[PROPOSED] STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED] ORDER

In the interests of (1) ensuring efficient and prompt resolution of this Action; (2) facilitating discovery by the Parties litigating this Action; and (3) protecting confidential information from improper disclosure or use, Plaintiffs and Defendant (collectively, “Parties”), by and through their respective counsel hereby stipulate and agree to the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order.

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED, and the Court, upon good cause shown and pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c)(1), ORDERS as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

A. Purposes and Limitations.

Disclosure and discovery activity in this Action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the Parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The Parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The Parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section G, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; rather Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a Party seeks permission from the Court to file material under seal.

B. Scope.

All Documents, electronically stored information, items, and other information produced or adduced in the course of discovery, regardless of the medium or manner generated, stored, maintained or revealed (including, among other things, initial disclosures, responses to discovery requests, deposition testimony, and exhibits), and information derived directly therefrom, concerning Confidential or Highly Confidential Information as defined below shall be subject to this Order. This Order shall apply to any named Party to this Action (including all of its officers, directors, employees, retained experts, Outside Counsel (and their support staff)). This Order is subject to the Local Rules of this District and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on matters of procedure and calculation of time periods.

II. DEFINITIONS

A. As used herein:

1. “Action” means the above-captioned action pending in this Court, including any related discovery, pre-trial, trial, post-trial, or appellate proceedings.

2. “Challenging Party” means a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of information or items under this Order.

3. “Confidential Information” means any Document which contains confidential or proprietary business, commercial, research, personnel, product or financial content belonging to the Producing Party, and which is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” for purposes of this litigation. Confidential Information may fall within one or more of the following exemplary categories: (i) information prohibited from disclosure by statute or contractual agreement; (ii) information that reveals trade secrets; (iii) research, technical, commercial or financial information that the party has maintained as confidential; (iv) medical information concerning any individual; (v) personally identifiable information (“PII”), protected health information (“PHI”), and other information protected by privacy laws and regulations; or (vi) income tax returns (including attached schedules and forms), W-2 forms and 1099 forms. The Parties will make reasonable efforts to ensure that information or documents that are available to the public or readily ascertainable by the public are not designated as Confidential Information.

4. “Defendant” means TAH Operations LLC and its employees, agents, representatives, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors, and assigns.

5. “Designated Materials” means documents or other materials produced in this Action labelled or affixed with the words “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.”

6. “Designating Party” means a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.”

8. “Document” means any document or electronically stored information, as the term is used in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a).

9. “Highly Confidential Information” means any Document which a Producing Party believes to be so highly sensitive that: (i) it is the subject of reasonable efforts to maintain its secrecy; (ii) it is sufficiently valuable and secret to afford a potential or actual advantage over others; (iii) its disclosure to existing or potential competitors or customers would cause injury to the business, commercial, competitive, or financial interests of the Producing Party and (iv) it is designated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” for purposes of this litigation. By way of example only, Highly Confidential Information may include but is not limited to: (a) current or future business strategies and other strategic planning information; (b) projections or plans regarding performance, budgets, production, output, sales, marketing or distribution practices; (c) research and development information; (d) manufacturing know-how or technology; (e) board of directors materials and presentations; (f) customer lists or information; (g) negotiation strategies; (h) proprietary software, systems, or processes; (i) margin, cost, and pricing information; or (j) intellectual property.

5 by the Party that such law firm(s) assign(s).

6 13. “Party” or “Parties” means any individual Plaintiff or Defendant in 7 the above-captioned action, or Plaintiffs and Defendant collectively.

11 produces Designated Materials in this Action.

12 16. “Protected Material” means any Document that is designated as 13 Confidential or Highly Confidential or otherwise protected by any applicable privilege 14 or protection from disclosure.

15 17. “Receiving Party” means any Party or Non-Party who receives 16 Designated Materials from a Producing Party.

