DECLARATION OF Kelly Lippman

I, Kelly Lippman, hereby declare as follows:

- 1. I am over the age of 18, make this declaration from my personal knowledge and, if called upon to do so, could and would competently testify to the matters set forth herein in a court of law.
- 2. I am a proposed intervenor-defendant in the case Hoge v. Padilla, No. 2:19-cv-01985.
 - 3. I am thirty-years old, a resident of California, and a United States citizen.
- 4. I am a teacher at the Girls Academic Leadership Academy, an all-girls high school within the Los Angeles United School District.
- 5. I have been teaching in the United States for the past five years and plan to stay in California for the foreseeable future.
- 6. I teach eleventh grade Advanced Placement United States History and tenth grade World History.
- 7. Many of my students are sixteen and seventeen years old and plan to obtain their California driver's license and be registered to vote.
- 8. I have used my position as a teacher to encourage my students, regardless of ideology, to be civically active.
 - 9. I routinely talk to my students about registering to vote and voting.
- 10. I do not register my students to vote, but I encourage them to use the New Motor Voter law when they obtain their California driver's license.
- 11. My students have been effective at registering to vote, when otherwise many would not, by utilizing the DMV procedure.
- 12. I fear that elimination of the New Motor Voter law or material changes to the voter registration program will inhibit my students from registering to vote.
