Plaintiff

v.

BARBARA CEGAVSKE, etc. et al.

SPECIAL REQUEST

Defendant

AFFIDAVIT:

J. Michael Schaefer declares under penalty of perjury as follows:

1. He is age 78.5 and this week suffering a headache, which by itself is irrelevant.
2. However, in past 10 days his urologist, Stephen B. Kurtz, MD has found a 'cyst' on his kidney that is "interdeterminate", not known to be cancerous or benign, his 15 year Internest, Loring Jacobs, MD, has found a "tumor" which alarms him enough to send me quickly to Dr. Kurtz and then immediately to see him(9-20-16), and expanded blood glucose tests by Brian Berkowitz, MD, his endochronologist; this week was filed with C-Scans and MRI's. Affiant has diabetes, elevated blood glucose and cholestoral, and 2015 cataract surgery, both eyes.
3. Affiant wonders if he is falling apart, if he will live to see the conclusion of this civil matter, he fears leaving his two sons unresolved litigation they could not afford to deal with. He wishes to seek summary adjudication on legal issues.
4. This is the attack on use of alphabet for listing ballot times, a procedure that has been found a denial of Equal Protection by the California courts and the Legislature. It has a substantial impact on who gets elected in all low-level governmental voting.

5. The statute below is not federal law, but is in the 9th Circuit and plaintiff submits reflects common sense, sound public policy, and plaintiff urges its acceptance.

Executed September 18, 2016 at Las Vegas, NV.
J. MICHAEL SCHAEFER