17 III. DESIGNATION

18 A Party may designate a Document as Confidential or Highly Confidential 19 Information for protection under this Order by placing or affixing the words 20 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” on each page of the Document 21 and on all copies in a manner that will not interfere with the legibility of the Document.
22 To the extent a Document is produced in a form in which placing or affixing the words 23 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” on the Document is not 24 practicable, the Producing Party may designate the Document by cover letter, slip sheet, 25 appending the designation the electronic file name, or by affixing a label to the 26 production media containing the Document. As used in this Order, “copies” includes 27 electronic images, duplicates, extracts, summaries or descriptions that contain the 28 Confidential or Highly Confidential Information. The marking “CONFIDENTIAL” or

1 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” shall be applied prior to or at the time the Documents 2 are produced or Disclosed. Applying such marking to a Document does not mean that 3 the Document has any status or protection by statute or otherwise except to the extent 4 and for the purposes of this Order. Any copies that are made of any Documents marked 5 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” shall also be so marked, except 6 that indices, electronic databases or lists of Documents that do not contain substantial 7 portions or images of the text of Documents designated as Confidential or Highly 8 Confidential Information and do not otherwise disclose the substance of the 9 Confidential or Highly Confidential Information are not required to be marked.

10 IV. DEPOSITIONS

11 A. General Provisions. Unless all Parties agree otherwise on the record at 12 the time the deposition testimony is taken, all deposition testimony taken in this case 13 shall be treated as Confidential Information for a period of thirty (30) days after the 14 transcript is delivered to the Party being deposed. If counsel for any Party states on the 15 record that the deposition testimony should be treated as Highly Confidential 16 Information, such testimony will be treated as Highly Confidential Information for the 17 thirty (30)-day period following the delivery of the transcript to the Party seeking to 18 designate Designated Material as confidential. No later than the thirtieth day after the 19 transcript is delivered to the Party being deposed or a Party seeking to designate 20 Designated Material as confidential, whichever is later, a Party may serve a Notice of 21 Designation to all parties of record and the court reporter for the deposition in question 22 as to specific pages of the transcript that are designated Confidential or Highly 23 Confidential Information, and thereafter only those portions identified in the Notice of 24 Designation shall be protected by the terms of this Order. The court reporter shall 25 provide a final copy of the transcript that reflects any designations of pages of the 26 transcript as Confidential or Highly Confidential Information in the lower left-hand 27 corner of each designated page.

1 B. Filing During Thirty (30)-Day Period. If counsel for any Party seeks to 2 file a transcript or portion thereof with the Court before the time for serving a Notice of 3 Designation has expired, counsel shall contact counsel for all other Parties to inquire 4 whether any Party objects to the relevant transcript portions being filed publicly. If 5 counsel for any Party objects within three (3) business days, the filing counsel shall 6 follow the Court's procedures for filing the transcript under seal. If no Party objects 7 within three (3) business days, the filing counsel may file the transcript portions publicly 8 on the docket.

9 V. PROTECTION OF CONFIDENTIAL OR HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
10 DESIGNATED MATERIAL

11 A. General Protections. Except as set forth below, Confidential or Highly 12 Confidential Information shall not be used or Disclosed by the Parties, counsel for the 13 Parties or any other persons identified in subparagraph (B) for any purpose whatsoever 14 other than the prosecution or defense of claims in, or the settlement of, this Action, 15 including any appeal thereof. Nothing in this Order, however, shall prevent or prejudice 16 any Party designating Documents Confidential or Highly Confidential Information 17 from using its own such designated Documents for any purpose, including privately 18 disclosing its own Confidential or Highly Confidential Information to others not 19 mentioned in this Paragraph E, and such private disclosure shall not waive the 20 protections of this Order.

21 B. Limited Third-Party Disclosures. The Parties and counsel for the Parties
22 shall not Disclose or permit the disclosure of any Confidential or Highly Confidential 23 Information to any third person or entity except as set forth below.

24 C. Subject to these requirements, the following categories of Persons may be 25 allowed to review Confidential Information:

26 1. Counsel. Outside Counsel for the Parties or In-House Counsel for 27 the Parties, including employees and support staff of such counsel, who have 28

responsibility for the preparation and trial of the Action;

2. Parties. Individual Parties and employees of such Party, but only to the extent counsel has a good-faith basis for believing the disclosure of such Confidential Information is reasonably necessary to the prosecution and/or defense of this Action. The Receiving Party shall require any such individual employee to whom such Confidential Information is shown to complete the certification contained in Attachment A to this Order and the Receiving Party shall retain the signed Attachment A and to the extent request provide a list to the Designating Party a list of all individuals who have signed Attachment A;

