

held unconstitutional as under Board of Estimates vs. Morris, supra because

a) In New York City Richmond has a board member as does the more populace Kings County.

b) The board does not represent minor party voters who have ballot access such as the Green Party, Independence Party, Conservative Party and Working Families Party.

c) The Board does not have representation for independent votes although they are more numerous than Republican Party voters.

d) The New York State Constitution which established representation for the Republican Party and Democratic Party was written many years ago and does not reflect voting reality nowadays

e) The Board gives equal representation to the Republican Party and the Democratic Party although the Democratic voters are much more numerous

93. The New York State Board of Elections has judicial hearings deciding which candidates are to be on the ballot and this is violative of procedural due process of the Fourteenth Amendment because the Board is selected by the Republican Party Chairman and the Democratic Party Chairman which makes them inherently prejudiced and unfair.

94. The local boards of elections in New York hires party loyalists as election inspectors who have fraudulently been hired to vote for the chosen party candidates and are not independent inspectors to voting and have acted fraudulently because their paid job depends on their being loyal to the party chairmen of the Republican and Democratic Parties which undermines the fairness of the democratic process and is flagrantly violative of the constitutionally protected elements of fair elections.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiffs seek the following remedy:

1. Sam Sloan and the other 10 candidates be placed back on the ballot as Judicial Delegate in the Democratic Primary to be held on September 10, 2015.
2. The New York State and City Board of Elections should be declared unconstitutional and disbanded.
3. That the attorney for the plaintiffs be paid legal fees for this case
4. That the plaintiff be paid damages and all the costs.

5. That this court take all such action it deems just and proper.
