one piece of a greater 12 series of constitutionally improper actions: one of the greatest infringements upon 13 individual liberties, principles of federalism, and separation of powers ever attempted by 14 any administration in the history of our Republic. Defendants’ ambitions are not limited 15 to exceeding their delegated powers and violating the Constitution merely through 16 unconstitutional discrimination alone. Instead, they intend inter alia to (1) violate the 17 rights of citizens to bodily integrity, (2) violate principles of federalism, under which the 18 federal government has only enumerated powers, by exercising the sort of general police 19 power reserved solely to the States under the Tenth Amendment, and 20 (3) unconstitutionally subvert Congress’s authority by exercising quintessentially 21 legislative powers, and in a manner that could never pass either (let alone both) Houses of 22 Congress today—which is precisely why Defendants have no intent whatsoever to ask for 23 legislative authorization to take such unprecedented actions. Under our Constitution, the 24 President is not a king who can exercise this sort of unbridled power unilaterally. And 25 even George III wouldn’t have dreamed that he could enact such sweeping policies by 26 royal decree alone.

1 13. Recognizing that the Federal Government lacks the authority to directly 2 impose a mandate, even the President’s own Chief of Staff retweeted that what the 3 administration was planning for citizens (but not unauthorized aliens) would be the 4 “ultimate work-around.”

17 Source: <https://www.foxnews.com/politics/klain-vaccine-coronavirus-mandate>

18 14. The inadvertent admission in the preceding paragraph makes all of the 19 administration’s actions constitutionally suspect. These other violations will be the subject 20 of future challenges. Courts will have an opportunity to review and invalidate those 21 forthcoming mandates as to private employers, federal contractors, federal employees, and 22 health care workers. But this particular component—i.e., the unconstitutional 23 discrimination against U.S. citizens, lawful permanent residents, and aliens lawfully 24 residing and working in the U.S.—is ripe for judicial review and invalidation now.

LEGAL BACKGROUND

25. The Supreme Court established in Bolling v. Sharpe, 347 U.S. 497, 498 (1954) that the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment is incorporated against the federal government through the Fifth Amendment’s Due Process Clause. See also Sessions v. Morales, 137 S. Ct. 1678, 1686 n.1 (2017) (the Supreme Court’s “approach to Fifth Amendment equal protection claims has always been precisely the same as to equal protection claims under the Fourteenth Amendment”).

26. Aliens and citizens are protected classes in equal protection jurisprudence, triggering strict scrutiny when the government has a differential policy based on such classifications. See Graham v. Richardson, 403 U.S. 365, 371, 375-376 (1971); Application of Griffiths, 413 U.S. 717, 721 (1973). Generally, prior case law in this area has involved discrimination against aliens as a class. But the reverse preference in favor of authorized aliens is just as constitutionally suspect.

27. Under principles of federalism, the federal government has only enumerated powers and not the sort of general police power reserved solely to the States under the Tenth Amendment. Printz v. United States, 521 U.S. 898, 919 (1997) (“Residual state sovereignty was also implicit, of course, in the Constitution's conferral upon Congress of not all governmental powers, but only discrete, enumerated ones, Art. I, § 8, which implication was rendered express by the Tenth Amendment's assertion that “[t]he powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.”). “The powers reserved to the several States will extend to all the objects which, in the ordinary course of affairs, concern the lives, liberties, and properties of the people, and the internal order, improvement, and prosperity of the State.” The Federalist No. 45 (James Madison).

1 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

2 28. On September 9, 2021, President Biden announced his “new plan to require 3 more Americans to be vaccinated” by imposing “new vaccination requirements” that 4 “require all employers with 100 or more employees, that together employ over 80 million 5 workers, to ensure their workforces are fully vaccinated or show a negative test at least 6 once a week.” He also announced plans to “require[e] vaccinations” of “those who work 7 in hospitals, home healthcare facilities, or other medical facilities — a total of 17 million 8 healthcare workers.” He further announced that he would “sign an executive order that 9 will now require all executive branch federal employees to be vaccinated — all. And I’ve 10 signed another executive order that will require federal contractors to do the same.” And 11 finally, he announced that he would “require all of nearly 300,000 educators in the federal 12 paid program, Head Start program” to get vaccinated.⁵

13 29. Following President Biden’s remarks, the White House released a webpage 14 with further information about Defendants’ “COVID Plan.” The White House stated that 15 “[t]he Department of Labor’s Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) ...
16 will issue an Emergency Temporary Standard (ETS) to implement” the requirement that 17 “all employers with 100 or more employees to ensure their workforce is fully vaccinated 18 or require any workers who remain unvaccinated to produce a negative test result on at 19 least a weekly basis.” The White House webpage also stated that the Centers for Medicare 20 & Medicaid Services (CMS) would “require COVID-19 vaccinations for workers in most 21 health care settings that receive Medicare or Medicaid reimbursement..., apply[ing] to 22 approximately 50,000 providers and cover[ing] a majority of health care workers across 23 the country.”⁶

24 30. Upon information and belief, neither OSHA nor CMS have yet published 25 any regulations regarding the planned vaccine mandates.

26 ⁵ Supra note 3 (emphasis added).

⁶ <https://www.whitehouse.gov/covidplan/> (accessed September 10, 2021)

1 31. On September 9, 2021, President Biden signed an Executive Order imposing 2 on federal contractors “COVID [s]afety [p]rotocols” to be published at a later date by the 3 Safer Federal Workforce Task Force.⁷ The Executive Order did not explicitly make any 4 provision for religious or medical exemptions to the “safety protocols.” On information 5 and belief and based on President Biden’s prior remarks, Plaintiffs allege that the COVID-6 19 “safety protocols” for contractors will include a vaccine mandate.