3. The Court and its personnel;

4. Any special master, mediator, arbitrator, trustee, or monitor and their staff that the Parties engage in this Action or that this Court appoints;

5. Court Reporters and Recorders. Court reporters and recorders engaged for depositions;

6. Contractors and Vendors. Those Persons specifically engaged for the limited purpose of making copies of Documents or organizing or processing Documents, including outside vendors hired to process electronically stored Documents but only after such Persons have completed the certification contained in Attachment A to this Order (only one certification is required for such a Contractor or Vendor if signed by a person with authority to bind the entity);

7. Consultants and Experts. Consultants, investigators, or experts employed by the parties or counsel for the parties to assist in the preparation and trial of this Action but only after such Persons confirm that they have not been retained by another Party or a competitor for another Party and have completed the certification contained in Attachment A to this Order;

8. Witnesses. During depositions or testimony at trial or any hearing, witnesses in this Action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary, provided that counsel for the Party intending to disclose the information has a good-faith basis for believing such Confidential Information is relevant to events, transactions, discussions, communications or data about which the witness is expected to testify or about which the witness may have knowledge. Witnesses shall not retain a copy of Documents containing Confidential Information, except witnesses may receive a copy of all exhibits marked at their depositions in connection with review of the transcripts;

9. Author or recipient. The author or recipient of the Document in the ordinary course of business;

10. Identified Persons. Any Person who is referenced in the Document or whose conduct is purported to be identified in the Document, provided that counsel for the Party intending to disclose the information has a good-faith basis for believing such Confidential Information is relevant to events, transactions, discussions, communications or data about which the Person has knowledge; disclosure to such Person is limited to the portion of the Document in which the Person or Person's conduct is identified or referenced; and such Person has completed the certification contained in Attachment A to this Order;

11. Mock jurors or mock judges who have signed an undertaking or agreement agreeing not to publicly disclose Protected Material and to keep any information concerning Protected Material confidential; and

12. Others by Consent. Other persons only by written consent of the Producing Party or upon order of the Court and on such conditions as may be agreed or ordered, but such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

D. The following categories of Persons may be allowed to review Highly Confidential Information:

1. Outside Counsel. Outside counsel for the Parties including employees and support staff of such counsel, who have responsibility for the preparation and trial of the Action provided that such individuals do not regularly participate in the 1 commercial business activities of the Party;

2 2. The Court and its personnel;

3 3. Any special master, mediator, arbitrator, trustee, or monitor and 4 their staff that the Parties engage in this Action or that this Court appoints;

5 4. Court Reporters and Recorders. Court reporters and recorders 6 engaged for depositions;

7 5. Contractors and Vendors. Those Persons specifically engaged for 8 the limited purpose of making copies of Documents or organizing or processing 9 Documents, including outside vendors hired to process electronically stored Documents 10 but only after such Persons have completed the certification contained in Attachment A 11 to this Order (only one certification is required for such a Contractor or Vendor if signed 12 by a person with authority to bind the entity);

13 6. Consultants and Experts. Consultants, investigators, or experts 14 employed by the parties or counsel for the parties to assist in the preparation and trial 15 of this Action but only after such Persons confirm that they have not been retained by 16 another Party or a competitor for another Party and have completed the certification 17 contained in Attachment A to this Order;

18 7. Witnesses. During depositions or testimony at trial or any hearing, 19 witnesses in this Action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary to the prosecution 20 and/or defense of this Action, and also provided that counsel for the Party intending to 21 disclose the information has a good-faith basis for believing such Highly Confidential 22 Information is relevant to events, transactions, discussions, communications or data 23 about which the witness is expected to testify or about which the witness may have 24 knowledge. Before disclosing any Document pursuant to this paragraph, counsel who 25 intends to disclose the Document must first notify counsel for the designating Party of 26 their intent to do so, unless the witness is the designating Party of an employee of the 27 designating Party. At depositions, trial or hearings, such notice may be accomplished 28 by presenting a copy of the Highly Confidential Information to counsel for the

