

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON

AARON M. HANNA,

Plaintiff,

v.

COLETTE PETERS, TYLER BLEWETT,
LIEUTENANT ROBINSON, SERGEANT
IRVING, OFFICER PLOURD, OFFICER H.
COHELL, OFFICER CARRILLO,
OFFICER NIELSEN, and OFFICER DAVIS,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:21-cv-00493-SB

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION
ADDENDUM

BECKERMAN, U.S. Magistrate Judge.

On March 21, 2022, the Court entered a preliminary injunction ordering Defendants to comply with and enforce ODOC's mask policy at Two Rivers Correctional Institution ("TRCI"). (ECF No. 87.) The Court hereby clarifies that the preliminary injunction applies only to TRCI's current mask policies for correctional staff, and does not apply to TRCI's mask policies for adults in custody ("AIC"). TRCI's AIC mask policies, or its enforcement of those policies, should not change as a result of this Court's preliminary injunction.

The Court further ORDERS that no TRCI employee, including the Defendants, shall retaliate against plaintiff Aaron M. Hanna ("Hanna") for requesting and obtaining the preliminary injunction.

Any violation of the Court's preliminary injunction, or any retaliation against Hanna in response to the preliminary injunction, may result in civil or criminal contempt proceedings and sanctions.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 30th day of March, 2022.

HON. STACIE F. BECKERMAN
United States Magistrate Judge
