EXHIBIT 1

1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 This Consent Decree (“Decree”) has been voluntarily entered into by the parties for the 3 purpose of finally resolving the litigation between them.

4 This Consent Decree includes a joint statement of the purposes of the Decree, a 5 description of the history of the litigation, and various substantive provisions agreed upon by the 6 parties. As a result of negotiations supervised by a mediator, the parties have reached a voluntary 7 agreement that is contained in this Decree.

8 II. PURPOSES OF THE CONSENT DECREE

9 The parties have entered into this Consent Decree for the following purposes:

10 A. To resolve all disputes covered by this Consent Decree in such a way as to avoid 11 further expensive and protracted litigation.

12 B. To ensure equal employment opportunity for African Americans, Asian 13 Americans, Latinos, and women applying to, and working within, stores operated by defendants.

14 C. To ensure equal employment opportunity for African American women, Latino 15 women and Asian American women applying to, and working within, stores operated by 16 defendants.

17 D. To provide for the implementation of recruitment, selection and personnel systems
18 that will ensure that African Americans, Asian Americans, Latinos and women are considered for 19 recruitment, hire, job assignment and managerial promotion for which they are interested and 20 qualified on a non-discriminatory basis.

21 E. To provide for implementation of recruitment, selection and personnel systems 22 that will ensure that African American women, Latino women, and Asian American women are 23 considered for recruitment, hire, job assignment and managerial promotion for which they are 24 interested and qualified on a non-discriminatory basis.

25 F. To create an expedited and efficient procedure for implementing equitable relief 26 pursuant to the terms of this Decree; and 27 G. To provide finality to the resolution of all claims and defenses asserted in these 28 civil actions.

1 III. DEFINITIONS

2 A. "Abercrombie" or the "Company" means Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc.; A&F
3 California, LLC; A&F Ohio, Inc.; and Abercrombie & Fitch Management Co., as well as each of 4 their parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, agents, management, successors and 5 assigns and those in active concert or participation with them, or any of them. The terms of this 6 Decree cover all stores operated by Abercrombie whether under the name Abercrombie & Fitch, 7 Hollister, abercrombie, or any other concept operated by Abercrombie.

8 B. "Adverse impact" shall be defined in a manner consistent with Title VII law.

9 C. "African American" means all persons having origins in any of the black racial 10 groups of Africa.

11 D. "Approval Date" means the date upon which the Court signs this Decree, having 12 determined that it is fair, adequate and reasonable after: (i) notice to the Settlement Class; (ii)
13 opportunity to opt out of the Settlement Class with respect to monetary relief; (iii) opportunity to 14 submit timely objection to the Decree; (iv) appropriate discovery of the specifics of any such 15 timely objections; and (v) a hearing on the fairness of the settlement.

16 E. "Asian American" means all persons having origins in any of the original peoples
17 of the Far East, Southeast Asia, the Indian Subcontinent, or the Pacific Islands. This area
18 includes, but is not limited to, China, India, Japan, Korea, the Philippine Islands, and Samoa.

19 F. "Associates" means all in-store hourly or managerial employees.

20 G. "Benchmark Positions" means Brand Representative and Manager-in-Training 21 positions.

22 H. "Best Efforts" means implementing and adequately funding a plan reasonably 23 designed to comply with all the specific objectives to which the best efforts are directed.

24 I. "Charging Party" means Lekisha Bondurant, Torrey Dickson, Stanley Elmore, 25 Timothy Greer, Eric Jason and Jason Noel.

26 J. "Class Counsel" means all counsel of record for the Class Representatives in the 27 Private Civil Actions.
28

1 K. "Class Representatives" or "Plaintiffs" means Eduardo Gonzalez, Anthony
2 Ocampo, Encarnacion Gutierrez, Brandy Hawk, Johan Montoya, Juancarlos Gómez-Montejano,
3 Jennifer Lu, Austin Chu, Ivy Nguyen, Angeline Wu, Eric Fight, Carla Grubb, David Culpepper, 4 Patrice Douglass, Robair Sherrod, Andre Steele, and Elizabeth West.

5 L. "Consolidated Litigation" means the Private Civil Actions and the EEOC Civil 6 Action that the parties stipulate they will move, or have already moved, to consolidate before
7 Judge Susan Illston for purposes of approval and oversight of this settlement.

8 M. "Court" means the United States District Court for the Northern District of 9 California.

10 N. "EEOC Civil Action" means EEOC v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., N.D. Cal.
11 Case No. 04-4731.

12 O. "Final Approval" means the entry of this Decree on the Approval Date by the 13 United States District Court for the Northern District of California, and either: (1) the expiration 14 of the time for filing of a direct appeal from the Court's approval of the Decree without the filing
15 of a notice of appeal, or (2) if a timely direct appeal is filed, the final resolution of the appeal
16 (including any requests for rehearing and/or petitions for a writ of certiorari), resulting in final 17 judicial approval of the Consent Decree.

18 P. "Good Faith Offer" means an offer of employment -- under the same terms and 19 conditions of employment (e.g., hours, shifts or locations offered) offered to similarly situated 20 individuals who receive employment offers -- that is made to an individual who has submitted a 21 written or electronic application for a job.

22 Q. "Latino" means all persons of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central American, 23 South American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.

24 R. "Lead Counsel" means Lieff, Cabraser, Heimann & Bernstein, LLP; the Mexican 25 American Legal Defense and Educational Fund (MALDEF); and Kohn, Swift & Graf 26 representing the Gonzalez Minority class; and Minami, Lew & Tamaki representing the West 27 gender class.
28

1 S. "Minority" means all African Americans, Asian Americans, and Latinos.

2 "Minority Group" means each of these three groups.

3 T. "Minority Women" means African American females, Latina females, and Asian 4 American females.

5 U. "Preliminary Approval Date" means the date upon which the Court enters an 6 Order preliminarily approving this Decree, pending notice (an opportunity to opt out of the 7 notice), an opportunity to opt out of the Settlement Class or submit objections to the Decree, and 8 a fairness hearing thereon.

9 V. "Private Civil Actions" means Gonzalez v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., N.D.
10 Cal. Case No. 03-2817-SI and West v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., N.D. Cal. Case No. 04-11 4730.

12 W. "Release" means the Release of Claims set forth in Section VIII of the Decree.

13 X. "Settlement Class" means those persons described in Section VII of the Decree.
14 "Settlement Class Members" means each and every person described in Section VII of the 15 Decree.

16 Y. "Term of the Decree," "Period of the Decree" or "Duration of the Decree" is the 17 period from the Approval Date until the expiration of the Decree under Section VI.

18 IV. LITIGATION BACKGROUND

19 A. The Gonzalez Litigation

20 On June 16, 2003, Plaintiffs filed the Gonzalez case in the Northern District of California, 21 alleging violations of 42 U.S.C. § 1981 and the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, 22 and providing notice of Plaintiffs' intent to bring claims under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 23 1964. The Complaint was brought on behalf of a putative class of minority individuals who 24 alleged that Defendants discriminate against minorities on the basis of race, color, and/or national 25 origin, with respect to hiring, firing, job assignment, compensation and other terms and 26 conditions of employment, by enforcing a nationwide corporate policy of preferring white 27 employees for sales positions, desirable job assignments, and favorable work schedules in its 28 stores throughout the United States.

1 Plaintiffs filed the First Amended Complaint on August 18, 2003, which alleged 2 substantially the same facts and legal claims. This complaint added three named plaintiffs and 3 three defendants, Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., A&F California, LLC, and A&F Ohio, Inc.
4 On September 11, 2003, Defendants answered the First Amended Complaint, denying Plaintiffs'
5 allegations.

6 On January 9, 2004, Plaintiffs filed the Second Amended Complaint, which again alleged 7 substantially the same facts and legal claims, this time converting the notice of intent to file Title
8 VII claims into actual Title VII claims. This complaint added two named plaintiffs and removed 9 one defendant, Abercrombie & Fitch Co. This complaint also included as exhibits Right-to-Sue
10 letters from the EEOC issued to 13 of the 14 named plaintiffs who brought Title VII and FEHA
11 claims. Defendants answered the Second Amended Complaint, denying Plaintiffs' allegations, on 12 January 26, 2004.

13 Plaintiffs filed the Third Amended Complaint on June 10, 2004, which again alleged 14 substantially the same facts and legal claims. This complaint added individual causes of action
15 for gender discrimination, brought only on behalf of named plaintiffs Ivy Nguyen and Angeline
16 Wu. On June 21, 2004, Defendants answered the Third Amended Complaint, denying Plaintiffs'
17 allegations.

18 On November 8, 2004, Plaintiffs filed the Fourth Amended Complaint naming two 19 additional Plaintiffs and an additional defendant, Abercrombie & Fitch Management Co., as well 20 as adding claims of discrimination in hiring of Managers-in-Training positions and promotion to 21 in-store managerial positions.

22 On October 10, 2003, Plaintiffs served their first set of requests for discovery. On 23 February 19, 2004, Plaintiffs served their second set of requests for discovery. Defendants
24 responded by producing roughly 17,000 pages of documents, as well as files from Abercrombie's 25 computerized personnel databases.

26 Defendants served their first set of requests for discovery in November 2003 and took the 27 depositions of seven class representatives in February 2004. Plaintiffs took six days of 28 depositions of Abercrombie officials and managers under Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) in March 2004.

1 Plaintiffs and Defendants have obtained numerous declarations from putative class members and 2 witnesses, including managers, concerning alleged discrimination, or lack of discrimination, that 3 they would testify to if called.

4 On April 13, 2004, and on several dates subsequently, the parties conducted mediation
5 discussions in an attempt to resolve the Consolidated Litigation. These discussions have 6 culminated in this settlement agreement.

7 B. The EEOC Litigation

8 Between December 21, 1999 and January 29, 2004, the EEOC received charges of 9 discrimination alleging discrimination in hiring, assignment, layoff, constructive discharge,
10 discharge, terms and conditions of employment, and failure to promote into manager positions 11 due to race, national origin, and/or gender.

12 Specifically, on or about December 21, 1999, a charging party filed an individual charge
13 alleging national origin discrimination and wrongful termination. The charge was later amended 14 on or about March 21, 2001 alleging that the charging party was not hired into a sales position or 15 a Brand Representative position due to his national origin. Class allegations were included, 16 alleging that Abercrombie failed to recruit, hire, and assign Latinos into Brand Representative
17 positions and that Latinos were terminated due to their national origin.

18 On or about September 13, 2001, the EEOC issued a Letter of Determination finding 19 probable cause that the charging party was denied a permanent sales or Brand Representative
20 position, denied assignments, and terminated due to his national origin. The EEOC also found 21 probable cause that Latinos and African Americans as a class were not recruited, hired, or 22 assigned permanent positions or given assignments due to their race and national origin. The 23 Commission further found probable cause that Abercrombie failed to maintain records as required 24 by federal law.

25 EEOC received additional charges against Abercrombie nationwide and issued additional 26 Letters of Determination on or about September 30, 2004 and November 1, 2004 finding probable 27 cause that Abercrombie violated Title VII by discriminating against minority individuals on the 28 basis of national origin, color, race, and/or gender (female including minority women) in hiring,

1 staffing, constructive discharge, failing to promote into manager positions, steering, and
2 discharge, on an individual basis and also on a nationwide class basis. The EEOC also found
3 probable cause that Abercrombie violated Title VII by discriminating against a class of 4 individuals nationwide by deterring minority applicants from applying for sales, stock, overnight,
5 manager-in-training, and manager positions because of their race, color, and/or national origin;
6 failing or refusing to recruit minority and female applicants for sales, stock, overnight, manager-
7 in-training, and manager positions because of their race, color, and/or national origin; failing and 8 refusing to hire and to assign minorities and females into sales, stock, overnight, manager-in 9 training, and manager positions because of their race, color, national origin and/or gender; failing
10 and refusing to promote minorities and females into manager-in-training and manager positions
11 because of their race, color, national origin, and/or gender; terminating minority and female 12 employees because of their race, color, national origin, and/or sex; and segregating its workforce
13 on the basis of race, color, national origin, and/or gender. The EEOC again found probable cause 14 that Abercrombie failed to maintain records as required by federal law.

15 After meeting all the conditions precedent, the EEOC filed a federal lawsuit in the matter
16 of EEOC v. Abercrombie and Fitch Stores, Inc., N.D. Cal., Case No. 04-4731, on November 8, 17 2004 ("EEOC Litigation") encompassing all the claims set forth in the Letters of Determination
18 as described above. The EEOC's pre-filing investigation involved analysis of hard copy 19 documents, statistical compilations and computer-readable files, and investigative interviews of 20 employees and company officials.

21 C. The West Litigation

22 Counsel for the gender class became involved in this case in February 2004 after being 23 contacted by one of the named plaintiffs in Gonzalez v. Abercrombie & Fitch. This named 24 plaintiff sought separate counsel to file a gender class action against Abercrombie.

25 Putative counsel for the gender class thereafter conducted an independent, on-going 26 investigation to determine the merits of a possible class gender discrimination claim against 27 Abercrombie. Counsel for the gender class contacted scores of class members and witnesses, 28 collected declarations from many class members regarding their experiences at Abercrombie,

1 reviewed statistical reports produced in the course of the Gonzalez litigation and conducted a
2 separate analysis of the workforce by gender.

3 After informing defendant of its intent to file a gender complaint, counsel for the gender
4 class was invited to participate in the initial April 2004 mediation sessions with the Gonzales
5 parties and EEOC in an effort to resolve this case without further litigation.

6 During the mediation, which lasted over fifteen days over the course of eight months, all
7 parties engaged in extensive discussions regarding the merits of the race and gender claims, relief
8 for class members, and procedures to be put into place to ensure equal employment opportunity 9 for minorities and women in the future.

10 The gender class action, West v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., N.D. Cal., Case No.
11 04-4730 was filed on November 8, 2004.

12 V. JURISDICTION

13 The Court has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter of the Private Civil Actions
14 and EEOC Civil Action. The parties agree that they will seek, or have already sought
15 consolidation of the Private Civil Actions and the EEOC Civil Action before Judge Susan Illston
16 for purposes of approval of this settlement. If the claims asserted in the complaints filed in these 17 civil actions were proven, the Court would have the authority to grant the equitable and monetary 18 relief set forth in this Consent Decree. Venue is proper in this District. This Court shall retain 19 jurisdiction of these civil actions during the duration of the Decree solely for the purposes of 20 entering all orders, authorized hereunder, that may be necessary to implement the relief provided.

21 VI. EFFECTIVE DATES AND DURATION OF THE DECREE

22 A. Unless provided otherwise, the equitable provisions in this Decree are effective 23 immediately upon the Approval Date.

24 B. The provisions of this Decree shall remain in effect for a period of six years (72 25 months). Abercrombie may file a motion to be relieved of the provisions of the decree at any 26 point following the expiration of 54 months from the effective date of the decree. The parties 27 may stipulate that Abercrombie should be relieved of the provisions of the Decree. Absent such 28 agreement, in order to be relieved of the provisions of the Decree before the full period of 72

1 months, Abercrombie must demonstrate that: 1) it has satisfied its duty to use Best Efforts with 2 respect to its obligations under the Decree; 2) it has implemented and maintained all programs
3 mandated by the Decree; 3) it has satisfied, without use of standard deviations, each of the 4 benchmarks established by the Decree during the preceding 24 months; and 4) it has satisfied all
5 monetary provisions of the Decree. Abercrombie bears the burden of demonstrating its 6 satisfaction of these conditions to the Court. Lead Counsel and EEOC may oppose any motion to 7 be relieved on grounds that any of these conditions have not been met and on the grounds set
8 forth in Section X.C.1.b. Unless and until the court issues an order granting the motion to be 9 relieved, all provisions of the Decree shall remain in full force and effect.

10 C. Abercrombie shall provide 30 days notice to the Special Master, Lead Counsel,
11 and EEOC of any motion to be relieved of the provisions of the decree before the full period of 72
12 months. Abercrombie shall then provide its briefing and other support for its motion to the 13 Special Master, Lead Counsel, and EEOC. Lead Counsel and the EEOC shall have 30 days to 14 provide any opposition to the motion to the Special Master and Abercrombie. Abercrombie shall 15 have 15 days to provide any reply materials to the Special Master, Lead Counsel, and EEOC.
16 The Special Master shall then have 30 days to prepare a written recommendation to the court as to 17 the resolution of the motion to be relieved. The parties shall then jointly file with the court all of 18 the briefing and the Special Master's recommendation, and set a hearing for 28 days from the 19 filing. Each party may file and serve a response to the Special Master's recommendation, not to 20 exceed ten pages, not later than 14 days before the scheduled hearing.