1 designating Party and permitting counsel an opportunity to object before the document 2 is shown to the witness. The designating Party shall not object to the document being 3 shown to the Witness unless the designating Party can articulate specific reasons as to 4 why the document cannot be shown to the Witness. Until the designating Party agrees 5 to the disclosure, or the Court orders such disclosure, Highly Confidential Information 6 shall not be Disclosed to or discussed with any witness other than a witness who is the 7 designating Party or an employee of the designating Party. Any witness who is shown 8 a document marked Highly Confidential during their deposition or testimony shall 9 complete the certification contained in Attachment A to this Order. Witnesses shall not 10 retain a copy of Documents containing Highly Confidential Information, except 11 witnesses may receive a copy of all exhibits marked at their depositions in connection 12 with review of the transcripts. Pages of transcribed testimony or exhibits to depositions 13 that are designated as Highly Confidential Information must be separately bound by the 14 court reporter and may not be Disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Order;

15 8. Author or recipient. The author or recipient of the Document in the 16 ordinary course of business (not including a Person who received the Document solely 17 in the course of litigation);

18 9. Identified Persons. Any Person who is referenced in the Document 19 or whose conduct is purported to be identified in the Document, provided that counsel 20 for the Party intending to disclose the information has a good-faith basis for believing 21 such Highly Confidential Information is relevant to events, transactions, discussions, 22 communications or data about which the Person has knowledge; disclosure to such 23 Person is limited to the portion of the Document in which the Person or person's conduct 24 is identified or referenced; and such person has completed the certification contained in 25 Attachment A to this Order;

26 10. Mock jurors or mock judges who have signed an undertaking or 27 agreement agreeing not to publicly disclose Protected Material and to keep any 28

1 information concerning Protected Material confidential; and 2 11. Others by Consent. Other persons only by written consent of the 3 Producing Party or upon order of the Court and on such conditions as may be agreed or 4 ordered, but such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

5 E. High Level Summaries. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to 6 prevent Counsel from advising their clients with respect to the Action based in whole 7 or in part on Protected Materials, provided Counsel does not disclose the Protected 8 Material itself except as provided in this Order.

9 F. Control of Documents. Counsel for the Parties shall make reasonable 10 efforts to prevent unauthorized or inadvertent disclosure of Confidential or Highly 11 Confidential Information.

12 G. To the extent any person is required to complete the certification contained 13 in Attachment A to this Order, facsimile signatures or signatures transferred in 14 electronic format (e.g., PDF) shall be treated as original signatures purposes of this 15 Order. Executed Attachment A forms need not be provided to Parties or any Non-Party 16 but must be maintained by Outside Counsel until the closure of this Action, and may be 17 subject to inspection by any Party, Non-Party, or the Court should an issue arise.

18 VI. FAILURE TO DESIGNATE

19 A failure to designate a Document as Confidential or Highly Confidential 20 Information does not, standing alone, waive the right to so designate the Document. If 21 a Producing Party designates a Document as Confidential or Highly Confidential 22 Information after it was initially produced, the Receiving Party, on notification of the 23 designation, must make a reasonable effort to ensure that the Document is treated in 24 accordance with the provisions of this Order. No Party shall be found to have violated 25 this Order for failing to maintain the confidentiality of Designated Material during a 26 time when that Designated Material has not been designated Confidential or Highly 27 Confidential Information. To the extent that the Receiving Party has shared any 28 material that is designated as Protected Material after such material has been provided

1 to third parties, the Receiving Party must comply with the requirements set forth in 2 Paragraph M, below.

3 VII. FILING OF CONFIDENTIAL OR HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
4 INFORMATION

5 This Order does not, by itself, authorize the filing of any Document under seal.
6 Any Party wishing to file a Document designated as Confidential or Highly Confidential 7 Information in connection with a motion, brief or other submission to the Court must 8 comply with Local Rule 79-5.

9 VIII. CHALLENGES BY A PARTY TO DESIGNATION AS CONFIDENTIAL
10 OR HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

11 Any Party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time that is 12 consistent with the Court's Scheduling Order. Unless a prompt challenge to a 13 Designating Party's confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, 14 substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or 15 delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality 16 designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed. The following procedure shall apply to any such challenge.

17 A. Meet and Confer. A Party challenging the designation of Confidential or 18 Highly Confidential Information shall initiate the dispute resolution process under 19 Local Rule 37-1 et seq.

