ORDER

THIS CAUSE is before the Court on, among other things, Plaintiff Oscar Aguilar Contreras Civil Rights Complaint (“Complaint,” Doc. 1) and Motion for Temporary Restraining Order (Doc. 4). Plaintiff identifies as a transgender woman and is a prisoner at the United States Penitentiary Coleman II (“USP Coleman II”). Plaintiff seeks, among other things, to enjoin Defendants from enforcing Executive Order 14168 regarding gender affirming care. (Doc. 1 at 3, 10). Plaintiff notes that because of the Bureau of Prison’s implementation of Executive Order 14168, her gender dysphoria symptoms have been exacerbated and she has had suicidal thoughts and ideations. (Id. at 6).

Rule 1.04(b) of the Local Rules for the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida requires that civil actions must be filed “in the division to which the action is most directly connected or in which the action is most conveniently advanced.” District courts have authority to transfer a case to any district or division in which it could have been brought. 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a).

Here, Plaintiff complains about events occurring at USP Coleman II and sues, among others, two individuals employed at USP Coleman II. (Doc. 1). USP Coleman II is in the Ocala Division of the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida. Thus, this action should have been filed in the Ocala Division.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED and ADJUDGED as follows:

1. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1406, the Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to transfer this case to the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Ocala Division.
2. Because the Complaint includes an allegation of suicidal ideation, danger of death, or imminent physical harm by a confined person, the Clerk of Court shall:
  - a. IMMEDIATELY email the state or federal official where the person is confined of the allegation and attach a copy of the Complaint (Doc. 1);
  - b. CONFIRM the official received the Court’s email; and
  - c. ENTER a docket entry stating the name of the official who received the Court’s notice and when.

DONE and ORDERED in Orlando, Florida on June 20, 2025.