21 VII. SETTLEMENT CLASS

22 A. For purposes of the monetary relief provided in this Decree, the Settlement Class 23 is certified under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(b)(3) and consists of:

24 1. All Minority and/or female applicants who applied for employment as 25 Associates in Abercrombie stores, or attempted to apply and were discouraged from applying for 26 employment, between February 24, 1999 and the Preliminary Approval Date and who were not 27 hired, except those who file a timely request to opt out of the monetary relief provisions.
28

1           2. All Minority and/or female Associates of Abercrombie who are or were
2 employed in an Abercrombie store, for any length of time, between February 24, 1999, and the 3 Preliminary Approval Date, except those who file a timely request to opt out of the monetary 4 relief provisions.

5           B. For purposes of the equitable and declaratory relief provided in this Decree, the 6 Settlement Class is certified under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(b)(2) and consists of:

7           1. All Minority and/or female applicants who applied for employment as 8 Associates in Abercrombie stores, or attempted to apply and were discouraged from applying for 9 employment, between February 24, 1999 and the Preliminary Approval Date and who were not 10 hired.

11           2. All Minority and/or female Associates of Abercrombie who are or were 12 employed in an Abercrombie store, for any length of time, between February 24, 1999, and the 13 Preliminary Approval Date.

14           C. Settlement Class Members who have filed a timely request to opt out of the 15 monetary relief provisions shall not be held to release any claims for individual relief.

16           D. In the event that Final Approval is not obtained, nothing in this Decree shall be 17 deemed to waive Abercrombie's objections and defenses to class certification, liability, or 18 entitlement to monetary or equitable relief, or any other issue in the Consolidated Litigation, the 19 Private Civil Actions, or the EEOC Civil Action, and this Decree shall then be deemed null and 20 void and not admissible in any court regarding the propriety of class certification, liability, or
22 Private Civil Actions, or the EEOC Civil Action.

23 VIII. RELEASE OF CLAIMS IN PRIVATE ACTIONS AND EEOC ACTION

24 A. Release of Claims by Settlement Class.

25           Upon Final Approval of the Decree, Abercrombie and its employees, managers, insurers 26 and attorneys shall be fully released and forever discharged from any and all individual and/or 27 class-wide claims, demands, charges, complaints, rights and causes of action of any kind, known
28 or unknown, by the Class Representatives, Plaintiffs, Charging Parties, the Settlement Class, each

1 member of the Settlement Class (hereafter “Releasers”), and by the Releasers’ estates, whether 2 seeking monetary and/or equitable relief of any sort, which arise out of conduct within the 3 liability period of February 24, 1999 through the Preliminary Approval Date constituting alleged 4 race, color, national origin or gender discrimination in recruitment, the application process
5 (including claims of individuals who attempted to apply for and were discouraged from applying
6 for employment), hiring, job channeling or assignment, termination of employment, any terms
7 and conditions of employment that were or could have been raised in the Consolidated Litigation
8 and/or managerial promotion under Title VII, 42 U.S.C. Section 1981, the California FEHA or 9 any other federal, state, or local law prohibiting race, color, national origin or gender 10 discrimination, whether statutory, regulatory, pursuant to local ordinance, or at common law, 11 excepting solely claims of Class members other than Plaintiffs and Charging Parties for alleged 12 harassment (including constructive discharge allegedly caused by such harassment). This Release
13 is final and shall survive expiration of the Decree’s terms.

14 B. Release of Claims by Plaintiffs.

15 Upon Final Approval of the Decree, for and in consideration of the mutual promises,
16 terms and conditions by and between Plaintiffs and Charging Parties, and Defendants set forth
17 herein, the sufficiency of which consideration is expressly acknowledged, the Plaintiffs and 18 Charging Parties do hereby fully, finally and forever release and discharge Abercrombie and its 19 employees, managers, insurers and attorneys from any and all past and/or present claims, 20 demands, actions, causes of action, suits, damages, liabilities, assessments, judgments, costs, 21 losses, debts, obligations and expenses, of any and every nature whatsoever, whether or not 22 known, that they have had, now have, or may have from the beginning of time to the Preliminary 23 Approval Date, including without limitation those arising in any way out of the alleged facts,
24 circumstances and occurrences underlying those allegations of violations of Title VII, Section
25 1981 and the California FEHA that were asserted or that might have been asserted by or on behalf
26 of the Plaintiffs against Defendants either in Plaintiffs’ complaints in the Gonzalez and West
27 actions, or in any and all charges of discrimination filed against Abercrombie by some or all of 28 the Plaintiffs and Charging Parties with the EEOC and/or DFEH. This Release does not include

1 workers' compensation claims, if any, of the Plaintiffs or Charging Parties. This Release is final
2 and shall survive the expiration of the Term of the Decree. Prior to receiving any monetary relief
3 under this Decree, including any enhanced or service payment, each Plaintiff and Charging Party
4 will be required to execute a full and final general release of all claims against Abercrombie,
5 whether or not asserted in the Consolidated Litigation, in the form attached as Exhibit A.

6 C. Unknown Claims.

7 Plaintiffs and Charging Parties acknowledge that they may not now know fully the 8 number or magnitude of the claims they may have, and that they may suffer some further loss or 9 damage in some way connected with the subject matter of the Consolidated Litigation, but which 10 is unknown or unanticipated at this time. Plaintiffs and Charging Parties have taken these risks
11 and possibilities into account and accept that, nevertheless, this Consent Decree covers all claims 12 arising out of or related to the subject matter of the Consolidated Litigation, which, although 13 unknown at the time of the execution of this Consent Decree, may be discovered later. Plaintiffs 14 and Charging Parties understand and assume these risks and expressly waive the provisions of 15 California Civil Code § 1542, or any comparable federal or other state statute, which states:

16 A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS
17 WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO 18 EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE 19 RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

20 Plaintiffs and Charging Parties expressly waive any right to assert hereafter that any claim was 21 excluded from this Consent Decree through ignorance, oversight, or error. It is expressly 22 understood and agreed that this waiver of Civil Code § 1542 and the release and waiver set forth
23 in this Consent Decree are material terms of the agreement and were separately negotiated
24 between the parties. This Section VIII.D does not waive any rights of Settlement Class members 25 other than Plaintiffs and Charging Parties.

26 D. EEOC Release.

27 Upon Final Approval, this Decree shall fully and finally resolve any and all claims, 28 demands, charges, complaints, rights and causes of action of any kind, known or unknown,

1 asserted by EEOC in its Complaint arising from incidents occurring prior to the Preliminary
2 Approval Date. It is the intention of Abercrombie and the EEOC that this release terminates all
3 investigations relating to claims of Settlement Class Members which were asserted by EEOC in 4 its Complaint. This Release shall survive the termination of this Decree.

5 E. No Tolling of Harassment Claims.

6 Any claims of Settlement Class Members (other than the Plaintiffs) for alleged harassment 7 based upon race, color, national origin or gender (including constructive discharge allegedly 8 caused by such harassment), or for the alleged retaliation for opposing or complaining about such 9 purported harassment, are not released hereunder because such claims are not and have never 10 been asserted on a class-wide basis as a part of the Private Civil Actions or the EEOC Civil 11 Action. Hence, there also has been no tolling of the statute of limitations for asserting any such 12 claims against Abercrombie and its employees, managers, insurers and attorneys by operation of 13 these civil actions or any of the Plaintiffs' individual EEOC or DFEH charges.

14 F. No Bar to Future Claims.

15 Nothing in the Decree shall be construed to bar any claims of members of the Settlement

17 IX. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

18 A. No Admission of Liability.

19 This Consent Decree does not constitute and shall not be deemed to be a finding or 20 determination by the Court, nor an admission by any party, regarding the merits, validity or 21 accuracy of any of the allegations, claims or defenses. This Decree represents the compromise of 22 disputed claims that the parties recognize would require protracted and costly litigation to 23 determine. Abercrombie denies that it has engaged in any policy or pattern or practice of 24 unlawful discrimination, or that it has engaged in any other unlawful conduct as alleged in the 25 Consolidated Litigation, and Abercrombie's entry into this Decree is not and may not be used by 26 any person in any proceeding as an admission or evidence that Abercrombie and/or its employees, 27 managers, and/or attorneys have on any occasion engaged in discriminatory employment 28 practices or any other unlawful conduct, such being expressly denied. Abercrombie has

1 voluntarily entered into this Decree because it believes the actions it has agreed to undertake
2 demonstrate its strong commitment to diversity and equal employment opportunity. Neither the 3 Decree nor any compliance reports, filings, data, or other compliance information arising out of 4 or related to the Decree shall be discoverable, admissible or used as evidence of liability or non-
5 liability for unlawful discrimination in any proceeding other than one relating to the enforcement
6 of this Decree.

7 B. Modification and Severability of the Consent Decree.

8 1. Whenever possible, each provision and term of this Decree shall be 9 interpreted in such a manner as to be valid and enforceable; provided, however, that in the event
10 that after Final Approval hereof any provision or term of this Decree should be determined to be 11 or rendered unenforceable on collateral review, all other provisions and terms of this Decree and 12 the application thereof to all persons and circumstances subject thereto shall remain unaffected to 13 the extent permitted by law. If any application of any provisions or term of this Decree to any 14 specific person or circumstance should be determined to be invalid or unenforceable, the 15 application of such provision or term to other persons or circumstances shall remain unaffected to 16 the extent permitted by law.

17 2. Lead Counsel, Abercrombie and the EEOC may jointly agree in writing to 18 modify the Decree. In the event that changed or other circumstances make a modification of the 19 Decree necessary to ensure its purposes are fully effectuated, but good faith negotiations seeking 20 such modifications are unsuccessful, any party to the Decree shall have the right to move the 21 Court to modify this Decree. Such motion shall be granted only upon the movant proving to the 22 Court by clear and convincing evidence that changed or other circumstances make such 23 modification necessary. In determining the specific modification to order, the Court shall 24 consider whether there is an equally effective modification that would not materially increase the 25 burden of compliance and/or cost to Abercrombie of compliance (out-of-pocket or otherwise).
26 Any such modification to this Decree by the Court shall be ordered in such a fashion as will limit
27 the burden of compliance and/or the cost to Abercrombie (out-of-pocket or otherwise) to the 28 extent possible consistent with effectuating the purposes of this Decree. The procedures for

1 negotiations to modify this Decree (and, if necessary, for resolution of disputes) shall be the same
2 as those set forth in Section X.B, regarding Decree enforcement.

3 C. Duty to Support and Defend the Decree.

4 Class Representatives, Class Counsel, EEOC and Abercrombie each agree to abide by all
5 of the terms of this Decree in good faith and to support it fully, and shall use Best Efforts to 6 defend this Decree from any legal challenge, whether by appeal or collateral attack.

7 D. Execution In Counterparts

8 The parties agree that the Decree may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be 9 deemed to be an original and all of which together shall be deemed to be part of the same Decree.

10 X. GENERAL EQUITABLE PROVISIONS

11 A. General Injunctive Provisions.

12 1. Abercrombie is hereby enjoined from enacting, maintaining or 13 implementing any policy or engaging in any practice or procedure that discriminates against 14 African Americans, Asian Americans, or Latinos on the basis of race, color and/or national 15 origin.

16 2. Abercrombie is hereby enjoined from enacting, maintaining or 17 implementing any policy or engaging in any practice or procedure that discriminates against 18 women on the basis of gender.

19 3. Abercrombie is hereby enjoined from enacting, maintaining or 20 implementing any policy or engaging in any practice, conduct or procedure that retaliates or has 21 the purpose of retaliating against any future, current or former employee or applicant of 22 Abercrombie because he or she opposed discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin
23 or gender; filed a charge of discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin or gender;
24 testified, furnished information or participated in any manner in any investigation, proceeding, or 25 hearing in connection with any charge or complaint of discrimination on the basis of race, color, 26 national origin or gender; testified, furnished information or participated in any manner in 27 connection with the monitoring or implementation of this Decree; or sought and/or received any 28 monetary and/or non-monetary relief pursuant to this Consent Decree.

1           4.       Abercrombie will implement or maintain non-discrimination and non-
2 harassment policies and an internal complaint procedure designed to assure equal employment 3 opportunity.

4           5.       Abercrombie will make available to Minority and female associates and 5 applicants the same employment opportunities and terms and conditions of employment, 6 including but not limited to recruitment, hiring, job assignments, and managerial promotions, as 7 Abercrombie affords similarly-situated white male employees.

8           B. Dispute Resolution and Enforcement Procedures.

9           1.       The parties agree to the appointment of Hunter Hughes as Special Master.
10 The Special Master may be removed at the joint written request of Lead Counsel, EEOC, and 11 Abercrombie, or by order of the Court upon motion of any party and a showing of good cause that 12 Mr. Hughes should no longer serve as Special Master. In the event that Mr. Hughes becomes 13 unavailable to serve as Special Master for any reason, Lead Counsel, EEOC and Abercrombie
14 will make a good faith effort to select on a joint basis a new Special Master. If Lead Counsel, 15 EEOC and Abercrombie are unable to reach agreement as to a successor Special Master within 16 forty-five (45) days following the date Mr. Hughes becomes unavailable to serve as Special
17 Master, the Court shall appoint a successor Special Master upon motion of Lead Counsel, EEOC
18 or Abercrombie. Lead Counsel, EEOC or Abercrombie may nominate to the Court persons for 19 consideration as a successor Special Master. Lead Counsel, EEOC and Abercrombie shall each 20 have the right to interview any nominated person, and to present argument and evidence to the 21 Court regarding the selection of the successor Special Master.

22           2.       The Special Master shall have authority to resolve all disputes arising 23 under the Decree, subject to limitations and standards set forth in the Decree.

24           3.       At the request of Lead Counsel, EEOC or Abercrombie, the parties shall 25 use Best Efforts to resolve promptly any differences or any disputes regarding the interpretation
26 or implementation of the Consent Decree.

28

1           4.       Lead Counsel, EEOC or Abercrombie shall have the right to initiate steps
2 to resolve any dispute or issue of compliance regarding any provision of the Decree subject to 3 limitations and standards set forth in the Decree.

4           a.       If Lead Counsel, EEOC or Abercrombie has good reason to believe 5 that a legitimate dispute exists, the initiating party shall first promptly give written notice to the 6 other parties, including: (a) a reference to all specific provisions of the Decree that are involved;
7 (b) a statement of the issue; (c) a statement of the remedial action sought by the initiating party;
8 and (d) a brief statement of the specific facts, circumstances and any other arguments supporting 9 the position of the initiating party;

10           b.       Within thirty (30) days after receiving such notice, the non-11 initiating party shall respond in writing to the statement of facts and arguments set forth in the 12 notice and shall provide its written position, including the facts and arguments upon which it 13 relies in support of its position;

14           c.       Lead Counsel, EEOC and Abercrombie shall undertake good-faith
15 negotiations, including meeting or conferring by telephone or in person and exchanging relevant 16 documents and/or other information, to attempt to resolve the issues in dispute or alleged 17 noncompliance;

18           d.       The Special Master, upon motion, may permit Lead Counsel, 19 EEOC or Abercrombie to take post-settlement discovery as provided by the Federal Rules of 20 Civil Procedure, but only as to matters relevant to the underlying claim of breach, if the Special 21 Master determines that the informal exchange of documents or information has not been 22 sufficient to allow Lead Counsel, EEOC or Abercrombie to present the dispute upon a factual 23 record adequate for a fair determination of the issue;

24           e.       If the parties' good-faith efforts to resolve the matter have failed,
25 and after written notice of an impasse by the moving party to the non-initiating party or parties,
26 Lead Counsel, EEOC or Abercrombie may file a motion with the Special Master, with a 27 supporting brief, requesting resolution of the dispute or the issues of non-compliance, provided, 28

1 however, that such motion shall be limited to the dispute(s) and/or issue(s) as to which the parties
2 have met and conferred as described in this Section X.B.4.;

3 f. The non-moving parties will have fifteen (15) days to respond to 4 any such motion;

5 g. The Special Master shall attempt within fifteen (15) days after 6 filing of the final brief to resolve the dispute and may schedule a hearing or other proceeding, 7 including an evidentiary hearing, to resolve the matter; and

8 h. Within thirty (30) days of any hearing, the Special Master shall 9 issue a written determination, including findings of fact if requested by any party.

10 5. The provisions of this Section do not prevent Lead Counsel, EEOC or 11 Abercrombie from promptly bringing an issue directly before the Court when exigent facts or 12 circumstances require immediate Court action to prevent a serious violation of the terms of this 13 Decree, which otherwise would be without meaningful remedy. The moving papers shall explain
14 the facts and circumstances that allegedly necessitate immediate action by the Court. Absent a 15 showing of exigent facts or circumstances, the Court shall refer the matter to the Special Master 16 to resolve in accordance with procedures set forth above. If any such matter is brought before the 17 Court requesting immediate action, the other parties shall be provided with appropriate actual 18 notice, and an opportunity to be heard on the motion, under the Local Rules of the Court and the 19 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The Court in its discretion may set such procedures for 20 emergency consideration as are appropriate to the particular facts or circumstances, but no such 21 matter may be heard or considered on an ex parte basis.