20 B. Joint Stipulation. Any challenge submitted to the Court shall be via joint 21 stipulation pursuant to Local Rule 37-2. The burden of persuasion in any such challenge 22 proceeding shall be on the Designating Party, who shall have the right to respond to any 23 motion filed by a Challenging Party. Until the Court rules on the challenge, all Parties 24 shall continue to treat the Document as Confidential or Highly Confidential Information 25 under the terms of this Order. As such, any motion challenging a confidentiality 26 designation must not publicly file the Documents with contested designations nor 27 describe them in a manner that would reveal Confidential or Highly Confidential 28

1 Information.

2 IX. USE OF CONFIDENTIAL OR HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
3 DOCUMENTS OR INFORMATION AT TRIAL

4 Nothing in this Order shall be construed to limit the use of any Document at any 5 trial or hearing provided that the Parties take necessary advance precautions to avoid 6 the public disclosure of Confidential or Highly Confidential Information. A Party that 7 intends to present or that anticipates that another Party may present Confidential or 8 Highly Confidential Information at a hearing or trial shall bring that issue to the Court's 9 and Parties' attention by motion or in a pretrial memorandum sufficiently in advance of 10 the proceeding without disclosing the Confidential or Highly Confidential Information.
11 The Court may thereafter make such orders as are necessary to govern the use of such 12 Documents at hearing or trial.

13 X. THIRD PARTIES

14 In seeking discovery from third parties, the Parties shall attach this Order to a 15 copy of any subpoena or other discovery request. Third parties from whom discovery 16 is requested shall be considered parties to this Order and are entitled to the protections 17 of this Order in responding to such requests.

18 XI. CONFIDENTIAL OR HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION
19 SUBPOENAED, REQUESTED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER 20 LITIGATION

21 A. If a Receiving Party is served with a subpoena, discovery request, or an 22 order issued in other litigation that would compel disclosure of any Document 23 designated in this Action as Confidential or Highly Confidential Information, the 24 Receiving Party must so notify the Designating Party, in writing, immediately and in 25 no event more than three (3) court days after receiving the subpoena or order. Receiving 26 Party must cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by 27 the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected. Such notification 28 must include a copy of the subpoena or court order.

1 B. The Receiving Party also must immediately inform in writing the party 2 who caused the subpoena, discovery request, or order to issue in the other litigation that 3 some or all of the Designated Material covered by the subpoena, discovery request, or 4 order is the subject of this Order. In addition, the Receiving Party must deliver a copy 5 of this Order promptly to the party in the other litigation that caused the subpoena to 6 issue.

7 C. The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested Persons to 8 the existence of this Order and to afford the Designating Party in this case an 9 opportunity to protect its Confidential or Highly Confidential Information in the court 10 from which the subpoena, discovery request or order issued. If the Designating Party 11 timely seeks a protective order, the party served with the subpoena or court order shall 12 not produce any information designated in this action as Confidential or Highly 13 Confidential before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order 14 issued, unless the party has obtained the Designating Party's permission. The 15 Designating Party shall bear the burden and the expense of seeking protection in that 16 court of its Confidential or Highly Confidential Information, and nothing in these 17 provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this 18 Action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

19 XII. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OR USE

20 If the Receiving Party learns that it or its counsel, officers, directors, employees, 21 consultants, experts or other agents have Disclosed Documents designated Confidential 22 or Highly Confidential Information in any circumstance not authorized under this 23 Order, that Party must within three (3) business days of learning of such disclosure (a) 24 notify the Producing Party of the disclosure and all pertinent facts relating thereto, (b) 25 make every reasonable effort to prevent disclosure by each unauthorized Person who 26 received such information, (c) use reasonable best efforts to retrieve all copies of the 27 protected Documents Disclosed to unauthorized Persons, (d) inform the Person or 28 Persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of the terms of this Order, and

(e) request that each such Person execute the certification contained in Exhibit A to this Order. Nothing contained herein shall limit the right of the Producing Party to seek relief against the Party responsible for such disclosure. Further, nothing in this Order shall restrict in any way a Producing Party's use or disclosure of its own Protected Material.

XIII. GENERATIVE AI

Protected Information shall not be submitted to any open Generative AI tool (i.e. ChatGPT) or any substantially similar tool that is available to the public. Providing Protected Information to an open tool is considered disclosure to a third party. The obligations and restrictions of this paragraph apply even where the data or the Protected Material has been anonymized.

