I. INTRODUCTION

1. This action originated when Anthony Navarro filed a charge of discrimination with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC" or "Commission") on March 10, 2004. Navarro alleged that defendant Alyeska Pipeline Service Co. ("Alyeska" or "defendant") discriminated against him based upon his national origin (Hispanic) in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C.\s 2000e, et seq. ("Title VII") when Alyeska failed to promote him to the position of strategic sourcing coordinator and also for retaliating against him after he complained of discrimination. Leona Johnson also filed a charge with the EEOC, on March 19, 2004, alleging violations of Title VII because of race (Alaska Native) and the ADEA in the failure to promote her to the same position and also retaliation.

2. On August 24, 2004, the EEOC issued a letter of determination with a finding of reasonable cause to believe that Alyeska violated Title VII by failing to consider and promote Navarro, Johnson, and a group of similarly situated employees into the strategic sourcing coordinator position. The Commission found that sufficient evidence did not exist to support a finding of retaliation as to Navarro and Johnson or a finding of age discrimination as to Johnson. Thereafter, the parties attempted to conciliate the charge but were unsuccessful.

3. The Commission filed its complaint on September 30, 2004 in the United States District Court for the District of Alaska, and filed an amended complaint on October 28, 2004.

The amended complaint alleges that Alyeska violated Title VII by failing to consider and promote the two charging parties and similarly situated employees because of national origin and race.

4. Navarro and Johnson moved to intervene on February 17, 2005. The motion was unopposed and was granted by the Court on March 14, 2005.

5. Alyeska filed an answer to the Commission's first amended complaint on November

16, 2004, denying the allegations of discrimination in the EEOC's amended complaint. Alyeska filed an answer to the Complaint in Intervention on March 24, 2005, denying the allegations of discrimination and retaliation in the Complaint in Intervention.

6. EEOC and Alyeska want to conclude fully and finally all claims arising out of EEOC's complaint and the charges of discrimination filed with EEOC by Anthony Navarro and Leona Johnson. The EEOC and Alyeska enter into this consent decree to further the objectives of equal employment as set forth in Title VII and Alaska state law.

II. NONADMISSION OF LIABILITY AND NONDETERMINATION BY THE COURT

7. This consent decree is not an adjudication or finding on the merits of this case and shall not be construed as an admission by Alyeska of a violation of Title VII or Alaska state law.

III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

VI. AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER RELIEF

A. General Provisions

11. Alyeska, its officers, agents, and employees will not engage in practices which unlawfully discriminate against applicants or employees on the basis of national origin or race or in retaliation for activity protected by federal statutes against employment discrimination. In recognition of its obligations under Title VII, Alyeska will institute the policies and practices set forth below.

B. Anti-Discrimination Policies and Procedures

12. Alyeska shall carry out anti-discrimination policies, procedures and training for employees, supervisors and management personnel, and it will provide equal employment opportunities for all employees. As an ongoing commitment to Equal Employment Opportunity

EEO policies and how those policies define and identify what constitutes employment discrimination.

13. The EEOC has reviewed Alyeska policies that address discrimination against discrimination under all federally protected categories. The EEOC has reviewed training modules used in these training sessions.

15. Alyeska will notify the EEOC of the completion of the training and will specify the names and job titles of the employees who completed the training as part of its annual reporting to the EEOC.
