ORDER

First, to be clear and to reaffirm the Court's Orders, the Temporary Restraining Order ("TRO") permits the Defendants to limit access to federal funds "on the basis of the applicable authorizing statutes, regulations, and terms." ECF No. 50 at 12. The February 10, 2025 Order (ECF No. 96) does not "bar both the President and much of the Federal Government from exercising their own lawful authorities to withhold funding without the prior approval of the district court." ECF No. 102 at 2. Neither the TRO (ECF No. 50), nor the Court's subsequent Order (ECF No. 96) require the Defendants to seek "preclearance" from the Court before acting to terminate funding when that decision is based on actual authority in the applicable statutory, regulatory, or grant terms.

Second, the Court will act with alacrity in issuing an Order on the Defendants' Motion to Stay (ECF No. 100).

Third, the Defendants have filed two additional motions relating to the TRO: the "Emergency Motion Requesting Ruling by 11 a.m. on February 12 for Permission to Continue Withholding [Federal Emergency Management Agency ("FEMA")] and Other Funding" (ECF No. 102) and the "Supplemental Motion Requesting Permission to Continue Payment Review Processes" (ECF No. 103). As to FEMA funds to New York City, the Defendants represent that they intend to provide "notice to New York City regarding the funding pause and will provide the information and process required by regulation and the terms and conditions of the award." ECF No. 102-1 at ¶ 13. Because the Defendants are seeking to terminate funding "on the basis" of the applicable authorizing statutes, regulations, and terms," ECF No. 50 at 12 (emphasis added), the Court sees no need for further clarification. Finally, nothing in the TRO prevents the Defendants from continuing to use routine processes that the Payment Management Services (PMS) asserts it has used "for decades," ECF No. 103-1 at ¶ 4, before the Defendants imposed the categorical funding freeze that is the subject of the TRO.

Therefore, the Court REAFFIRMS the TRO, DENIES the Defendants' "Emergency Motion Requesting Ruling by 11 a.m. on February 12 for Permission to Continue Withholding FEMA and Other Funding" (ECF No. 102) and DENIES as moot the Defendants' "Supplemental Motion Requesting Permission to Continue Payment Review Processes" (ECF No. 103).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
