

EEOC v. Petco Animal Supplies, Inc. - This EPA/Title VII action alleged that defendant failed to pay female store managers at wage rates equal to similarly situated male store managers. The case was resolved through a consent decree providing a total of $41,024 (half back pay and half liquidated damages) to five individuals, and attorneys' fees to charging party. Defendant also agreed to revise its compensation criteria to include more objective factors.