22 6. All fees and expenses of the Special Master shall be paid by Abercrombie.

23 7. Lead Counsel, EEOC or Abercrombie may appeal a decision of the Special 24 Master to the Court provided that such an appeal is made within fourteen (14) days of receipt of 25 notice of the decision by the Special Master. Any such appeal shall be brought by motion under 26 the Local Rules of the Court and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The decision rendered by the 27 Special Master shall be affirmed unless the Court determines that the Special Master made clearly 28 erroneous findings of fact or wrongly interpreted or applied the Consent Decree. A party may 1 seek on appeal any remedy provided by law, provided that such remedy is consistent with the 2 provisions of this Decree.

3 8. Only Lead Counsel, EEOC or Abercrombie shall have standing to move
4 the Court to enforce, apply, or modify this Decree. Any individual concerned about 5 Abercrombie's compliance with this Decree may so notify Lead Counsel and/or the EEOC and 6 request that they examine Abercrombie's compliance and seek such relief, if any, as may be 7 appropriate.

8 9. In the event that any party seeks to utilize the dispute resolution procedure
9 set forth in Section X.B, then each party shall bear its own attorneys' fees, costs and expenses for 10 all work performed through resolution by the Special Master. In the event that any party seeks to 11 appeal any decision of the Special Master, then the prevailing party in such matter shall be 12 entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expenses incurred in such appeal from the 13 other party, consistent with applicable standards under Title VII. Whether and to what extent any 14 party is a prevailing party and awarded fees and expenses shall be determined in the sole and 15 absolute discretion of the Court. This provision shall not apply to the EEOC, as Abercrombie and 16 the EEOC mutually agree not to seek fees under this Section from each other.

17 C. Marketing.

18 1. Abercrombie believes that the artistic aspect of its marketing materials is a 19 critical factor driving the success of Abercrombie and its brand. As a company committed to 20 achieving diversity in its store associates, as reflected in the other terms of this Decree, 21 Abercrombie will reflect diversity, as reflected by the major racial/ethnic minority populations of 22 the United States, in its marketing materials (taken as a whole). Lead Counsel and/or the EEOC
23 may assert that Abercrombie has not met its commitment under this paragraph for the following 24 purposes only:

25 a. In the event that, at the end of the twenty-four (24) month period
26 following the Approval Date, the Applicant Rate for any Minority group is lower than such 27 group's interim Benchmark for the fourth six-month period, Lead Counsel and/or the EEOC may 28 assert that this was caused by a chilling of applicant flow caused in part by not meeting the

1 commitment in paragraph 1 of this Section. Any such assertion, and Abercrombie's response
2 thereto, may be considered by the Special Master. If the Special Master accepts the assertion of 3 Lead Counsel and/or the EEOC, then the sole remedy shall be that the applicable interim
4 Benchmark shall remain in effect unless and until the applicable Applicant Rate exceeds the 5 applicable interim Benchmark.

6 b. In the event that Abercrombie seeks to obtain early termination of 7 this Decree, under Section VI.B. hereof, and in the event that Lead Counsel and/or the EEOC
8 seeks to challenge such early termination, Lead Counsel and/or the EEOC may assert that 9 Abercrombie has not met its commitment in paragraph 1 of this Section. Any such assertion, and 10 Abercrombie's response thereto, may be considered by the Special Master and/or the Court, along 11 with Abercrombie's meeting or failing to meet other provisions of the Decree, in deciding 12 whether to grant Abercrombie's request for early termination of the Decree.

13 2. Nothing in this Section shall limit the scope of the Monitor's discretion 14 under Section XVI.A.2. of this Decree in evaluating compliance (including barriers to 15 compliance) with any of the objectives of the Decree. However, nothing in this Section or 16 otherwise in this Decree shall be deemed to provide Lead Counsel, the EEOC, the Monitor, the 17 Special Master, or the Court with the authority or ability to contest, challenge, alter, or seek to 18 alter Abercrombie's marketing materials or the selection of photographs or models therefor.

19 3. Marketing materials include specifically, but not exclusively: quarterly 20 magazines and similar materials, shopping bags, store posters and video, website, A&F TV, and 21 purchased advertising.

22 XI. ABERCROMBIE'S INTERNAL PROCEDURES FOR IMPLEMENTING EQUAL
23 EMPLOYMENT AND DIVERSITY PRACTICES

24 A. Creation of Office of Diversity.

25 1. If Abercrombie has not already done so, then within thirty (30) days of the 26 Approval Date, Abercrombie shall create an Office of Diversity headed by a corporate executive 27 with the title of Vice President ("Diversity VP"). The Diversity VP shall report directly to the 28 Chief Executive Officer (CEO) or the Chief Operating Officer (COO) of Abercrombie.

1           2.       Abercrombie shall appoint a person to serve as Diversity VP no later than 2 sixty (60) days after the Approval Date. In the event that the position of Diversity VP becomes 3 vacant, Abercrombie shall appoint a successor as soon as practicable after the position becomes 4 vacant, and in any event, if the position remains vacant for sixty (60) days, Abercrombie will 5 retain a search firm to search for a successor, and will appoint an interim Diversity VP who will 6 be charged with temporarily performing the functions of the position. The following procedures
7 shall apply in selecting the Diversity VP:

8           a.       Abercrombie shall use Best Efforts to appoint an individual who 9 will be effective in carrying out the duties and responsibilities set forth in Section XI.A.3.

10           b.       Abercrombie will use a minority-owned search firm, or a minority
11 from a majority-owned search firm, to identify potential candidates for the Diversity VP position.
12 Abercrombie will identify the search firm or individual to Lead Counsel and the EEOC. Prior to 13 appointing an individual for the Diversity VP position, Abercrombie shall provide Lead Counsel
14 and EEOC with a resume of the individual whom Abercrombie intends to appoint to the position.
15 Within ten (10) days of receiving the resume, Lead Counsel and/or the EEOC may provide their 16 views to Abercrombie as to the individual's qualifications and suitability for the Diversity VP 17 position. The decision as to which individual to select for the position shall be solely 18 Abercrombie's and is not subject to further review under Section X.

19           3.       The Diversity VP shall use Best Efforts to ensure Abercrombie's
20 implementation and compliance with the provisions of this Decree, including the following:

21           a.       Monitoring and implementation of any required changes to human 22 resources systems;

23           b.       Monitoring and implementation of the Benchmarks provided for 24 under the Decree;

25           c.       Overseeing the development and implementation of all training and 26 education programs to be provided under the Decree;

27           d.       Submitting progress reports and other monitoring and reporting
28 material provided for in the Decree;

1 e. Overseeing the investigation, collection, tracking, and appropriate
2 resolution of complaints of unlawful discrimination submitted under Abercrombie's Internal 3 Complaint Procedure (described herein, in Section XI.D.); and

4 f. Overseeing the development of all recruiting programs to be 5 provided under this Decree and monitoring the implementation of such programs.

6 4. Abercrombie will use Best Efforts to provide such staff, funds, and other 7 resources to the Diversity VP as are necessary to discharge Abercrombie's obligations under the 8 Decree.

9 5. Upon completion of the Internal Complaint Procedure investigation, the 10 Diversity VP shall have the authority to recommend appropriate action to be taken and/or 11 monetary payment to be made to any individual who has submitted a complaint of unlawful 12 discrimination or of a violation of the Decree.

13 B. Notice and Posting.

14 1. Within ten (10) days of the Approval Date, Abercrombie shall post in 15 conspicuous places where employee notices are posted in each of its stores and corporate offices,
16 the Notice attached hereto as Exhibit B. The Notice shall remain posted in each such location
17 (and in any new stores or corporate offices) for the duration of this Consent Decree. In addition,
18 the Notice shall be published every four (4) months with the HR 411 Bulletin for the duration of 19 this Consent Decree. In connection with each Semi-Annual Progress Report, Abercrombie shall 20 certify that the Notice has been posted and remained posted as required above during the 21 preceding six (6) month period.

22 2. Abercrombie shall also include within its Employee Handbook or 23 otherwise provide to each new employee, the following statement or its equivalent: "In 2004, 24 Abercrombie voluntarily entered into a Decree, agreeing to undertake actions that demonstrate its 25 strong commitment to diversity and equal employment opportunity. Each store has a posted 26 notice regarding this decree, and a summary and copy of the Consent Decree are available at 27 [domain name]."
28

1           C.    EEO and Diversity Training.

2           1.       During the Term of the Decree, Abercrombie shall provide training on 3 equal employment opportunity and compliance with the provisions of the Decree to Managers-In-
4 Training, Assistant Managers, Store Managers and General Managers, to include the following
5 topics: (1) compliance with the Decree; (2) equal employment opportunity; (3) federal, state and 6 Company prohibitions of unlawful discrimination and retaliation; (4) diversity issues; and 7 (5) other topics that will encourage equal employment in recruiting, hiring, assigning, promoting,
8 and retaining minorities and females. Such training may be delivered by computer program, live 9 “discussion” format, video format, written materials, or any combination of these or other formats 10 tailored to be effective in communicating the material, provided, however, that such training as 11 occurs within the first twelve months following the Approval Date shall not be provided to 12 participants solely through written materials. No less than two hours shall be devoted to training 13 on these topics for each participant within four months following (a) the Approval Date, or (b) the 14 date of the participant’s hiring as a Manager in Training, or promotion to an Assistant Manager, 15 Store Manager, or General Manager position, whichever occurs later. In addition, during the 16 Term of the Decree, Abercrombie shall provide (on a group or individual basis) at least two hours
17 of additional training described above to Assistant Managers, Store Managers, and General
18 Managers every twelve months after the Assistant Managers, Store Managers, and General
19 Managers last received such training (on a group or individual basis).

20           2.       During the Term of the Decree, Abercrombie shall provide training on 21 equal employment opportunity and compliance with the provisions of the Decree to all District
22 Managers, Regional Managers, and salaried exempt employees in the departments of Store
23 Administration, Store Communications, Security, Stores HR, Store Operations, and Store
24 Control, to include the following topics: (1) compliance with the Decree; (2) equal employment 25 opportunity; (3) federal, state, and Company prohibitions of unlawful discrimination and 26 retaliation; (4) diversity issues; and (5) other topics that will encourage equal employment
27 recruiting, hiring, training, promoting, and retaining minorities and females. Such training may 28 be delivered by computer program, live “discussion” format, video format, written materials, or

1 any combination of these or other formats tailored to be effective in communicating the material,
2 provided, however, that such training as occurs within the first twelve months following the 3 Approval Date shall not be provided to participants solely through written materials. No less than 4 two hours shall be devoted to the training on these topics for each participant within four months
5 following (a) the Approval Date, or (b) the date of the participant's promotion to District
6 Manager or Regional Manager position, whichever occurs later. In addition, during the Term of 7 the Decree, Abercrombie shall provide (on a group or individual basis) at least two hours of 8 additional training as described above to District Managers, Regional Managers, and salaried 9 exempt employees in the departments of Store Administration, Store Communications, Security,
10 Stores HR, Store Operations, and Store Control, every twelve months after the District Managers, 11 Regional Managers, and corporate employees last received such training. Provided further that if 12 Abercrombie holds a meeting of District and/or Regional Managers in order to conduct training, 13 then at least one hour of the training described above shall be done in live "discussion" format at 14 such meeting.

15           3.       Within thirty (30) days following the Approval Date, Abercrombie will 16 train its human resources associates who have substantive responsibilities related to compliance 17 with fair employment laws, and the practices and procedures established by this Decree. New 18 human resources associates shall receive such training within thirty (30) days of their date of 19 entry into such positions. Such training shall include, but not be limited to: (a) federal and state 20 equal employment opportunity laws, including but not limited to the general provisions of these 21 laws, the bases on which discrimination is prohibited under these laws, the identity, roles and 22 responsibilities of agencies established to enforce these laws, and the principles and objectives 23 underlying these laws; (b) the application of equal employment opportunity to typical 24 employment situations, including but not limited to recruiting, hiring, job assignment, managerial 25 promotion, and other career advancement opportunities, and general recruiting, hiring and 26 supervision without engaging in racial, ethnic or gender stereotyping; (c) the provisions and 27 requirements of the Decree; (d) the Internal Complaint Procedure; (e) the role and responsibility 28 of the human resources staff; and (f) following up EEO complaints and investigations (including,

1 but not limited to, addressing potential or alleged retaliation, working with the complainant, and
2 appropriate discipline and other remedial measures).

3 4. The training described in this section may be held in conjunction with other 4 Company business, at Abercrombie's discretion, and may be organized geographically in such 5 fashion as Abercrombie deems appropriate.

6 5. Abercrombie will provide Lead Counsel and the EEOC with the proposed 7 plan for training discussed in Sections XI.C. 2, 3 and 4 in order to provide an opportunity for 8 comment. Lead Counsel and the EEOC will provide comments, if any, within twenty-one (21)
9 days of receipt. Abercrombie shall respond to such comments within fifteen (15) days of receipt.
10 If the parties cannot agree on the proposed plan for training, any disputes will be submitted to the 11 Special Master for resolution. The proposed plan for training will be presumed to be acceptable
12 unless Lead Counsel and/or EEOC demonstrate that the proposed plan for training is improper.

13 D. Internal Complaint Procedure.

14 1. If Abercrombie has not already done so, then within thirty (30) days of the 15 Approval Date, Abercrombie shall develop an Internal Complaint Procedure to provide for the 16 filing, investigation and, if appropriate, remedying of complaints of discrimination or retaliation
17 by associates or applicants for employment on the basis of race, color, national origin or gender, 18 or where a violation of this Decree has occurred or is alleged. Abercrombie will implement the 19 Internal Complaint Procedure within sixty (60) days of the Approval Date. Abercrombie will 20 provide Lead Counsel and EEOC with the proposed Internal Complaint Procedure in order to 21 provide an opportunity for comment regarding the proposed procedure. Lead Counsel and the 22 EEOC will provide comments, if any, within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of the Internal 23 Complaint Procedure. Abercrombie shall respond to such comments within fifteen (15) days of 24 receipt. If the parties cannot agree on the Internal Complaint Procedure, any disputes will be 25 submitted to the Special Master for resolution. The Internal Complaint Procedure will be 26 presumed to be acceptable unless Lead Counsel and EEOC demonstrate that the proposed Internal 27 Complaint Procedure is improper. Any decision of the Special Master is final and not subject to 28 appeal.

- 1                   2.     The Diversity VP shall be responsible for oversight of:
- 2                   a.     publicizing the availability of this Internal Complaint Procedure;
- 3                   b.     tracking and collecting all complaints filed thereunder;
- 4                   c.     investigating and resolving such complaints in a timely and
- 5 effective manner; and
- 6                   d.     retaining records regarding the resolution of all such complaints.
- 7                   3.     The internal complaint procedure shall incorporate the following elements:
- 8                   a.     A policy describing how investigations will be conducted, to be
- 9 included in the Associate Handbook;
- 10                  b.     A prompt commencement and thorough investigation by a person
- 11 trained to conduct such investigations who is not connected with the complaint;
- 12                  c.     A statement that an investigation should include interviews of all
- 13 relevant witnesses, including the complainant, and reviews of all relevant documents;
- 14                  d.     A written record of all investigatory steps, and any findings and
- 15 conclusions, and any actions taken;
- 16                  e.     Provision for the reasonably prompt resolution of such complaints;
- 17                  f.     An opportunity for the complainant to review and respond to
- 18 tentative findings, except in those circumstances in which it is necessary to take immediate
- 19 action;
- 20                  g.     Confidentiality of the complaint and investigation to the extent
- 21 possible;
- 22                  h.     Appropriate communication of the final conclusions of the
- 23 investigation provided to the complainant;
- 24                  i.     An appeal procedure to the Vice President of Human Resources, or
- 25 other appropriate Abercrombie representative, should the complainant be dissatisfied with the
- 26 results of the investigation; and
- 27                  j.     A notice that employees or applicants complaining of
- 28 discrimination may use the company's internal complaint procedure and/or may file charges with

1 the EEOC or state or local Fair Employment Practice (FEP) agencies. The notice shall also state
2 that filing an internal complaint does not relieve the complainant of meeting any applicable
3 deadline for the filing of a charge or complaint with EEOC or state or local FEP agencies.

4 4. Abercrombie may encourage resolution of internal complaints at a local 5 level prior to investigation, but not require such informal resolution. A complainant shall not be 6 required to first report the complaint to a person who is accused of the inappropriate conduct to 7 invoke the Internal Complaint Procedure.

8 5. The Internal Complaint Procedure will permit, but not require, an 9 employee to initiate the complaint process by submitting a written complaint on a form designed 10 for that purpose. Abercrombie shall also set up or maintain a toll-free telephone number to 11 receive complaints and shall designate additional persons at the district level who will be 12 authorized to accept such complaints on behalf of the Company.

