MOTION TO ENFORCE COURT ORDER

COMES NOW, Defendants, by and through their attorney of record, and files this their Motion to Enforce Court Order in the above styled and numbered cause and would show unto the Court the following to-wit:

(1) On or about April 8, 2013, Plaintiff filed a Motion for a Preliminary Injunction in this matter and a hearing was conducted on April 29, 2013, which resulted in an Order and Judgment dismissing the case with prejudice and sanctioning Plaintiff to pay $5,000.00 to the Defendants, along with $350.00 for costs to the Court (a copy of this Order is attached hereto as Ex. “A”).

(2) The District Court entered its Order on April 30, 2013, and thereafter on May 1, 2013, entered its Judgment dismissing the matter with prejudice. Plaintiff filed a motion and supplement to motion for reconsideration, both of which were denied by this Court.

(3) Plaintiff then appealed the decision of the District Court to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals and filed his Brief on or about January 15, 2014. The Fifth Court of Appeals determined that Plaintiff failed to show that he intends to raise on appeal “legal points [that are] arguable on their merits,” and the motion was denied and appeal was dismissed as frivolous.

(4) The Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals filed their Judgment dismissing the appeal on June 30, 2014, and it was issued as a Mandate on July 22, 2014 (a copy of Judgment/Mandate is attached hereto as Ex. “B”).

(5) The District Court as a result of this Mandate now has full jurisdiction of this matter and should require Plaintiff to pay the sanctions previously ordered by this Honorable Court within ten (10) days of this Court’s next Order.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Defendants pray that this Honorable Court will issue an Order granting their Motion to Enforce the Court’s Order and would cause Plaintiff to pay the fines due and owing per the previous District Court Order dated April 30, 2013, to the Defendants. Defendants further pray for any other relief that may be deemed as reasonable and necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

JACQUELINE “CHIP EVANS, JACQUELINE
DARBY, BELINDA LASSITER, BARBARA
BRUMFIELD-PRUITT, and CHARLOTTE
