

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF OREGON

CM/ECF APPLICATION FORM
SELF-REPRESENTED PARTY

Case Name: Wong et al, vs. Fagan et al

Case Number: 3:22-1714

As a self-represented party, non-prisoner, you may apply for a user account, which will allow you to file documents electronically with the Court through CM/ECF and PACER and receive electronic service via e-mail from CM/ECF when documents are filed in your case. Applying to e-file constitutes consent to electronic service of documents. By checking the appropriate box on page 2 of this application form, you may opt out of receiving electronic service if your application is denied.

ANY REQUEST FOR E-FILING PRIVILEGES MUST BE APPROVED BY THE COURT. You will be notified by e-mail whether your application is granted.

If this application is approved by the Court, you will be a Registered User pursuant to Local Rule 5-1(a)(2) and are required to abide by the requirements and conditions for CM/ECF and PACER as explained on the following pages. Approval to e-file or receive service electronically may be discontinued by the Court at any time.

IMPORTANT

DO NOT apply if:

- You are in prison. E-filing for self-represented parties is available only to non-prisoners. If you become incarcerated during the pendency of your case, any approval to e-file or receive service electronically through CM/ECF will be discontinued.
- You are unable or unwilling to abide by any of the applicable requirements.

Information about electronic filing is available on the Court's website at ord.uscourts.gov, and you may call the Clerk's Office for assistance with questions about this application (Portland: 503-326-8000; Eugene: 541-431-4100; Medford: 541-608-8777).

Note: Clerk's Office staff are prohibited from giving any legal advice regarding your case.
