ORDER

Attached as an Exhibit to this Order is a copy of a letter sent yesterday to Plaintiffs' counsel.

The significance of this letter is, I believe, evident on its face.

This case is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. If Plaintiffs choose to refile the case, the complaint must be accompanied by a brief which addresses each point in Defendants' Motions to Dismiss -- and this brief can address any other point deemed important by Plaintiffs.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 30TH day of August 2007.

RE: Winstead v. Stodola et al. 4:07CV00682

Dear Gentlemen:

Since you did not file a brief day before yesterday, the deadline, I assume that you concede the merit of Defendants' Motion to Dismiss.

If my assumption is incorrect, your brief must be filed by noon tomorrow, Thursday, August 30, 2007.

Cordially,

Wm. R. Wilson, Jr.