13 6. The Internal Complaint Procedure shall be incorporated into the Associate 14 Handbook. Abercrombie shall continue to issue the Associate Handbook to all new store 15 associates.

16 7. Abercrombie will maintain a policy of nondiscrimination and equal 17 treatment, including a policy of zero tolerance for unlawful discrimination, in all of its 18 employment practices.

19 8. The Internal Complaint Procedure is not intended to supplant the right of 20 any employee to file a charge or complaint of discrimination or retaliation under any available 21 municipal, state, or federal law.

22 9. Abercrombie shall publish with the Internal Complaint Procedure the 23 following elements that will be included in the procedure:

24 a. A statement that it is unacceptable to retaliate against any associate 25 for use of the Internal Complaint Procedure, for assisting in the investigation of a complaint, or 26 for otherwise assisting in the utilization of the procedure. Abercrombie reserves the right to take 27 disciplinary action against an associate who intentionally provides false information in connection 28 with the procedure.

1                                    b.        A statement that if an allegation of discrimination or retaliation
2 against a manager or other associate is substantiated, then such conduct will result in appropriate 3 discipline, up to and including discharge.

4                                    E.        Performance Evaluations.

5                                    1.        If Abercrombie has not already done so prior to the Approval Date, it shall 6 revise its performance evaluation forms for Assistant Managers, Store Managers, General
7 Managers, District Managers, and Regional Managers in order to include as measures of 8 performance: (1) compliance with Abercrombie’s Equal Employment Opportunity Policy and 9 Discrimination and Harassment Policy; (2) attainment and management of diversity in the 10 workplace; and (3) efforts to meet Benchmarks and to comply with other provisions of the 11 Decree. The results of such evaluation factors shall have a meaningful impact upon 12 compensation and/or bonus calculation.

13                                    2.        At least thirty (30) days prior to implementation of the performance
14 evaluation forms described in Section XI.D.1, Abercrombie will provide Lead Counsel and the 15 EEOC with the proposed revisions in order to provide an opportunity for comment regarding the 16 revisions. Lead Counsel and the EEOC will provide comments, if any, within twenty-one (21)
17 days of receipt of the proposed revisions. Abercrombie shall respond to such comments within 18 fifteen (15) days of receipt. If the parties cannot agree on the proposed revisions, any disputes
19 will be submitted to the Special Master for resolution. The proposed revisions will be presumed 20 to be acceptable unless Lead Counsel and/or EEOC demonstrate that the proposed revisions are 21 improper. Any decision of the Special Master is final and not subject to appeal.

22                                    XII.    JOB ANALYSIS, MINIMUM ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS, JOB CRITERIA,
23                                    RECRUITMENT, HIRING, JOB ASSIGNMENTS AND MANAGERIAL
24                                    PROMOTION AND STAFFING

25                                    A.        Job Analysis and Job Criteria.

26                                    1.        The parties stipulate and agree upon Abercrombie’s retention of Kathleen 27 Lundquist, a professional industrial organizational psychologist, to develop a written job analysis 28 and job-related criteria for each in-store store position.

1           2.       No later than four (4) months after the Approval Date, in consultation with 2 the industrial organizational psychologist, Abercrombie shall develop selection criteria for in-
3 store positions, including Minimum Eligibility Requirements that are job related and consistent
4 with business necessity to the extent required by Title VII. Selection criteria shall be subject to 5 challenge under Section X of this Decree only if a particular position's selection criteria, taken
6 collectively, cause adverse impact in selection rate for African Americans, Asian Americans,
7 Latinos, or women. If the selection criteria cause such adverse impact and are challenged under 8 Section X of this Decree, the selection criteria shall be affirmed if Abercrombie shows that it has 9 used Best Efforts to determine whether alternative job-related selection criteria or whether an 10 alternative use of job-related selection criteria has less adverse impact and would be equally 11 predictive of job performance.

12           3.       Abercrombie will not use as a criterion for store positions any of the 13 following: enrollment in a target college, participation in college fraternity or sorority activities 14 generally, participation in particular fraternities or sororities, participation in particular athletic 15 activities, or gender. Abercrombie will not use enrollment in college as a Minimum Eligibility 16 Requirement for non-management store positions.

17           4.       Abercrombie will provide Lead Counsel and the EEOC with the job 18 analyses, including Minimum Eligibility Requirements, and job-related criteria in order to 19 provide an opportunity for comment. The content of the job analyses and job-related criteria
20 prepared pursuant to Section XII.A.1. will not be subject to review under Section X of this 21 Decree.

22           B. Recruitment and Hiring.

23           1.       No later than four months after the Approval Date, Abercrombie, in 24 consultation with the industrial organizational psychologist, shall develop and implement a
25 written Recruitment and Hiring Protocol to recruit and hire job applicants for all hourly in-store 26 positions and the Manager-in-Training position. The Recruitment and Hiring Protocol shall 27 require that Abercrombie affirmatively seek out applications from qualified African Americans, 28 Asian Americans, and Latinos of both genders.

1                   2.       Abercrombie’s recruitment and operations materials will reflect diversity in 2 race, color, national origin and gender in the United States, including the use of African 3 Americans, Asian Americans and Latino models of both genders.

4                   3.       The Recruitment and Hiring Protocol shall prohibit Abercrombie from 5 discouraging the submission of an application by any qualified person, or discarding or otherwise
6 diverting any application submitted. In addition, the Recruitment and Hiring Protocol shall 7 instruct Managers to make available and accept applications for Manager-in-Training at all of the 8 places and through all of the means that applications for Brand Representative are made available 9 and received.

10                  4.       The Recruitment and Hiring Protocol shall require clear and concise
11 written job descriptions for each in-store non-managerial position and the Manager-in-Training 12 position.

13                  5.       Job descriptions will be made available to anyone who requests them, and 14 non-management job descriptions will be made available in a single package so that potential 15 applicants are made aware of the differences among positions.

16                  6.       The Recruitment and Hiring Protocol will contain instructions for 17 dissemination of applications, the conduct of structured interviews, programs to train involved 18 staff, hiring decisions, documentation, and the hiring process generally.

19                  7.       The Recruitment and Hiring Protocol shall instruct Managers that Minority 20 associates shall not be disproportionately assigned involuntarily to any particular positions on the 21 basis of race or national origin.

22                  8.       Within sixty (60) days of the adoption of the Recruitment and Hiring
23 Protocol and continuing every twelve (12) months thereafter, Abercrombie will use Best Efforts 24 to train all involved staff in the conduct of structured interviews and other elements of the 25 Recruitment and Hiring Protocol.

26                  9.       Abercrombie will provide Lead Counsel and the EEOC with the 27 Recruitment and Hiring Protocol and the job descriptions in order to provide an opportunity for 28 comment regarding the adequacy of the Recruiting and Hiring Protocol. If the parties cannot

1 agree on the Recruitment and Hiring Protocol, any disputes will be submitted to the Special
2 Master for resolution and the Recruitment and Hiring Protocol shall be affirmed by the Special
3 Master unless Lead Counsel and/or the EEOC demonstrate that said protocol is clearly improper
4 and not in accordance with accepted industrial organizational psychologist professional standards.
5 Any decision of the Special Master is final and not subject to appeal.

6 C. Managerial Promotions.

7 1. Abercrombie will use Best Efforts to promote African Americans, Latinos,
8 Asian Americans and women at the following rates: Beginning in the second six-month period,
9 Abercrombie shall use its Best Efforts to promote women and members of each Minority Group
10 to positions of Assistant Manager and Store Manager/General Manager in a proportion that is no
11 less than the specific group's proportion of the available feeder pool. The appropriate available 12 feeder pool for Assistant Managers consists of all incumbent Managers-in-Training. The 13 appropriate available feeder pool for Store Manager/General Manager consists of all incumbent 14 Assistant Managers. The measuring date of incumbents in the available feeder pool shall be the 15 last day of the preceding six-month period. For this set of Benchmarks only, if Abercrombie
16 promotes women and African Americans, Latinos, and Asian Americans to such positions in a 17 proportion that deviates by no more than two standard deviations from the specific group's 18 proportion of the available feeder pool, Abercrombie shall be deemed to have achieved its 19 promotion Benchmarks.

20 XIII. AFFIRMATIVE RECRUITING EFFORTS

21 A. Diversity Recruiters.

22 In the first six months of the Decree, if not before, Abercrombie will hire and maintain at 23 least ten (10) full-time diversity recruiters who will be based in major metropolitan areas and will 24 be charged with recruiting Minority applicants, including female applicants of each Minority,
25 who meet Minimal Eligibility Requirements, into in-store positions. No later than twelve months
26 after the Approval Date, Abercrombie will hire and maintain an additional fifteen (15) full-time
27 diversity recruiters. Abercrombie will use Best Efforts to ensure that its recruiters themselves 28 reflect diversity in race/national origin and gender. Abercrombie will consider both external and

1 internal candidates for recruiter positions. Abercrombie will provide the resumes of the diversity
2 recruiters to Lead Counsel and the EEOC. If Abercrombie has met the Benchmarks set forth in 3 Section XIV for the first thirty (30) months of the term of this Decree, Abercrombie shall have 4 the right to petition the Special Master, and if necessary the Court, for modification of this 5 provision.

6 B. Advertisements.

7 During the Term of the Decree, Abercrombie will advertise for in-store employment
8 opportunities in periodicals or other media that target African Americans, Asian Americans, 9 and/or Latinos of both genders. Abercrombie will provide a list of media publications in which 10 advertisements were placed to Lead Counsel and the EEOC on an annual basis.

11 C. Recruiting Events.

12 During the Term of the Decree, Abercrombie will attend Minority job fairs and Minority 13 recruiting events that are attended by African Americans, Asian Americans, and/or Latinos of 14 both genders.

15 D. Diversity Consultant.

16 During the Term of the Decree, Abercrombie will utilize a diversity consultant whose 17 identity will be made known to Lead Counsel and the EEOC. The diversity consultant will 18 conduct diversity/inclusion training for all field based managers and selected home office 19 personnel. The diversity consultant will also, in conjunction with the VP of Diversity, aid in 20 identifying sources of qualified Minority candidates. Abercrombie will ensure that its diversity 21 consultant, or any subcontracted consultant, has familiarity with and experience in providing 22 diversity training as to all three of the minority groups – African American, Asian American and 23 Latinos – and gender.

24 E. Documentation.

25 Abercrombie will ensure that its recruiters document their recruiting efforts and that such 26 records are retained for review by the Vice President of Diversity and are available to the 27 monitor. Such documentation shall include, specifically but not exclusively: 1) a description of 28

1 the placement of advertisements (publication, size, time, duration, targeted audience) and 2) a
2 description of events/fairs attended (place, date, targeted audience).

3 XIV. BENCHMARKS

4 A. General Principles

5 1. Abercrombie shall use Best Efforts to meet the selection benchmarks set 6 forth in this section. These Benchmarks do not establish maximum or minimum rates for the 7 selection of African Americans, Latinos, Asian Americans or women; rather these Benchmarks
8 establish selection rates that Abercrombie will use Best Efforts to achieve.

9 2. In attempting to meet these Benchmarks, Abercrombie shall not be 10 required to select unqualified persons or to displace any incumbent associate from his or her
11 position. These Benchmarks are not quotas; rather, they are Benchmarks designed to afford
12 guidance as to whether Abercrombie is making selection decisions in such a way as to afford 13 equal employment opportunity.

14 3. Abercrombie's failure to achieve a Benchmark for a particular position or 15 period will not be considered a violation of this Decree unless Abercrombie has failed to use Best
16 Efforts to meet the Benchmark. Should Abercrombie demonstrate that the proportion of good 17 faith offers made to applicants of a particular group as compared to all applicants was at least as 18 high as the Benchmark percentage, such evidence will conclusively establish that the Benchmark 19 was met.

20 4. Unless otherwise specified, achievement of the Benchmarks will be 21 calculated on a semi-annual basis and based on companywide employment data.

22 5. Failure to achieve a Benchmark by a fraction of a person shall not be 23 deemed to constitute a failure to achieve a Benchmark under the Decree.

24 6. Abercrombie shall use voluntary self-identification to identify the race and 25 gender of applicants and employees. No party shall influence an applicant's or employee's self-26 identification. Absent clear applicant or employee error, no applicant or employee shall be 27 permitted to change his or her identified race or ethnicity.
28

1           B.     Interim Hiring Goals

2                     1.     Interim hiring Benchmarks shall be established for Benchmark Positions.

3                     2.     Abercrombie shall monitor, by applicant self-identification, applicant flow
4 of African Americans, Asian Americans, Latinos and women.

5                     3.     “Applicant Rate” shall be the actual applicant flow rate of a group as 6 measured on a six-month basis.

7                     4.     “Maintenance Level” shall be the proportion of Asian Americans hired
8 compared to all groups hired in a position as of the Preliminary Approval Date of this Decree.

9                     5.     “Percentage Level” for African-Americans shall be six-and-a-half percent
10 (6.5%) for the second six-month period, seven-and-a-half percent (7.5%) for the third six-month 11 period, and nine percent (9%) for the fourth six-month period.

12                    6.     “Percentage Level” for Latinos shall be seven percent (7%) for the second 13 six-month period, eight percent (8%) for the third six-month period, and nine percent (9%) for the 14 fourth six-month period.

15                    7.     “Percentage Level” for women shall be fifty-three percent (53%) for the 16 second six-month period, fifty-three percent (53%) for the third six-month period, and fifty-three 17 percent (53%) for the fourth six-month period.

18                    8.     The first six-month period begins at the beginning of the month following 19 the Approval Date.

20                    9.     Brand Representative Position.

21                             Abercrombie will use Best Efforts to meet the following interim hiring
22 goals:

23                             a.     First six-month period:

24                                     African American: five percent (5%);

25                                     Latinos: six percent (6%);

26                                     Asian Americans: Maintenance Level; and 27                                     Women: fifty-three percent (53%).

- b. Second six-month period:
 African American: the greater of Percentage Level of six-and-a-half percent (6.5%) or Applicant Rate, as adjusted;<sup>1</sup>
 Latinos: the greater of Percentage Level of seven percent (7%) or Applicant Rate, as adjusted;<sup>2</sup>
 Asian Americans: the greater of Maintenance Level or Applicant Rate; and Women: the greater of Percentage Level of fifty-three percent (53%) or Applicant Rate;
- c. Third six-month period:
 African Americans: the greater of Percentage Level of seven-and-a-half percent (7.5%) or Applicant Rate, as adjusted;<sup>3</sup>
 Latinos: the greater of Percentage Level of eight percent (8%) or Applicant Rate, as adjusted;<sup>4</sup>
 Asian Americans: the greater of Maintenance Level or Applicant Rate; and Women: the greater of Percentage Level of fifty-three percent (53%) or Applicant Rate;
- d. Fourth six-month period:
 African Americans: the greater of Percentage Level of nine percent (9%) or Applicant Rate in the third six-month period;

<sup>1</sup> “As adjusted” means Applicant Rate supplemented by a percentage determined by multiplying by three percent (3%) the proportion of African Americans hired into the Brand Representative position compared to all Minority individuals hired into that position in the first six-month period.

<sup>2</sup> “As adjusted” means Applicant Rate supplemented by a percentage determined by multiplying by three percent (3%) the proportion of Latinos hired into the Brand Representative position compared to all Minority individuals hired into that position in the first six-month period.

<sup>3</sup> “As adjusted” means Applicant Rate supplemented by a percentage determined by multiplying by one-and-a-half percent (1.5%) the proportion of African Americans hired into the Brand Representative position compared to all Minority individuals hired into that position in the second six-month period.

<sup>4</sup> “As adjusted” means Applicant Rate supplemented by a percentage determined by multiplying by one-and-a-half percent (1.5%) the proportion of Latinos hired into the Brand Representative position compared to all Minority individuals hired into that position in the second six-month period.

1                   Latinos: the greater of Percentage Level of nine percent (9%) or 2                   Applicant Rate in the third six-month period;
3                   Asian Americans: the greater of Maintenance Level or Applicant
4                   Rate in the third six-month period; and 5                   Women: the greater of Percentage Rate of fifty-three percent
6                   (53%) or Applicant Rate.

7                   10.    Minority Female Goal.

8                   In addition to the interim hiring goals set forth in Section XIV.B.9, 9                   Abercrombie will use Best Efforts to meet the following interim hiring goals for African 10                  American women for the Brand Representative position:

11                  a.    First six-month period:

12                                  4.25 percent of all women hired;

13                  b.    Second six-month period:

14                                  the greater of 5.5 percent of all women hired or Applicant Rate, as 15                                  adjusted;<sup>5</sup>

16                  c.    Third six-month period:

17                                  the greater of 6.4 percent of all women hired or Applicant Rate, as 18                                  adjusted;<sup>6</sup>

19                  d.    Fourth six-month period:

20                                  the greater of 7.6 percent of all women hired or Applicant Rate.

