ORDER

On this date came on for consideration by the Court defendant's motions to compel arbitration and to stay the instant proceedings pending arbitration. Also before the Court are numerous responses, replies, and letter briefs regarding these issues. Upon consideration of same in conjunction with pertinent case authorities, the Court is of the opinion that plaintiff and intervenor McGraw should be required to arbitrate their claims pursuant to the arbitration agreement entered into by the defendant and the intervenor. Likewise, similarly situated former employees of the defendant should arbitrate their claims pursuant to the arbitration agreements incorporated into their employment agreements, if indeed, said individuals signed such agreements. Plaintiff's authority to seek injunctive relief shall be venerated by consideration of
