PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

WHEREAS, Petitioner Badar Khan Suri filed his Second Amended Complaint on June 30, 2025, ECF 92, alleging that Respondents unlawfully terminated his J-1 exchange visitor status in the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System ("SEVIS") in violation of the Administrative Procedure Act ("APA") and the First and Fifth Amendments to the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, on July 7, 2025, Respondents notified Petitioner's Counsel that Dr. Khan Suri's SEVIS record and the SEVIS records of his children as derivatives had been reinstated on July 3, 2025 nunc pro tunc to March 18, 2025; and

WHEREAS, the parties are interested in resolving the issues raised in Petitioner's Motion for Preliminary Injunction, ECF 79, pertaining to Dr. Khan Suri's SEVIS termination and have negotiated in good faith for that purpose; and

WHEREAS, the parties intend to resolve the matters addressed in Petitioner's Motion for Preliminary Injunction, and

WHEREAS, nothing in this Stipulation shall be deemed an admission by either party and the parties further agree that this Stipulation is entered into without prejudice to the assertion of any claims, arguments, contentions and defenses whether or not otherwise alleged in the Second Amended Complaint;

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED as follows:

2. Respondents agree that they will not again terminate Dr. Khan Suri's SEVIS record or his children's SEVIS records for the duration of this litigation, and that they will not terminate Dr. Khan Suri's status or his children's status,<sup>1</sup> unless Respondents become aware of a newly discovered, independent legal ground to terminate the records and follow the procedures for termination of status established by relevant law and regulations.<sup>2</sup>

3. Respondents agree to provide at least 21 days' advance notice to Petitioner and his counsel of any intent to terminate Petitioner's or his children's SEVIS records or status based on newly discovered, independent legal grounds for the duration of this litigation.