21                  Notwithstanding the foregoing, Abercrombie shall be deemed to have 22                  achieved this Benchmark if Abercrombie achieves its Benchmark for African Americans and if 23                  Abercrombie hires or extends good faith offers to African American women at the greater of the 24                  following rates: (1) 45% of Abercrombie's total African American hires; or (2) the Applicant

26                  <sup>5</sup> "As adjusted" means Applicant Rate supplemented by a percentage determined by multiplying by three percent (3%) the proportion of African American women hired into the Brand Representative position compared to all minority women hired into that position in the first six-month period.

27                  <sup>6</sup> "As adjusted" means Applicant Rate supplemented by a percentage determined by multiplying by one-and-a-half
28                  percent (1.5%) the proportion of African American women hired into the Brand Representative position compared to all minority women hired into that position in the second six-month period.

1 Rate of African American women. In addition, Abercrombie shall report the number of all Latina
2 and Asian American women hired in the Brand Representative position. If, in two consecutive 3 six-month periods, the number of Latina women or Asian American women hired as a proportion
4 of all women hired into that position is lower to a statistically significant degree than the number
5 of Latina women or Asian American women as a proportion of all women employed in that 6 particular position at the time this Decree takes effect, the parties shall meet and confer regarding 7 the matter.

8 11. Manager-in-Training Position

9 Abercrombie will use Best Efforts to meet the following interim hiring
10 goals:

11 a. First six-month period:

12 African American: three-and-a-half percent (3.5%);

13 Latinos: three-and-a-half percent (3.5%);

14 Asian Americans: three and four-tenths percent (3.4%); and 15 Women: fifty-three (53) percent .

16 b. Second six-month period:

17 African American: four-and-a-half percent (4.5%) or Applicant
18 Rate;

19 Latinos: four-and-a-half percent (4.5%) or Applicant Rate;

20 Asian Americans: three and six-tenths percent (3.6%) or Applicant 21 Rate; and

22 Women: fifty-three percent (53%) or Applicant Rate.

23 c. Third six-month period:

24 African American: five-and-a-half percent (5.5%) or Applicant
25 Rate;

26 Latinos: five-and-a-half percent (5.5%) or Applicant Rate;

27 Asian Americans: three and eight-tenths percent (3.8%) or

28 Applicant Rate; and

1 Women: fifty-three percent (53%) or Applicant Rate.

2 d. Fourth six-month period:

3 African American: seven percent (7%) or Applicant Rate;

4 Latinos: seven percent (7%) or Applicant Rate;

5 Asian Americans: four percent (4%) or Applicant Rate; and

6 Women: fifty-three percent (53%) or Applicant Rate.

7 12. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions XIV.B.9.-11., a rebuttable
8 presumption shall arise that Abercrombie has exercised its Best Efforts to meet the Minority
9 interim hiring goals for a particular six-month period if (i) Abercrombie is then in compliance
10 with its obligations under the Decree and (ii) Abercrombie has met Percentage Level interim
11 goals for two of the three Minority groups. However, the rebuttable presumption shall not be 12 deemed to arise if Abercrombie has missed an interim goal for the same group for a second
13 consecutive period. Nor would a rebuttable presumption arise if the interim goal Abercrombie
14 has missed is based upon the Applicant Rate. If the presumption is deemed to arise, and if Lead
15 Counsel and/or the EEOC seek to challenge whether Abercrombie has used Best Efforts to meet
16 the Minority interim hiring goals, Lead Counsel and/or the EEOC shall have the burden of

18 C. Applicant Rate Goals

19 After the period when Interim Hiring Goals, described in Part B above, will be used,
20 Abercrombie shall use Applicant Rate in the preceding six-month period as a goal for Benchmark
21 Positions during the remaining term of the Decree. Abercrombie will identify the applicable 22 Applicant Rate to the Monitor, Lead Counsel, and the EEOC within thirty (30) days of the 23 beginning of each six-month period. If Abercrombie has been found to have failed to use Best 24 Efforts to implement Benchmarks, the parties shall meet and confer under the direction of the 25 Special Master to determine when and under what conditions Abercrombie may proceed to use of 26 Applicant Rate goals.

1 XV. REPORTING, RECORDKEEPING, AND COMPLIANCE MEETINGS

2 A. Documents To Be Preserved For The Duration of The Decree.

3 Abercrombie shall retain the following employment-related records for the Duration of the 4 Decree or as required by state or federal law, whichever is longer:

- 5 1. Internal Complaint Procedure;
- 6 2. Job Analyses for Benchmark Positions;
- 7 3. Minimum Eligibility Requirements and job-related criteria for Benchmark
8 Positions;
- 9 4. Recruitment and Hiring Protocol;
- 10 5. Job descriptions for Benchmark Positions;
- 11 6. Training plans;
- 12 7. Semi- Annual Progress Reports; and
- 13 8. Monitor’s Reports and Executive Summaries.

14 B. Documents to Be Maintained for Two Years.

15 The following documents shall be maintained for two years from the date the document is 16 created, or as required by state or federal law, whichever is longer:

- 17 1. Performance Evaluations of Managers;
- 18 2. Training Program Materials.;
- 19 3. Internal Complaints;
- 20 4. Recruiting Documentation described in Section XIII.E; and
- 21 5. Marketing Materials.

22 C. Access to Documents.

23 1. The Monitor shall, upon reasonable notice, be entitled to review all 24 documents, including electronic data in machine-readable form, that are required to be maintained
25 or created by the express terms of this Decree or that are used or referred to by Abercrombie to 26 prepare Semi- Annual Progress Reports, except, however, that the Monitor shall not be entitled to 27 review any such documents that are protected by attorney-client privilege or attorney work 28 product doctrine (“privileged documents”).

1                   2.       Lead Counsel and the EEOC may seek access to non-privileged documents
2 described in C.1 above by requesting, with notice to Abercrombie, copies of such documents
3 from the Monitor. Upon request, and notice to Abercrombie, the Monitor shall provide Lead
4 Counsel and the EEOC with access to documents described in Section XV.C.1 unless 5 Abercrombie objects within five (5) days of receipt of notice. If Abercrombie timely objects, the 6 objection shall be resolved by the Monitor. The Monitor shall determine any matter in dispute by 7 requiring that Lead Counsel and the EEOC demonstrate the access requested is relevant to a claim
8 of breach of the Decree.

9                   3.       All documents required to be maintained by the express terms of the 10 Decree, and all documents that are provided to the Monitor, Lead Counsel, or the EEOC under 11 the terms of the Decree, are and shall be treated as confidential business records. Neither Lead
12 Counsel, the EEOC nor the Monitor shall divulge any such documents to any third party unless so 13 ordered by the Court after notice to Abercrombie and an opportunity for Abercrombie to object to 14 such disclosure and be heard. Upon expiration of this Decree, Lead Counsel, the EEOC and the 15 Monitor shall promptly return to Abercrombie or destroy any and all documents Abercrombie
16 furnished under this Decree. This provision shall not prevent a party from filing otherwise 17 confidential documents with the Court, provided that, either: (a) such documents are filed under 18 seal; or (b) Lead Counsel and/or the EEOC give ten (10) days advance notice to Abercrombie, to 19 permit opportunity to seek a protective order sealing such documents.

20                   D.       Reporting Schedule.

21                   Within sixty (60) days of completion of the initial Benchmark period, and at six (6) month
22 intervals thereafter through the Term of the Decree, Abercrombie shall provide Semi-Annual 23 Progress Reports to the Monitor, Lead Counsel and EEOC on Abercrombie's compliance with the 24 Decree's requirements. All such Reports shall be subject to the same confidentiality restrictions
25 described in Section XV.C.3. above.

26                   E.       Contents of the Semi-Annual Progress Reports.

27                   Abercrombie's Semi-Annual Progress Reports shall include information regarding the 28 following:

1           1.       Progress in achieving each of the Benchmarks described above in 2 Section XIV. This report will include the applicable goal proportion and the actual achieved
3 proportion. Abercrombie will indicate any shortfalls in achieving Benchmarks for the preceding 4 six-month period, will analyze the possible reasons for such shortfall, and will identify plans to 5 facilitate achievement of the Benchmark not met. If applicable, Abercrombie will analyze 6 possible reasons if any division reflects shortfalls (i.e., less than 80 percent of companywide
7 level) even if companywide Benchmarks are satisfied. (Division is defined as Abercrombie &
8 Fitch, Hollister, abercrombie, or any other concept adopted by Abercrombie during the period of 9 this Decree). In addition, if applicable, Abercrombie will analyze possible reasons that any 10 Benchmark was met through good faith offers only.

11           2.       Number and proportion of persons companywide in the preceding six 12 months by race/ethnicity and gender (i.e., African American men, African American women,
13 Asian American men, Asian American women, Latino men, Latina women, white men, white
14 women) extended a good faith offer, hired or promoted (each of which shall be separately
15 reported) into (a) each in-store non-managerial position (e.g., Brand Representative, stocker,
16 overnight); (b) Manager-In-Training; (c) Assistant Manager; (d) Store Manager; and (e) General
17 Manager.

18           3.       Number and proportion of persons in the preceding six months extended a 19 good faith offer, hired or promoted (each of which shall be separately reported) by store, state and 20 division by race/ethnicity and gender (i.e. African American men, African American women,
21 Asian American men, Asian American women, Latino men, Latina women, white men, white
22 women) for (a) each in-store non-managerial position (e.g., Brand Representative, stocker,
23 overnight); (b) Manager-In-Training; (c) Assistant Manager; (d) Store Manager; and (e) General
24 Manager.

25           4.       Composition of incumbent associates by each store position and by race, 26 ethnicity and gender within each store, state, division and company-wide at the end of the 27 preceding six month period.
28

1           5.     Number and proportion of associates in each in-store non-managerial
2 position (e.g., Brand Representative, stocker, overnight) by race/ethnicity and gender and by 3 store, state, division, and companywide in the preceding six months;

4           6.     Attrition or termination of associates from each store position by race, 5 ethnicity and gender and by reason for leaving within each store, state, and division during the 6 preceding six month period;

7           7.     Confirmation by District Managers that the poster required by Section XI.B
8 is posted, with copies attached;

9           8.     Summary of activity of Diversity V.P. in implementing affirmative
10 recruitment efforts, diversity training and Internal Complaint Procedure, with copies of materials 11 attached;

12           9.     Copies of Company materials depicting persons referred to in Section
13 XII.B.2 and an indication of which persons used are or have been Abercrombie associates;

14           10.    Copies of posting and publication of job descriptions of in-store positions
15 as required in Section XII.B.5;

16           11.    Copies of recruitment documentation referred to in Section XIII.

17           12.    The number of hourly in-store employees by race/gender that have been 18 terminated in the preceding six-month reporting period at the direction of home office 19 management excluding human resources.

20           13.    Copies of all marketing materials used by the Company in the preceding 21 six months (e.g., print, television or internet advertising; quarterly magazines, store catalogs, and 22 similar materials; store posters; videos; A&F television; shopping bags; etc.).

23           F.     Compliance Meetings.

24           1.     Within three months of the Approval Date, representatives of Abercrombie, 25 Lead Counsel, and the EEOC, shall confer with the Monitor in order to review the initial 26 implementation of the Decree, Abercrombie's compliance with the requirements, and other 27 related topics. Thereafter, representatives of Abercrombie, Lead Counsel, and the EEOC, shall 28 confer with the Monitor every six months to review the Semi-Annual Progress Reports required

1 by Section XV.E above. Within one month of the initial Progress Report and after each such 2 Report submitted thereafter representatives of Abercrombie, Lead Counsel and the EEOC shall 3 confer with the Monitor in order to review the matters described above. Such meetings shall be 4 in person if requested by Lead Counsel, EEOC, or Abercrombie, except that if, after three years
5 after the Approval Date, Abercrombie has met the Benchmarks, then only one compliance 6 meeting each year need be in person.

7 2. The parties will discuss, among other things, identifying any goal not 8 achieved and an analysis of the reasons that the goal was not achieved and plans that would 9 facilitate achievement of the goal. In addition, if applicable, the parties will discuss possible
10 reasons that any Benchmark was met through good faith offers only.

11 3. The Diversity VP shall attend each Compliance Meeting. Other officers, 12 managers, and associates of Abercrombie, whose presence will assist the attainment of the 13 purpose of the Compliance Meetings, may attend as appropriate. Compliance Meetings shall take 14 place in San Francisco (or another mutually agreeable location).

15 G. Status Conference with Court.

16 1. The parties shall conduct an annual status conference with the Court to 17 discuss the status of implementation of the Decree. Abercrombie, Lead Counsel, and the EEOC
18 may be represented at the status conference. No party shall file any document with the Court in 19 conjunction with the status conference, unless directed to do so by the Court.

20 XVI. MONITORING OF IMPLEMENTATION

21 A. Court-Appointed Monitor.

22 1. The parties have stipulated to Fred Alvarez, Esq. of Palo Alto, California
23 for the Court to appoint as a Monitor.

24 2. The Monitor will prepare an Annual Compliance Report (“Report”) on the 25 status of implementation and Abercrombie’s compliance with the terms and objectives of the 26 Decree, as well as an “Executive Summary” of such Report. The Monitor’s Report will include
27 (a) a summary of the requirements of the Decree; and (b) an assessment of Abercrombie’s
28 semiannual compliance reports. The Monitor will review and evaluate Abercrombie’s

1 compliance with the specific terms of this Decree, and identify any barriers to fulfillment of its 2 objectives. The Monitor will also review and assess the responsibilities and performance of the 3 VP of Diversity.

4           3.       The Executive Summary shall set forth the substance of the Monitor's
5 findings for the applicable reporting period. The parties contemplate that the Executive Summary
6 will reflect the Monitor's general findings in areas such as, but not limited to, training,
7 recruitment, creation of job analyses and descriptions, and attainment of Benchmarks, all as more
8 specifically covered by the Report, and the parties also contemplate that the Executive Summary
9 will not include specific findings as to, inter alia, the numbers of applications, hires, promotions, 10 or specific occurrences or events. By way of example, the Executive Summary's discussion of 11 the Company's training could generally set out the Monitor's findings relative to whether the 12 Company had or had not met its overall training objectives under the Decree over the subject 13 reporting period and, if not, a general statement of matters with respect to which there had been 14 non-compliance and any steps the Company is to take to resolve such matters. The EEOC may 15 respond to any legitimate inquiries by the public, media, or the government, with information 16 contained in the Summary or a copy thereof. Other than this exception to the EEOC, the 17 Executive Summary and information contained therein would be subject to the confidentiality
18 provisions of Section XV.C.3 of this Decree.

19           4.       The Monitor will provide the Special Master, Abercrombie, Lead Counsel, 20 and the EEOC with copies of the Report and Executive Summary within ninety (90) days of the 21 anniversary date of the Decree. The Report shall be subject to the confidentiality restrictions
22 described in Section XV.C.3.

23           5.       The Monitor shall have reasonable and timely access to relevant books,
24 data (including databases), documents, and other sources of information necessary or appropriate 25 to the exercise of his/her authority, in whatever form they are maintained in the ordinary course of 26 business. This will include, but not be limited to, access to the following insofar as they relate to 27 compliance with equal employment opportunity law and/or the terms of this Decree: (a) 28 applications and related documents; (b) guidelines or training on recruitment, hiring, job

1 assignment, and managerial promotion; (c) EEO complaints, and any internal complaints; (d)
2 managerial performance evaluations; (e) records of employee discipline; (f) records of attrition
3 and terminations; (g) recruitment materials; and (h) marketing materials.

4 6. The Monitor shall address compliance issues that may arise as follows:

5 a. The Monitor shall categorize compliance issues as Low Level,
6 Intermediate Level, or High Level and treat them as follows:

7 i. Low Level means non-systemic matters, such as compliance
8 issues arising at a single store. Low Level issues may be resolved by Abercrombie and the 9 Monitor without consulting Lead Counsel or the EEOC. Low Level issues that are not resolved
10 by Abercrombie after notice from the Monitor and a reasonable opportunity to cure become 11 Intermediate Level issues. Low Level issues that are resolved shall only be reported by the 12 number of such issues in each region of Abercrombie in a confidential addendum to the Monitor's
13 report that shall be provided to the parties. In addition, the Monitor shall maintain a log of all 14 resolved Low Level issues that includes, as to each issue, identification of the store involved and 15 a brief description of the nature of the issue and resolution. The Monitor shall provide the Special 16 Master with such log on an annual basis. Neither the Monitor nor the Special Master shall 17 produce such log to Lead Counsel or the EEOC unless and until Lead Counsel and/or the EEOC
18 undertake an enforcement procedure under the Decree in which such information would be 19 relevant, at which point Lead Counsel and/or the EEOC may seek such log through discovery
20 under the standards set forth in Section X.B.4.d above.