7 32. On September 9, 2021 President Biden also signed an Executive Order 8 requiring that “[e]ach agency shall implement ... a program to require COVID-19 9 vaccination for all of its Federal employees.”⁸ The Executive Order made no explicit 10 provision for any religious or medical exemptions to the vaccination requirement.

11 33. Defendants have dismantled much of the country’s border enforcement 12 infrastructure, for example, 1) by imposing a near-moratorium on alien removals through 13 a memorandum issued on January 20, 2021, and then through interim guidance issued by 14 DHS on February 18, 2021; 2) by abandoning the Migrant Protection Protocols (MPP)
15 requiring that aliens from third countries requesting asylum at the border with Mexico 16 must wait in Mexico while awaiting adjudication of their asylum application⁹; and 3) by 17 abandoning construction of already-planned and funded border wall and fencing.
18 Defendants’ actions have led to an enormous increase in attempted border crossings by 19 eliminating disincentives to being caught.

21 _____
22 ⁷ Exec. Order No. 14042, 86 Fed. Reg. 50985, “Ensuring Adequate COVID Safety 23 Protocols for Federal Contractors,” (Sept. 9, 2021).

24 ⁸ Exec. Order No. 14043, 86 Fed. Reg. 50989, “Requiring Coronavirus Disease 2019 25 Vaccination for Federal Employees,” (Sept. 9, 2021).

26 ⁹ Defendants’ attempt to abandon MPP was enjoined by a district court, and both the Fifth Circuit and U.S. Supreme Court have denied the federal government’s requests for a stay pending appeal. See Biden v. Texas, No. 21A21, 2021 WL 3732667 (Aug. 24, 2021); State
v. Biden, No. 21-10806, 2021 WL 3674780, at *1 (5th Cir. Aug. 19, 2021).

1 34. DHS’s own statistics reveal the unprecedented surge of unlawful migration 2 and the collapse of DHS’s control of the border. July 2021 had the highest number of 3 encounters in decades—“the highest monthly encounter number since Fiscal Year 4 2000.”¹⁰ DHS data show that the number of border encounters in July 2021 was more than 5 five times the July 2020 and July 2018 numbers, and roughly 2.5 times July 2019.¹¹ DHS 6 itself has admitted that it is “encountering record numbers of noncitizens ... at the border” 7 that “have strained DHS operations and caused border facilities to be filled beyond their 8 normal operating capacity.”¹²

9 35. Secretary of Homeland Security Alejandro Mayorkas recently 10 acknowledged that the Department of Homeland Security has lost control of the border, 11 lamenting that the current situation is “unsustainable,” that it “cannot continue,” that the 12 system is getting close to “breaking,” and that “we’re going to lose.”¹³

13 36. In addition, Defendants’ actions directly injure the State’s quasi-sovereign 14 “interest, independent of the benefits that might accrue to any particular individual, in 15 assuring that the benefits of the federal system are not denied to its general population,” 16 as well as its “interest in securing residents from the harmful effects of discrimination.”
17 Alfred L. Snapp & Son, Inc. v. Puerto Rico (“Snapp”), 458 U.S. 592, 607-09 (1982).
18 Defendants’ policies directly injure these interests, by subjecting Arizona residents to 19 unlawful discrimination and denying them of the benefit of the Equal Protection Clause.
20

Policy) at 1-2, Huisha-Huisha v. Mayorkas, No. 21-cv-100 (D.D.C. August 2, 2021)

<https://www.foxnews.com/politics/mayorkas-leaked-audio-border>.

1 37. Notwithstanding this crisis, on September 10, 2021, White House Press 2 Secretary Jen Psaki confirmed that COVID-19 vaccinations are not required for 3 unauthorized aliens at the border. Psaki refused, however, to explain why Defendants 4 would require such vaccinations of American citizens and aliens authorized to work in the 5 United States, but at the same time give aliens the right to choose whether to be 6 vaccinated.¹⁴

7 38. Upon information and belief, Defendants also do not impose weekly 8 COVID-19 testing requirements on aliens who have unlawfully entered the United States, 9 as it plans to do for unvaccinated employees of private employers covered by the planned 10 ETS from OSHA.

16 39. The allegations in the preceding paragraphs are reincorporated herein.

17 40. The Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, which is 18 incorporated against the Federal Government Under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth 19 Amendment, guarantees equal protection of the laws and forbids the government from 1 United States, constitutes discrimination on the basis of national origin and alienage in 2 violation of the Equal Protection Clause.

3 42. Defendants’ failure to articulate any justification for their differential, 4 favorable treatment of unauthorized aliens demonstrates discriminatory intent.

5 43. Defendants’ overt statements and expressive acts, including those of 6 President Biden stating his “patience is wearing thin” with Americans who choose not to 7 receive the COVID-19 vaccine and his Chief of Staff retweeting that the plan was the 8 “ultimate work-around” further indicate discriminatory intent.

9 44. There is no rational basis for Defendants’ differential, favorable treatment of 10 unauthorized aliens. For relevant purposes, unauthorized aliens and U.S. citizens/lawful 11 permanent residents are similarly situated.

12 45. Defendants’ differential treatment between immigrants lawfully present in 13 the United States and unauthorized aliens—with vaccination mandates only to apply to the 14 former—is similarly unconstitutional and irrational.

15 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

16 Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court enter judgment:

20 have authority to impose the vaccination mandate on U.S. citizens and lawful 21 permanent residents, let alone discriminate against them as compared to unauthorized 22 aliens;

23 B. Enjoining Defendants from engaging in unconstitutional discrimination against U.S.
