I guess nobody in the city was killed the day they decided to pick on the officer for expressing his 1st amendment rights. World is full of hypocrites. Like how the department hires a rap thug who previously sued the city.

This guy isn't going to do shit. I saw him one day getting off the subway in center city Philadelphia. As he got off I looked him in his eyes and said "uh oh, watch out, he's going to kill some white people"! He looked at me and kept walking. He's a skinny, little, loudmouth punk. Nothing more.

This game that these teenagers are playing is gaining a lot of negative spotlight.. these men on this show in NY are so right!..I don't care who you are, what you do or don't have, there is right and wrong...these cowards are doing wrong and catching people not looking at attacking them! I would go insane if this was done to my wife, just as you see in the video where a woman is knocked out from behind...absolutely animals

What I do see is how Islam has been perverted and not many followers of Islam are trying to fix it.

I copied this from someone else and every word is true....Can a Muslim be a good American? This question was forwarded to a friend who worked in Saudi Arabia for 20 years. The following is his reply:

Theologically - no, because his allegiance is to Allah.

Religiously - no, because no other religion is accepted by His Allah except Islam (Qur'an 2:256).

Scripturally - no, because his allegiance is to the five Pillars of Islam and the Qur'an.

Geographically - no, because his allegiance is to Mecca, to which he turns in prayer five times a day.

Socially - no, because his allegiance to Islam forbids him to make friends with Christians or Jews.

Politically - no, because he must submit to the mullahs (spiritual leaders) who teach the annihilation of Israel and the destruction of America, the great Satan.

Domestically - no, because he is instructed to marry four Women and beat his wife when she disobeys him (Qur'an 4:34).

Intellectually - no, because he cannot accept the American Constitution since it is based on Biblical principles and he believes the Bible to be corrupt.

Philosophically - no, because Islam, Muhammad, and the Qur'an does not allow freedom of religion and expression. Democracy and Islam cannot co-exist! Every Muslim government is either dictatorial or autocratic.

Spiritually - no, because when we declare 'one nation under God,' we are referring to the Christian's God and not Allah.

Therefore, after much study and deliberation, perhaps we should be very suspicious of ALL MUSLIMS in this country. They obviously cannot be both 'good' Muslims and good Americans/Canadians; they cannot and will not integrate into the great melting pot of America.

The religious war is bigger than we know or understand. Muslims everywhere have said they will destroy us from within.

And it appears to be starting.

This is sad. As a Christian, a follower of Jesus Christ & not a fan, we can not condemn those who do not believe in our faith. We must continue to pray for their deliverance. Our focus continues to be on doing what Jesus teaches us to do.

No. He wrote black power etc. It would have to be a threat to kill white, cops, Jews.

What in the hell is going on in our state? The 16 year old who ran over and murdered a Baltimore County Police Officer on Monday was AWOL from house arrest at the time after being charged FOUR times in FIVE months for car theft.

Dawnta Harris had no business being out on the streets. Our system is broken, and now a police officer is dead. And we hear crickets from Attorney General Brian Frosh and legislative leaders who've worked harder to protect criminals than ensure a safer Maryland for the rest of us.

 By the way, isn't there a law in Pennsylvania that if you assault a Teacher it's a felony? And if it didn't happen here it's still an assault. I would give my left nut to assault that dirt bag.

 Agreed. The union is supposed to protect the teacher and file suit. Teachers can file civil suits against students. Some districts grant paid time off to the teacher

  People often criticize police officers for their " reactions " to being assaulted by a person breaking whatever laws that has been broken being the reason the police were dispatched to that location in the first place but never have criticism of that person whom is the reason the police were there for in the first place. A perpetrator of a violent act again an officer should not be expecting a favorable outcome, what you may sometimes call excessive force is sometimes called an officer's matter of surviving an attack

  I still don't see how burning a piece of cloth that people feel doesn't represent them anymore and the actual assault and degradation trump has spouted throughout this entire campaign? But if you feel that people burning a flag is the same as actual physical assault then we really don't have anything in common after all. I don't equate the 2 things as being comparable.

What's more upsetting is my family in blue disrespected by a POS that does not comply. People think things look bad when they have never tried to cuff someone that does not want to be cuffed! I've seen it take 8 people once for a girl!

Is this real?
Like 2y

No Sure, it's not real at all. If you look at the link in the video, you'll plainly see that it's not at ALL as is being described. And I didn't see ANYONE dressed nearly as fiercely as the gentleman in the mohawk accompanying the article. I looked... twice. Maybe three times. What can I say? I've been a Man Max fan since the 70's.

Take a look at THIS video, which is footage of the protest in question, and see if YOU can spot any of the behavior described in the drooling account that Tom linked. No? That's because the description linked above, is the fever dream of a slack-jawed yokel, and not a unbiased view of what happened on the scene.

Look for yourself, in the link below. Is that what you imagined when you read the article? No? Because, that's NOT how it happened.

THIS is what went down. No eggs, no faces, no bibles. (Some Pepper Spray)

Tom Young I see what they done to our department since we started and could cry. We can't even clear a corner of drug dealers without calling for a supervisor, how are they going to address shootings. All the thug has to do is complain that the cop looked at him sternly or god forbid talked harshly and there's a major investigation.

Laszlo Zsazados That is what I call the tragedy in American policing, it is headed terrible wrong way, because is lead by the wrong people. The damage will be irreparable in the future. It is devastating.

5y

Tom Young You're right the political hacks have taken over and the thugs know it. We are a shadow of our former selves. At one time for better or worse the bad guys were afraid of us. Now they know the pendulum has swung in their direction and because of politics we are rendered completely ineffectual