21 ii. Intermediate Level means either Low Level issues that the 22 Monitor and Abercrombie are unable to resolve after notice and a reasonable opportunity to cure, 23 or systemic issues that arise out of policy or implementation concerns that affect a significant 24 number of individuals. Prior to reporting Intermediate Level issues, the Monitor shall provide 25 Abercrombie with notice and a reasonable opportunity to cure any Intermediate Level issues.
26 Intermediate Level issues, including any resolution of such issues, will be reported in Compliance
27 Reports and may be the topic of discussion at Section XV.F Compliance Meetings.
28

1                                   iii.     High Level means situations involving exigent facts or 2 circumstances which require immediate action to prevent a serious violation of the terms of this
3 Decree. In the event a High Level matter shall arise, the Monitor will immediately notify EEOC, 4 Lead Counsel and Abercrombie of the pressing concern. The matter shall be resolved in 5 accordance with the provisions of Section X.B.

6                                   b.     Upon request, and notice to Abercrombie, the Monitor shall provide 7 Lead Counsel and the EEOC with access to documents described in Section XV.C.1 unless 8 Abercrombie objects within five (5) days of receipt of notice. If Abercrombie timely objects, the 9 objection shall be resolved in accordance with the provisions of Section X.B.

10                                  c.     The Monitor shall not report or disclose any action or matter
11 discovered in the course of the Monitor's function that does not directly relate to the terms of this 12 Decree and Abercrombie's compliance therewith.

13                                  7.     Nothing herein shall be interpreted to preclude the Monitor from resolving 14 matters informally between the parties.

15                                  8.     The Monitor may audit Abercrombie data for accuracy and/or 16 completeness, or retain an independent expert(s) for this purpose, as he/she deems necessary or 17 appropriate.

18                                  9.     The Monitor may visit Abercrombie stores, as well as corporate offices, as 19 necessary to fulfill his/her responsibilities. The Monitor may also interview and communicate 20 with class members, in-store managers, employees, or other witnesses as necessary to fulfill 21 his/her responsibilities.

22                                  10.    The Monitor may request additional information from Abercrombie and 23 may communicate with the Diversity VP, in a manner that assists the Monitor in the exercise of 24 his/her duties. After reasonable notice, the Monitor may communicate with members of 25 Abercrombie's senior management. The Monitor may communicate with the Special Master, 26 counsel for Abercrombie, Lead Counsel and the EEOC.

27                                  11.    All fees and expenses of the Monitor shall be paid by Abercrombie.
28

1 XVII. MONETARY RELIEF, NOTICE AND CLAIMS PROCEDURE

2 A. Establishment of Settlement Fund.

3 1. Abercrombie shall establish a settlement fund (“Settlement Fund”) in the 4 amount of $40,000,000.00 for the purpose of providing individual monetary awards to Class
5 Representatives, Charging Parties and other eligible members of the Settlement Class and funding
6 a portion of the settlement administration expenses, in accordance with the provisions of this 7 Section. The Settlement Fund will be supplemented by the amount described in Section
8 XVII.A.2.

9 2. The Settlement Fund will be supplemented by an amount calculated as 10 imputed interest on the $40,000,000.00 as follows:

11 $40,000,000.00 multiplied by .025 (2.5% imputed interest)
12 multiplied by a fraction (the numerator of which is the number of 13 days between the Preliminary Approval Date, and the date
14 Abercrombie wire transfers final payment from the Settlement Fund to the Settlement Fund Account as provided in Section XVII.A.4.e.
and the denominator of which is 360 days).

15 3. Lead Counsel and the EEOC will select a Claims Administrator. The 16 Claims Administrator will open and administer an interest-bearing account (“Settlement Fund 17 Account”) designated by Lead Counsel and with a unique Taxpayer Identification Number.

18 4. Payments will be made by Abercrombie from the Settlement Fund to the 19 Settlement Fund Account as follows:

20 a. Within seven (7) days of the Preliminary Approval Date, 21 Abercrombie will wire $350,000.00 to the Settlement Fund Account. This amount is intended to 22 cover costs of the mailed notices and expenses associated with the claims procedure.

23 b. Within seven (7) days of the Approval Date, Abercrombie will wire
24 $350,000.00 to the Settlement Fund Account. This amount is intended to cover expenses
25 associated with continued implementation of the claims procedure.

26 c. If there is no Final Approval of the Consent Decree, then the 27 Claims Administrator shall return to Abercrombie any funds remaining in the Settlement Fund
28 Account from the amounts described in Sections XVII.A.4.a and b.

1 d. Within seven (7) days of Final Approval, Abercrombie will wire the 2 aggregate amount set forth in Exhibit C to the Settlement Fund Account. This amount shall be
3 distributed by the Claims Administrator to the Class Representatives and Charging Parties as set
4 forth in Section XVII.B.1.

5 e. After Final Approval and within seven (7) days after the Claims
6 Administrator has informed Abercrombie in writing that it is prepared to distribute the Settlement
7 Fund to the eligible members of the Settlement Class, Abercrombie will wire an amount to the 8 Settlement Fund Account calculated as follows:

9 $40,000,000.00 as supplemented by the amount calculated in 10 Section XVII.A.2., less amounts Abercrombie has paid to the 11 Settlement Fund Account in accordance with Sections XVII.A.4.a., b., and d., and less the aggregate amount of opt-out credits as calculated under the provisions of Section XVII.D.4.

12 f. Upon payment of the amounts set forth in Section XVII.A.4. from 13 the Settlement Fund to the Settlement Fund Account having been made, Abercrombie will have 14 no further monetary obligation hereunder to Class Representatives, Charging Parties or members
15 of the Settlement Class, including no obligation to pay any funds for distribution to Class
16 Representatives, Charging Parties or members of the Settlement Class; no obligation to pay costs
17 of mailed notices and expenses associated with the claims procedure; and no obligation to pay
18 any other settlement administration costs, except that Abercrombie will be responsible for paying 19 for the published notice of the Settlement Notice as specified in XVII.C.2.

20 5. Nothing herein shall be deemed to require Abercrombie to separate or 21 segregate its assets into a restricted settlement fund. The Settlement Fund Account will constitute 22 a restricted settlement fund, and it will be created, managed and disbursed by the Claims
23 Administrator under the supervision of Lead Counsel and the EEOC. Other than paying funds
24 from the Settlement Fund to the Settlement Fund Account, Abercrombie will have no
25 responsibilities or liabilities with respect to the Settlement Fund Account, its administration, or 26 distributions therefrom.

28

1           B. Distribution of Settlement Fund.

2                   1. Class Representatives and EEOC Charging Parties.

3           Each Class Representative and each Charging Party shall receive a liquidated amount as 4 set forth in Exhibit C. This liquidated amount will compensate the Class Representatives or 5 Charging Party for the (a) full settlement of all their claims against Abercrombie; (b) payment in 6 recognition of risks related to being Class Representative or Charging Party; and (c) payment in 7 consideration for the time and effort expended in the Consolidated Litigation or EEOC
8 proceedings. Payment of these sums shall be made by the Claims Administrator no later than 9 seven (7) days after the receipt of the funds described in Section XVII.A.4.d.

10                   2. Settlement Class.

11           The remainder of the Settlement Fund Account will be distributed to eligible members of 12 the Settlement Class who do not opt out based on a formula set out in the allocation plan as set
13 forth in Section L. The distribution of the Settlement Fund Account according to the allocation
14 plan will be undertaken by the Claims Administrator. Except as set forth in Section 15 XVII.C.2.below, the fees, costs and expenses of the Claims Administrator shall be paid from the 16 Settlement Fund Account, including the interest on the Settlement Fund Account. All payments
17 to the Claims Administrator shall be approved by Lead Counsel and the EEOC.

18           C. Notice.

19                   1. Mailed Notice.

20           Within twenty (20) days following the Preliminary Approval Date, Abercrombie shall 21 provide the Claims Administrator with a computer disk containing the full names, social security 22 numbers, last known addresses and phone numbers, start dates, and, as applicable, end dates of 23 employment with Abercrombie for all in-store hourly and manager employees employed by 24 Abercrombie at any time from February 24, 1999 through the Preliminary Approval Date who are 25 potential Settlement Class members. Within twenty (20) days following the Preliminary 26 Approval Date, Lead Counsel shall provide the Claims Administrator with a computer readable 27 list of all known potential Settlement Class members and their mailing addresses. Prior to the 28 mailing of the Notices, the Claims Administrator will combine these lists of potential Settlement

1 Class members received from Abercrombie and Lead Counsel and update any new address
2 information for potential class members as may be available through the National Change of 3 Address system. The Claims Administrator shall determine through a computer database search
4 the most recent address that may be obtained for each person on the combined list of potential
5 Settlement Class members. Within sixty (60) days of the Preliminary Approval Date, the Claims
6 Administrator shall mail, via first class postage, Notice of Class Settlement, the Claim Form and 7 the Explanation of Claims Procedure, all in the form approved by the Court in the Preliminary 8 Approval Order, to all known potential Settlement Class members at their last known address and

10 2. Published Notice.

11 Abercrombie shall cause to be published the notice of the class settlement in the form
12 approved by the Court in the Preliminary Approval Order, in newspapers and other media set
13 forth in the Preliminary Approval Order. Abercrombie shall pay for the cost of the published 14 notice, not to exceed $600,000.00.

15 D. Objections and Exclusions.

16 Class members may object to or opt-out of the class settlement.

17 1. Objections.

18 Class members objecting to the terms of the settlement must do so in writing at least thirty 19 (30) days prior to the scheduled Fairness Hearing. The written objection must be sent to the 20 Claims Administrator on or before the date specified in the Preliminary Approval Order. The 21 Claims Administrator will record the date of receipt of the objection and forward it to both 22 Abercrombie and Lead Counsel within two (2) business days following receipt. The Claims
23 Administrator will also file the original objections with the Clerk of the Court no later than five 24 (5) days prior to the scheduled Fairness Hearing date. The Claims Administrator shall retain 25 copies of all written objections until such time as it has completed its duties and responsibilities
26 under this Decree.

2. Exclusions.

Class members may exclude themselves, or opt-out, of the monetary relief provisions of the class settlement. Any request for exclusion must be in the form of a written "Opt-out" statement sent to the Claims Administrator. Information on how to opt-out of the settlement shall be made available by the Claims Administrator. A person wishing to opt-out must sign a statement which includes the following language:

I understand that I am requesting to be excluded from the class monetary settlement and that I will receive no money from the settlement fund created under the Consent Decree entered into by Abercrombie. I understand that if I am excluded from the class monetary settlement, I may bring a separate legal action seeking damages, but may receive nothing or less than what I would have received if I had filed a claim under the class monetary settlement procedure in this case. I also understand that I may not seek exclusion from the class for injunctive relief and that I am bound by the injunctive provisions of the Consent Decree entered into by Abercrombie.

A class member submitting an Opt-out statement shall sign and date the statement and deliver it to the Claims Administrator at least thirty (30) days prior to the scheduled Fairness Hearing, as specified in the Preliminary Approval Order.

The Claims Administrator shall date stamp the original of any Opt-out statement and serve copies on both Abercrombie and Lead Counsel within two (2) business days of receipt of such statement. The Claims Administrator will also file the original Opt-out statements with the Clerk of the Court no later than five (5) days prior to the scheduled Fairness Hearing date. The Claims Administrator shall retain copies of all Opt-out statements until such time as it has completed its duties and responsibilities under this Decree.

3. Rescission of Class Member Opt-Outs

The parties recognize that some class members who initially submit Opt-out forms seeking exclusion may, upon further reflection, wish to withdraw or rescind such Opt-out statements. The parties agree that class members shall be permitted to withdraw or rescind their Opt-out statements by submitting a "Rescission of Opt-out" statement to the Claims Administrator. The Rescission of Opt-out statement shall include the following language:

1 I previously submitted an Opt-out statement seeking exclusion from 2 the class monetary settlement. I have reconsidered and wish to 3 withdraw my Opt-out statement. I understand that by rescinding
4 my Opt-out I may be eligible to receive an award from the claims
5 settlement fund and may not bring a separate legal action against 6 Abercrombie seeking damages.

7 A class member submitting such a rescission statement shall sign and date the statement
8 and cause it to be delivered to the Claims Administrator no later than the deadline for claims
9 filing period specified in the Preliminary Approval Order.

10 The Claims Administrator shall stamp the date received on the original of any Rescission 11 of Opt-out statement and serve copies to counsel for Abercrombie and Lead Counsel no later than 12 (2) days after receipt thereof and shall file the date-stamped originals with the Clerk of the Court
13 no later than five (5) business days prior to the date of the Fairness Hearing. The Claims 14 Administrator shall retain copies of all Rescissions of Opt-Out statements until such time as the

16 4. Opt-Out Credits.

17 In the event any Settlement Class member elects to opt-out in the time and manner set 18 forth in Section XVII.D.2, and does not rescind it, Abercrombie shall be entitled to a credit for 19 each such opt-out. The credit amount will be 125% of the average settlement award of all class
20 members eligible to participate in the monetary settlement fund as determined by the Allocation
21 Plan, Section XVII.L. The aggregate credit for each opt-out shall be calculated and deducted
22 from the Settlement Fund prior to the wire transfer of funds set forth in Section XVII.A.4.e.

23 5. Defendant's Rescission of Agreement.

24 If the number of individuals who opt out of the Settlement Class in the manner provided
25 in this Decree exceeds one percent (1 %) of the number of the class members who submit 26 completed claim forms, then Abercrombie, at its sole option, shall have the right to void this 27 settlement on the tenth (10th) day after the Court requires individuals to return opt out notices. If 28 Abercrombie exercises this option, all of Abercrombie's obligations under the Consent Decree shall cease to be of any force and effect, and the Consent Decree and any orders entered in connection therewith shall be vacated, rescinded, canceled, and annulled, and the parties shall

1 return to the status quo in the Consolidated Litigation as if the parties had not entered into the 2 Consent Decree. In addition, in such event, the Consent Decree and all negotiations, court orders
3 and proceedings relating thereto shall be without prejudice to the rights of any and all parties
4 hereto, and evidence relating to the Consent Decree and all negotiations shall not be admissible or 5 discoverable in the Consolidated Litigation or otherwise.

6 E. Claims Administration.

7 The Claims Administrator shall (1) prepare and mail settlement notices and claim forms to 8 class members; (2) establish and operate a website designed to provide information to and 9 communication with class members; (3) receive and evaluate claims eligibility; (4) seek 10 additional information from claimants, when appropriate; (5) receive and file opt-out statements 11 and objections; (6) respond to questions from potential class members; (7) implement the 12 allocation plan; and (8) maintain a toll-free number for communicating with class members; and 13 (9) any other duties necessary to carry out its responsibilities set forth in this Decree.

14 The Claims Administrator shall make claim forms available to potential class members
15 who submit oral, e-mail, or written requests for claim forms. The Claims Administrator shall 16 mail the requested claim form via first class postage within two (2) business days after receiving a
17 request. If Abercrombie, or its counsel, receives requests for claim forms or for information 18 regarding the class settlement, it shall refer such requestors to the toll-free number established by 19 the Claims Administrator for the purpose of administering this settlement. The requestors shall 20 be informed that any requests for claim forms or information should be directed to the Claims
21 Administrator. The Claims Administrator shall retain copies of all written requests for claim 22 forms and all records of oral or e-mail requests for claim forms until such time as it has 23 completed its duties and responsibilities under this Decree.

24 F. Submission of Claim Forms.

25 Class members who seek recovery of monetary compensation must complete a claim form
26 and cause it to be filed with the Claims Administrator by the claim filing deadline set forth in the 27 Preliminary Approval Order. The claim form must be postmarked on or before such date in order 28 to be considered timely. All claim forms must be signed under penalty of perjury to be

1 considered. Failure to file a timely claim form, for any reason whatsoever, shall bar the potential
2 class member from having his or her claim considered and from receiving monetary
3 compensation from the Settlement Fund Account. Class members who file a claim form must 4 notify the Claims Administrator of any change of address. A failure to notify the Claims
5 Administrator of a change of address may result in the forfeiture of a monetary award. The 6 Claims Administrator shall be available through the toll-free line and via e-mail through the 7 Claims Website to respond to requests from class members for assistance in completing and filing
8 claim forms. Lead Counsel shall also be available to consult with and provide assistance to 9 potential class members who request assistance in completing their claim forms.

10 G. Deceased Claimants.

11 Claims may be filed by deceased claimants through representatives of their estate if 12 appropriate documentation is provided. Any claims paid to a deceased claimant shall be made 13 payable to the estate of the deceased claimant.