XIV. DATA SECURITY

Receiving Parties must take reasonable precautions to protect Protected Material from loss, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction. Such measures shall include:

A. Reasonably preventing unauthorised persons from gaining access to Protected Material (physical access control).

B. Reasonably preventing Protected Material from being used without authorisation (logical access control) including, but not limited to, the use of passwords.

C. Reasonably ensuring that persons entitled to use a Protected Material gain access only to such Protected Material as they are entitled to access in accordance with their access rights, and that, in the course of processing or use and after storage, Protected Material cannot be read, copied, modified or deleted without authorisation (data access control).

D. Reasonably ensuring that Protected Material cannot be read, copied, modified or deleted without authorisation during electronic transmission, transport or storage on storage media, and that the target entities for any transfer of Protected Material by means of data transmission facilities can be established and verified (data

1 transfer control).

2 E. Reasonably ensuring the establishment of an audit trail to document 3 whether and by whom Protected Material have been entered into, modified in, or 4 removed from Protected Material processing systems, (entry control).

5 F. Reasonably ensuring that Protected Material are processed solely in 6 accordance with instructions from Counsel or Receiving Party (control of instructions).

7 XV. BREACH NOTIFICATION AND COOPERATION CLAUSE

8 If the Receiving Party discovers that an unauthorized person or persons has 9 accessed or obtained the Protected Materials of another Party, the Receiving Party shall:
10 (1) provide written notice to Producing Party of such breach within ten (10) business 11 days of Receiving Party's discovery of the breach; (2) investigate and remediate the 12 effects of the breach, and provide Producing Party with assurance reasonably 13 satisfactory to Producing Party that such breach shall not recur; and (3) provide 14 sufficient information about the breach that the Producing Party can reasonably 15 ascertain the size and scope of the breach including, but not limited to, the nature of the 16 compromise, the timing of the compromise, the documents compromised, the nature of 17 the unauthorized party, and the data security in place at the time of the compromise. If 18 required by any judicial or governmental request, requirement or order to disclose such 19 information, the Receiving Party shall take all reasonable steps to give the Producing 20 Party sufficient prior notice in order to contest such request, requirement or order 21 through legal means. The Receiving Party agrees to provide reasonable cooperation to 22 the Producing Party or law enforcement in investigating any such security incident. In 23 any event, the Receiving Party shall promptly take all necessary and appropriate 24 corrective action to terminate the unauthorized access as it deems appropriate in its good 25 faith and reasonable judgment. If the unauthorized access or disclosure of the Protected 26 Material requires notice to individuals, organizations or regulators under applicable law, 27 then the Receiving Party shall follow the reasonable instructions of the Producing Party 28 regarding such notice at their own cost.

1 XVI. OBLIGATIONS ON CONCLUSION OF LITIGATION

2 A. Order Continues in Force. Unless otherwise agreed or ordered, this 3 Order shall remain in force after dismissal or entry of final judgment. The Court shall 4 retain jurisdiction to hear disputes regarding documents produced under this Order even 5 after dismissal or entry of final judgment.

6 B. Obligations at Conclusion of Litigation. Within sixty (60) days after 7 dismissal or entry of final judgment not subject to further appeal, all Confidential and 8 Highly Confidential Information, including copies as defined in Paragraph C 9 (“Designation”), shall be returned to the Producing Party unless: (1) the Document has 10 been offered into evidence or filed without restriction as to disclosure; (2) the Parties 11 agree to destruction to the extent practicable in lieu of return; or (3) as to Documents 12 bearing the notations, summations or other mental impressions of the Receiving Party, 13 that Party elects to destroy the Documents and certifies to the Producing Party that it 14 has done so.

15 C. Retention of Work Product and Filed Documents. Notwithstanding the 16 above requirements to return or destroy Documents, counsel may retain (1) email 17 correspondence related to their representation, (2) attorney work product; and (3) copies 18 of (a) all Documents filed with or by the Court, including those filed under seal; (b) all 19 transcripts of depositions, including exhibits; and (c) all final expert witness reports and 20 supporting materials Disclosed pursuant to Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil 21 Procedure. Any retained Confidential or Highly Confidential Information shall 22 continue to be protected under this Order. An attorney may use his or her work product 23 in subsequent litigation, provided that its use does not disclose Confidential or Highly