14 H. Determining Eligibility.

15 The Claims Administrator shall make the determination as to whether a claim form is 16 complete. If it is not complete, the Claims Administrator shall request additional information
17 from the claimant, if it appears that such additional information would complete the Claim Form.
18 Such requests for information shall be in writing and shall specify the information necessary to 19 complete the claim form. The requests for information will be sent via first class mail and inform 20 the claimant that a response must be returned no later than thirty (30) days from the date the 21 request for information was mailed. The claimant must provide the requested information, signed
22 under penalty of perjury, to the Claims Administrator by mail with a postmark no later than thirty 23 (30) days from the date of the mailed request for information. Such additional information shall 24 be considered part of the original claim form and will relate back to the original filing date. The 25 failure of a claimant to timely respond to the request for information may result in the denial of 26 the claim.

1           I. Late-Filed Claims.

2           For claims received after the filing deadline, the Claims Administrator shall notify late-
3 filing claimants that their claims are untimely and that they are not eligible for any monetary
4 award. The Claims Administrator shall also inform late-filing claimants that they may seek a
5 review of the determination that they filed untimely by requesting the Claims Administrator to 6 reconsider its determination. The Claims Administrator may reverse its determination that a 7 claim was not timely filed only if the claimant proves that the claim form was filed on or before 8 the filing deadline and that the untimeliness determination is erroneous.

9           J. Appeals of Claims Eligibility.

10          Within ninety (90) days of the close of the claims filing period, all ineligible claimants
11 shall receive written notice of their ineligibility for monetary relief. Any claimants wishing to 12 seek review of their ineligibility determinations must do so by returning a written request for 13 review to the Claims Administrator by mail with a postmark no later than twenty-one (21) days
14 from the date of the notice of claim ineligibility. Failure to file a timely request for review shall 15 bar a claimant from challenging a determination of ineligibility.

16          The Claims Administrator shall resolve the requests for review based on the written 17 requests for review and any other documentation or written information submitted by the 18 claimant, or deemed necessary by the Claims Administrator. The Claims Administrator may seek 19 further written information from the claimant as to the basis of their request and may consider the 20 written arguments of Lead Counsel or Abercrombie.

21          The Claims Administrator shall attempt to expeditiously resolve any requests for review
22 within sixty (60) days after the filing of the request for review. The Claims Administrator's 23 decisions shall be communicated to the claimant in writing and shall be binding and non-24 appealable.

25           K. Claimant Information Provided by Abercrombie.

26          The parties understand and agree that Abercrombie may possess information that may 27 assist in the determination of eligibility of potential class members for monetary compensation.
28 Abercrombie shall reasonably cooperate in providing such information which Lead Counsel, the

1 EEOC or the Claims Administrator deems reasonably necessary to assist in determining the 2 eligibility of any class member for monetary relief. Abercrombie shall attempt to provide such 3 information within fourteen (14) days of any written requests for the information.

4 L. Allocation Plan.

5 Other than the Class Representatives whose monetary awards are separately determined, 6 the disbursement of the Settlement Fund Account to eligible class members shall follow the 7 allocation plan described in this section.

8 Each class member who seeks to receive an award must fill out the claim form and supply
9 information related to his or her claim. On the basis of a review of the information supplied, the 10 Claims Administrator shall allocate a certain number of points based upon specific factors related 11 to the claims. The specific factors include length of service with Abercrombie; discrimination 12 claims based on race, national origin or gender in promotion, assignment, hire or termination; any 13 personal injury, such as emotional distress, suffered as a result of the discrimination; and any time
14 or effort devoted to the litigation. The Claims Administrator shall total the points applicable to all 15 eligible claimants, determine each eligible claimant's proportionate share of the total points, and 16 allocate each eligible claimant's proportionate share of the Settlement Fund Account.

17 For example, if the amount available for distribution from the Settlement Fund Account to 18 eligible class members is $1,000,000.00, and the Claims Administrator has awarded 10,000 points
19 to eligible class members and if an eligible class member were awarded 10 points, then that class 20 member would receive an award of $1,000.00 since each point would be worth $100.00
21 ($1,000,000.00 ÷ 10,000).

22 M. Distribution of the Monetary Awards.

23 As soon as practicable after making the calculations required by the allocation plan set
24 forth in Section XVII.L, the Claims Administrator shall distribute the monetary awards to eligible
25 class members via first class mail. The Claims Administrator shall only issue the checks in the 26 name of the eligible class members unless Section XVII.F. is applicable. Included with the check 27 due to the eligible claimant will be a statement showing the gross amount of the payment and an 28 itemized statement of all deductions made. Flat rate deductions from gross amounts that are

1 determined to be wage payments will be made for federal and state income taxes, the employee's
2 share of social security and medicare tax, and any local income or payroll tax that applies. The 3 Claims Administrator will inform Abercrombie of the employer's share of all taxes or 4 contributions (i.e., matching social security and medicare tax) required to be paid by Abercrombie
5 and Abercrombie shall timely remit all such payments to the Claims Administrator for payment to 6 appropriate taxing authorities.

7 Any amounts designated as interest shall not be subject to withholding and shall be 8 reported, if required, to the IRS on Form 1099-INT. The amounts paid for emotional distress
9 shall not be subject to withholding and shall be reported to the IRS on Form 1099-MISC.

10 The Claims Administrator will be responsible for preparing and filing all appropriate tax 11 filings and reports (except for any unemployment compensation taxes that may be due, which will 12 be the sole responsibility of Abercrombie to calculate and pay), including, but not limited to, W-2 13 and 1099 forms for all eligible claimants and Class Representatives for their payments from the 14 Settlement Fund, as well as any required for the Settlement Fund. The Claims Administrator will 15 also be responsible for reporting and remitting to the appropriate taxing authorities the employer's 16 share of taxes or contributions required to be paid by Abercrombie in a timely manner after 17 receipt of the amount due for those payments from Abercrombie.

18 N. Allocation of Monetary Awards.

19 The monetary awards shall be allocated 15% to lost wages and 85% to compensatory 20 damages.

21 O. Cy Pres Fund.

22 It is the intention of the parties to completely distribute the funds in the Settlement Fund
23 Account. In the event that checks are returned and the Settlement Fund is not completely 24 distributed for any reason, the remaining sum shall become part of a cy pres fund to be distributed 25 to a non-profit organization or organizations designated by Lead Counsel that assist Minorities or 26 women to obtain equal employment opportunity .
27
28

1           P. Report from Claims Administrator.

2           Within thirty (30) days of the distribution of the monies from the Settlement Fund, the 3           Claims Administrator shall furnish an accounting of all distributions from the Settlement Fund to 4           the Court with copies to Lead Counsel, the EEOC and Abercrombie.

5           XVIII. ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS AND EXPENSES

6           A. Basis for Award of Fees, Costs and Expenses.

7           1.       The parties have agreed that it is appropriate as part of the settlement
8           underlying this Consent Decree for Abercrombie to pay to Class Counsel, on behalf of the Class
9           Representatives and the Settlement Class, reasonable attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and 10          costs in this case.

11          2.       The Company has agreed to pay Class Counsel an award of reasonable 12          attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and costs in the amount of $7,250,000.00 for work performed
13          and costs and expenses incurred through and including the Approval Date. Included in this 14          amount is approximately $400,000.00 for litigation costs and expenses incurred by Class Counsel.
15          This amount fully satisfies any arguable obligation the Company may have to pay attorneys' fees, 16          litigation expenses, and costs for and on behalf of the Plaintiffs, Class Representatives and the 17          Settlement Class for any and all work performed and costs and expenses incurred through and 18          including the Approval Date.

19          3.       The Company also has agreed to pay Class Counsel an amount of 20          reasonable attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and costs for work required to be performed by 21          Class Counsel after the Approval Date pursuant to this Decree. The Company agrees that Class
22          Counsel shall be paid such attorneys' fees, expenses and costs in the amount of $600,000.00 for 23          work performed and costs and expenses incurred after the Approval Date relating to defense of 24          the Decree, monitoring, administration and implementation, including, without limitation, 25          evaluating possible compliance with this Decree, including the retention of experts to assist in 26          such evaluation, and defense of the Decree. Except as provided in Section X.B.9 for appeals of 27          decisions of the Special Master, this amount satisfies any arguable obligation the Company may 28          have to pay attorneys' fees, expenses and costs to Class Counsel for any and all work performed

1 and costs and expenses incurred after the Approval Date of the Decree for the monitoring,
 2 administration, implementation and defense of the Decree.

3 4. Nothing herein shall be interpreted to preclude Abercrombie from seeking 4 attorneys' fees, expenses and costs incurred in litigating enforcement matters according to Title
 5 VII law applicable to a prevailing defendant under Section X.B.9. for appeals of decisions of the 6 Special Master.

7 B. Payment of Award.

8 1. Within fourteen (14) days following the Approval Date, Abercrombie shall 9 pay to Lief, Cabraser, Heimann & Bernstein, LLP one half (1/2) of the $7,250,000.00 or 10 $3,625,000.00, for litigation-related attorneys' fees, expenses and costs as set forth in Section
 11 XVIII.A.2. Abercrombie shall pay Lief, Cabraser, Heimann & Bernstein, LLP the remaining
 12 amount within fourteen (14) days following the Final Approval Date. Lief, Cabraser, Heimann
 13 & Bernstein, LLP shall have sole responsibility to distribute attorneys' fees, expenses and costs to 14 other Class Counsel, and if Abercrombie makes such payments to Lief, Cabraser, Heimann &
 15 Bernstein, LLP, no Class Counsel may assert any claim for such payments from Abercrombie. In 16 the event that Final Approval of the Decree is not attained, Lief, Cabraser, Heimann & Bernstein,
 17 LLP shall return to Abercrombie the initial payment of $3,625,000.00 within fifteen (15) days
 18 after the non-approval of the Decree becomes final.

19 2. The attorneys' fees, expenses and costs awarded and agreed to be paid by 20 the Company pursuant to Section XVIII.A.3. shall be paid to Lief, Cabraser, Heimann &
 21 Bernstein, LLP according to the following schedule:

Date	Amount
Thirty (30) days after the Approval Date	$150,000
March 15, 2006	$125,000
March 15, 2007	$100,000
March 15, 2008	$100,000
March 15, 2009	$ 75,000
March 15, 2010	$ 50,000

1 If the Decree is terminated prior to March 15, 2011 pursuant to Section VI.B., Abercrombie shall
2 pay to Lief, Cabraser, Heimann & Bernstein, LLP all attorneys' fees listed above that are unpaid
3 as of the date of the Decree is terminated. Such payment shall be made no later than fourteen
4 (14) days after the date the Decree is terminated.

EXHIBIT A

FULL AND FINAL GENERAL RELEASE OF CLAIMS

The undersigned _____ agrees to this Full and Final General Release of Claims (“Release”) as follows:

Section 1. Benefits

In consideration of and exchange for this Release, I will receive a payment in a liquidated amount approved by the Court pursuant to the Consent Decree in Gonzalez, et al. v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., et al.; EEOC v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., et al. and West, et al. v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., et al. (the “Consolidated Litigation”), less applicable withholdings and deductions, in settlement of my claims, and I will receive no other consideration, whether monetary or otherwise. I acknowledge that I will receive no cash payment unless and until I sign this Release.

Section 2. Complete Release

(a) Claims Released: I hereby fully, finally, irrevocably and unconditionally release and discharge Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., A&F California, LLC, A&F Ohio, Inc. and Abercrombie & Fitch Management Co. (collectively, “the Company”), its officers, directors, agents, employees, managers, insurers, attorneys, successors and assigns (the “Released Parties”) from any and all past and/or present claims, charges, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, damages, liabilities, assessments, judgments, costs, losses, debts, obligations and expenses, of any and every nature whatsoever, whether or not known, that I have had, now have, or may have from the beginning of time to [the preliminary approval date], including without limitation those arising in any way out of the alleged facts, circumstances and occurrences underlying those allegations of violations of Title VII, Section 1981 and the California FEHA that were asserted or might have been asserted by me or on my behalf in the Consolidated Litigation, or in any and all charges of discrimination filed against the Company and/or the Released Parties by me with the EEOC and/or DFEH. This Release does not include any workers’ compensation claims I may have. This Release is final and shall survive the expiration of the term of the Consent Decree in the Consolidated Litigation.

(b) Unknown Claims: I acknowledge that I may not now know fully the number or magnitude of the claims I may have, and that I may suffer some further loss or damage in some way connected with the subject matter of the Consolidated Litigation, but which is unknown or unanticipated at this time. I have taken these risks and possibilities into account and accept that, nevertheless, this Release covers all claims arising out of or related to the subject matter of the Consolidated Litigation, which, although unknown at the time of the execution of this Consent Decree, may be discovered later. I understand and assume these risks and expressly waive the provisions of California Civil Code § 1542, or any comparable federal or other state statute, which states:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

I expressly waive any right to assert hereafter that any claim was excluded from this Release through ignorance, oversight, or error. It is expressly understood and agreed that this waiver of Civil Code § 1542 and the release and waiver set forth in this Consent Decree are material terms of the agreement and were separately negotiated between the parties.

Section 3. Promises.

(a) Pursuit of Released Claims: Except for the Gonzalez or West Class Action, and any administrative charges filed with respect to the claims asserted therein, I represent and warrant that I have not filed or caused to be filed any lawsuit, complaint, or charge with respect to any Claim that I am releasing herein, and I promise never to file or prosecute a lawsuit, complaint, or charge based on such Claims. I promise never to seek any damages, remedies, or other relief for myself personally (any right to which I hereby waive) by filing or prosecuting a charge with any administrative agency with respect to any such Claim. I promise to request any administrative agency or other body that assumes jurisdiction of any such lawsuit, complaint, or charge to withdraw from the matter or dismiss the matter with prejudice.

(b) Taxes: I acknowledge I am solely responsible for paying any federal, state or local income taxes on amounts I receive because I signed this Release, as well as the employee's share of F.I.C.A., and will hold the Company harmless with respect to any claims related to the aforementioned tax treatment of the amount paid to me.

(c) Ownership of Claims: I represent and warrant that I have not assigned or transferred any Claim I am purporting to release, nor have I attempted to do so.

(d) Nonadmission of Liability: I agree that neither this Release nor the payment of money to me or to the Class pursuant to the Decree is an admission of guilty or wrongdoing by any of the Released Parties. I acknowledge that the Released Parties do not believe or admit that any of them has done anything wrong, such being expressly denied by all of them.

Section 4. Consideration of Release

I acknowledge that, before signing this Release, I was given a period of at least twenty-one days in which to consider it. I further acknowledge that: (1) I took advantage of as much of this period to consider this Release as I desired before signing it; (2) I carefully read this Release; (3) I fully understand it; (4) I am entering into it voluntarily; (5) I am receiving valuable consideration in exchange for my execution of this Release that I would not otherwise be entitled to receive; and (6) the Company, in writing, encouraged me to discuss this Release with my attorney (at my own expense) before signing it, and that I did so to the full extent I deemed appropriate. I understand that I have seven days within which to cancel this Release after I have executed it and must do so by delivery of an executed written revocation to Mark A. Knueve, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, 52 East Gay Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215, within the seven-day period.

Section 5. Miscellaneous

(a) Entire Agreement: This Release may not be modified in any manner, nor may any provision of it or any legal remedy with respect to it be waived, except by a writing signed by both me and an authorized Company attorney. I acknowledge that the Company has made no representations or promises to me, other than those in or referred to by this Release. If any provision in this Release is found to be unenforceable, all other provisions will remain fully enforceable.

(b) This Release binds my heirs, administrators, representatives, executors, successors, and assigns.

Section 6. Interpretation

This Release shall be construed as a whole according to its fair meaning. Unless the context indicates otherwise, the term "or" shall be deemed to include the term "and" and the singular or plural number shall be deemed to include the other. Except to the extent governed by federal law, this Release shall be governed by the statutes and common law of the State of California (excluding any that mandate the use of another jurisdiction's laws).

Executed at _____, _____, this _____ day of _____, 2004.

EXHIBIT B

NOTICE TO ALL ABERCROMBIE EMPLOYEES AND APPLICANTS RE SETTLEMENT OF DISCRIMINATION LAWSUIT

This Notice is being posted pursuant to a Consent Decree entered by the federal court resolving the consolidated class action litigation brought against Abercrombie & Fitch by private plaintiffs and the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) Case Nos. 03-2817 SI, 04-4730, and 04-4731 (N.D. CA).

In the lawsuits, the plaintiffs asserted that Abercrombie violated Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, by discriminating against African Americans, Asian Americans, Latinos, females, and females of each of the foregoing minority groups on the basis of race, color, national origin and/or gender in recruitment, hiring, promotion and terms and conditions of employment.

Abercrombie has voluntarily entered into this Decree because the actions it has agreed to undertake demonstrate its strong commitment to diversity and equal employment opportunity.

Abercrombie believes that it has not engaged in any policy or pattern or practice of unlawful discrimination, and that it has not engaged in any other unlawful conduct as alleged in the consolidated litigation. Abercrombie has agreed to:

- 1) not discriminate against African Americans, Latinos, Asian Americans, women or women of any of the foregoing minority groups on the basis of race, color, national origin and/or gender in recruitment, hiring, promotion or terms and conditions of employment;
- 2) not retaliate against any person because she or he opposed discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, or gender, filed a charge of discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, or gender, or asserted any rights under the Consent Decree; and
- 3) hire a Monitor to ensure Abercrombie's compliance with the terms of the Consent Decree.

Abercrombie's policy and federal law prohibit discrimination in employment on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, national origin, disability, and age. If you believe you have been discriminated against by Abercrombie, you may utilize the Internal Complaint Procedure published in the Associate Handbook by contacting your manager or the Human Resources Department at 614/283-5548. You may also contact the Monitor, [name], at [email address] or by calling _____ and/or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) at [email address] or by calling _____. The EEOC is the federal agency that enforces the federal laws prohibiting discrimination in employment on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, national origin, disability, and age.

This is an Official Notice and must not be defaced or covered. This Notice shall remain posted until _____. If you have any questions about this Notice contact the Monitor or the EEOC at the numbers listed above.

LEGAL NOTICE

If you are African American, Asian American or Latino, or a woman of any race and applied at or were ever employed by Abercrombie & Fitch, Hollister, or abercrombie stores, the settlement of a class action lawsuit may affect your rights. You may be eligible for part of a cash settlement.

The lawsuit is called Gonzalez et al. v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc. et al., No. 03-2817 SI, and is in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California. It alleges that Abercrombie and its related companies (A&F) discriminated against Women and Minorities. The Court decided this lawsuit could proceed as a class action.

You are affected if you are African American, Asian American, or Latino, or a woman of any race, and applied for any store position or were ever employed by Abercrombie & Fitch, Hollister, or abercrombie stores between February 24, 1999 through xxxxxx. A&F will pay attorneys fees associated with this settlement.

or call: (866) 854-4175.

What is this Case About?

The people who filed this lawsuit claimed that A & F discriminated against Women and Minorities in four main areas: (1) hiring, (2) assignment to positions not on the sales floor, (3) promotions, and/or (4) termination or hours reduction. A & F denies the allegations but has decided to settle the case to avoid further litigation.

What are Your Options?

You must decide now whether to stay in the class or not. If you stay in the class you may make a claim for money (you will NOT receive any money unless you file a claim by DATE); you may object to the settlement in writing (postmarked by DATE). If you do nothing you will receive NO money and will NOT be able to file your own lawsuit related to alleged employment discrimination at A & F. You may also request to be excluded or "opt-out" of the Class. To do so, you must submit a request in writing by DATE. If you do so, you may file your own lawsuit but you will not be able to collect any money from the class action.

THIS IS A NOTICE OF A PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT
FROM THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

TO: ALL WOMEN AND ALL AFRICAN AMERICANS, ASIAN AMERICANS OR LATINOS WHO: (1) APPLIED FOR EMPLOYMENT OR MANAGEMENT (OR ATTEMPTED TO DO SO AND WERE DISCOURAGED), OR (2) WERE EMPLOYED AT AN ABERCROMBIE & FITCH STORE (INCLUDING ABERCROMBIE KIDS AND HOLLISTER STORES) AT ANY TIME BETWEEN FEBRUARY 24, 1999 AND [PRELIM. APPROVAL DATE]

This Notice is being sent to you, as ordered by the Court, to advise you of the preliminary approval of the settlement of an employment discrimination class action against Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc. ("A&F" or "Abercrombie") and its related companies.

1. Summary of Litigation. The Plaintiffs (i.e., the people who filed this lawsuit) claimed that A&F discriminated against Minorities and Women in four main respects: (1) by not hiring them, (2) by disproportionately assigning those Minorities and Women who were hired to positions, such as in the stock room, that are not on the sales floor, (3) by not promoting in a fair manner those Minorities and Women who were hired, and/or (4) by terminating or unfairly reducing the hours worked by Minorities and Women.

If you are a Class member, you must now decide what action you will take in response to the proposed settlement of the class action. If you remain in the Class, then you have three options (as summarized below). If you request to be excluded from the Class (also called "opting out"), then you may file your own lawsuit but you will have to represent yourself or hire your own attorney.

STAY IN CLASS: (and you have 3 options)	1. Make a claim for money (You will not receive any money unless you do so by ____)
	2. Object to the Settlement (You may only do so in writing by _____)
	3. Do Nothing (You will receive no money and will not be able to file your own lawsuit related to allegedly discriminatory hiring practices at Abercrombie)
"OPT-OUT"	To do so, you must submit a request for exclusion in writing by _____. If you do so, you may file your own lawsuit but you will not be able to collect any money from the class action.

2. Litigation Background. In 2001, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) concluded that the way in which A&F hired employees discriminated against Minorities. Abercrombie did not accept the accuracy of this EEOC determination. In June 2003,

Eduardo Gonzalez and several others filed a class action lawsuit in a Federal Court in Northern California, alleging that Abercrombie discriminated against Minorities. They amended their Complaint several times in order to include different types of legal claims. For example, approximately one year after filing their original Complaint, the Plaintiffs alleged that Abercrombie discriminated against Women as well as Minorities. In order to become more familiar with Abercrombie's Human Resources practices, the Plaintiffs obtained and analyzed thousands of pages of A&F documents, and took testimony from key Abercrombie managers. At the same time, Plaintiffs obtained a large number of statements from people who had either worked for Abercrombie in hourly positions or attempted to do so. Both sides then produced reports from experts who reached different conclusions about whether Abercrombie's practices discriminatorily injured Minorities and Women.

After exchanging large amounts of information, the parties began a mediation process. Numerous meetings took place between April and October of 2004. Mediation enabled the parties to better understand each other's positions and, ultimately, to reach an agreement to settle and resolve the original Gonzalez action (filed on behalf of Minorities) as well as the West action (filed on November 8, 2004 on behalf of Women) and the related lawsuit filed by the EEOC.

3. Summary of Employment Practices Affected by the Proposed Settlement With A&F. A&F will agree to be bound by a Consent Decree that will obligate it to implement a number of steps that affect the way it hires, trains, and promotes its in-store employees. The overall objective of this Decree, which is a type of court order, is to ensure equal employment opportunities for African Americans, Asian Americans, Latinos, and Women who apply to, and work in, Abercrombie stores. In order to do so, A&F has agreed to many steps, including all of the following:

- (a) A&F will not retaliate in any way against the employees (or former employees) who sued it.
- (b) A&F has created an Office of Diversity and hired a Diversity Vice-President who will be responsible for monitoring A&F's progress toward fair employment practices.
- (c) A&F will provide training to its managers about this litigation and the Consent Decree that resolved it, as well as about legal prohibitions against employment discrimination.
- (d) A&F's internal complaint procedure will provide for the prompt, full and confidential investigation of any complaints of employment discrimination.
- (e) A&F will include as measures of its managers' performance an assessment of their compliance with Abercrombie's EEO policies and their attainment and management of diversity in the workplace and will consider these evaluations in how Abercrombie compensates its managers.
- (f) A&F has hired an industrial organizational psychologist who will develop written requirements for each store position. Abercrombie has stopped using, and will continue to not use, certain hiring criteria, such as enrollment in certain colleges or participation in certain college activities.

(g) A&F will use its best efforts to promote Women and Minorities to managerial positions in proportion to the numbers of such individuals who are available to be promoted.

(h) A&F will hire ten full-time diversity recruiters who will be based in large cities and will be charged with recruiting Women and Minorities into in-stores position. In a year, fifteen additional diversity recruiters will be hired. Abercrombie will also advertise its in-store employment opportunities in periodicals or other media that target Minorities of both genders.

(i) A&F shall use its best efforts to reach the hiring goals (called "benchmarks") that are set forth in the Consent Decree. In doing so, Abercrombie shall not be required to hire anyone who is unqualified or to fire anyone who is working well. These benchmarks increase as time goes on, and will eventually be replaced by goals that are based on the proportions of applications that Abercrombie receives from Women and Minorities.

(j) A&F will reflect diversity in its marketing materials.

(k) Throughout the term of the Consent Decree (4½ - 6 years), A&F will provide semi-annual progress reports to a Monitor chosen by the parties, as well as to Lead Counsel for the Plaintiffs and the EEOC. These reports shall describe, among other things, whether Abercrombie is satisfying its employment goals and, if there is a shortfall, will analyze possible reasons for the shortfall.

(l) A&F will pay all of the fees and expenses of the Special Master (an experienced lawyer who previously served as the parties' Mediator) who is authorized to resolve any disputes under the Consent Decree.

4. Money Being Paid by A&F. In addition to the steps described above, Abercrombie has agreed to pay $40 million to members of the Class who make a claim for past discrimination. In addition, Abercrombie has agreed to pay Plaintiffs' counsel $7.85 million in fees and expenses for legal services to date plus fees for monitoring this Decree for the next six years. This means that Class members will not have to pay anything to the lawyers.

5. How to Make A Claim for Money. If you are a Class member, then you may be eligible to receive money from this settlement. You may only receive money if you submit a written claim form, signed under oath, and postmarked no later than _____, 2005. Those claim forms that are submitted on time will be evaluated by a Claims Administrator. Money awards to most members of the Class are expected to vary between several hundred to several thousand dollars. Class members who submitted sworn statements in support of Plaintiffs' claims will receive an additional sum designed to compensate them for the time needed to complete their declarations. The Class Representatives and persons who filed charges of discrimination with the EEOC will receive a liquidated award, which varies between $5,000 and $39,000, averaging $15,500 per individual, to compensate them for their time and the risks involved in filing a lawsuit or charge against Abercrombie, and because they have released all potential claims against Abercrombie.

6. Class Membership. If you are a woman or an African American, Asian American or Latino, who worked at Abercrombie, applied to work at Abercrombie, or attempted to do so since February 24, 1999, then you are a member of the Class. With regard to the steps

Abercrombie must take as described in ¶ 3 above, you will remain a member of the Class. Conversely, insofar as the money claims described in ¶¶ 4 & 5 above, then you have an important decision to make. More specifically, you must decide whether to remain in the Class (for money purposes) or to exclude yourself (or “opt-out” of the Class). If you remain in the Class, you may be eligible to receive money but ONLY if you submit a proper claim form on time. If you opt-out of the Class, then you may be entitled to file your own lawsuit against A&F but you will not be able to make a claim for money as a part of this class-action lawsuit. If you do nothing; then you will remain a part of the Class. However, even as a Class member, you will receive no money unless you affirmatively submit a claim form.

A Claim Form is included with this Notice. If you think you are entitled to a share of the monetary award, you must file this claim form. A document entitled “Explanation of the Claims Procedure” is also included with this Notice in order to provide guidance in how you should fill out the claim form.

7. Why Would I “Opt-out” or Ask to Be Excluded? If you already have your own discrimination lawsuit against A&F and want to continue with it, you need to ask to be excluded from the Class. If you exclude yourself from the Class, you won’t get any money from this class-action lawsuit even if the proposed settlement is approved. However, you may then be able to sue or continue to sue A&F for employment discrimination that occurred or occurs at any time. If you exclude yourself, you will not be legally bound by the Court’s judgments in this class action.

If you start your own lawsuit against A&F after you exclude yourself, you’ll have to represent yourself or hire and pay your own lawyer for that lawsuit, and you’ll have to prove your claims. If you do exclude yourself so you can start or continue a lawsuit against A&F, you should talk to your own lawyer soon, because your claims may be subject to a time deadline (statute of limitations).

Note that if you exclude yourself from this lawsuit and you are currently employed by A&F, any changes made to A&F’s policies about the treatment of Women and Minorities would still apply to you.

8. How Do I Ask the Court to Exclude Me from the Class? To ask to be excluded, you must send a request for exclusion that contains the following language:

“I understand that I am requesting to be excluded from the class monetary settlement and that I will receive no money from the settlement fund created under the Consent Decree entered into by Abercrombie. I understand that if I am excluded from the class monetary settlement, I may bring a separate legal action seeking damages, but may receive nothing or less than what I would have received if I had filed a claim under the class monetary settlement procedure in this case. I also understand that I may not seek exclusion from the class for injunctive relief and that I am bound by the injunctive provisions of the Consent Decree entered into by Abercrombie.”

You must mail your request for exclusion postmarked by _____, 2005 to 9. The Settlement Process. Every class action settlement must be approved by the court that presided over the class-action lawsuit. Thus far, Judge Susan Illston has only decided that the proposed settlement may be fair and, therefore, justifies the distribution of this Notice. In order to decide whether to give final approval to the proposed settlement, Judge Illston will consider related papers and comments submitted by the parties or others and hold a hearing in open court. You may submit any objections to the proposed settlement in writing. For any such written objections to be considered, they must be mailed postmarked by _____, 2005.

Gonzalez v. Abercrombie Claims Administrator

Tallahassee, FL 32302-2564

Please do not send any comments directly to the Court or attempt to reach Judge Illston in person. You may, however, review a copy of the Consent Decree at the Clerk's Office at the Federal Courthouse at 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94102 or at [on-line site].

10. Final Fairness Hearing. A Final Fairness Hearing will be held on _____, 2005 at 10:00 a.m., in the Courtroom of Judge Susan Illston [U.S. District Court, Northern District of California, San Francisco/Oakland Division, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, Courtroom 10, 19th Floor, San Francisco, CA 94102]. You may attend this hearing. Further, any person who has filed a written objection to the Settlement, may speak at the Final Fairness Hearing. If you seek to present any evidence or appear through a lawyer at the final fairness hearing, you must state your intention to do so in writing (sent to the post office box identified above) on or before _____.

GONZALEZ V. ABERCROMBIE & FITCH

EXPLANATION OF CLAIMS PROCEDURE

To: African Americans, Asian Americans, Latinos and Women who applied or attempted to apply for an in-store non-management or management position at Abercrombie & Fitch, Hollister and/or abercrombie ("Abercrombie") at any time between February 24, 1999 to [the preliminary approval date], and were not offered that position, or who worked at any time in an Abercrombie, Hollister or abercrombie store for any period between February 24, 1999 and [the preliminary approval date].

A. Description of Settlement.

The Court has preliminarily approved the settlement of the consolidated lawsuits Gonzalez v. Abercrombie & Fitch, West v. Abercrombie & Fitch, and EEOC v. Abercrombie & Fitch, involving claims of racial, national origin, and gender discrimination in employment at stores operated by Abercrombie & Fitch, including all stores under the names of Abercrombie & Fitch, Hollister, or abercrombie. The settlement provides for changes in Abercrombie's employment practices and creates a settlement fund to pay appropriately supported claims of discrimination. If you applied or attempted to apply for a job in an Abercrombie retail store or if you are a current or former employee in an Abercrombie store, you may be entitled to a monetary payment from the settlement fund.

This Explanation sheet explains the claim procedure and the steps that you need to take in order to qualify to receive a share of the settlement fund. Read this Explanation carefully. The information contained on this Explanation sheet may affect your rights.

B. Eligibility to Receive a Monetary Payment.

To qualify for any payment from the settlement fund, you must:

1. Be an African American, Asian American, Latino or woman who applied or attempted to apply for an in-store associate or management position at Abercrombie at any time between February 24, 1999 to [the preliminary approval date], and was not offered a position, or was not offered the position for which you applied or attempted to apply, or who worked at any time in an Abercrombie store for any period between February 24, 1999 and [the preliminary approval date].
2. Return a completed Claim Form signed under penalty of perjury postmarked no later than _____. A Claim Form is enclosed with this Explanation.
3. Have your claim determined to be adequately supported as defined by the terms of the settlement.

C. Determination of the Value of Your Claim.

The amount that you may be entitled to receive from the settlement will be determined by a Claims Administrator appointed by the Court. The Claims Administrator shall determine the amount based upon the allocation of points for specific factors related to your claim. The specific factors include length of service with Abercrombie, discrimination on the basis of your race, national origin or gender in promotion, assignment, hire or termination, any emotional or physical effects that you may have suffered as a result of the discrimination, and the time and effort you may have devoted to the litigation. The Claims Administrator shall total the points applicable to all qualified claimants, determine each qualified claimant's proportionate share of the total points, and allocate each qualified claimant's proportionate share of the settlement fund.

D. Objections and Appeals.

The Claims Administrator will notify you of its determination as to whether your claim is rejected. If your claim is rejected you will have the right to appeal the determination to the Claims Administrator. The claims procedure has been approved by the Court and may not be challenged.

E. Payment of Claims.

Checks for payment of claims will be mailed to all qualified claimants following the determination of all claims and resolution of all appeals.

F. Change of Address

It is important that you notify the Claims Administrator in writing of any changes of your address. A failure to notify the Claims Administrator of a change of address may result in you not receiving your award. Change of address should be mailed to:
