

THE HONORABLE THOMAS S. ZILLY
THE HONORABLE S. KATE VAUGHAN

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

ECHOTA C. WOLFCLAN and ZAKERY
BONDS, on behalf of themselves and other similarly situated individuals,

Plaintiffs,

v.

PIERCE COUNTY, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. C23-5399-TSZ-SKV

~~PROPOSED~~ STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential

1 treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file
2 confidential information under seal.

3 2. “CONFIDENTIAL” MATERIAL

4 “Confidential” material shall include the following documents and tangible things
5 produced or otherwise exchanged: medical records, social security numbers, driver’s license
6 numbers, passport numbers, dates of birth, home addresses, maps of Pierce County Jail (the “Jail”),
7 documents showing the layout of the Jail, and Jail design documents.

8 3. SCOPE

9 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 10 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) all 11 copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony, 12 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material.

13 However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in 14 the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

15 4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

16 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed
17 or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 18 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to the 19 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential material 20 must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures 21 that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.

22 4.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered 23 by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose any 24 confidential material only to:

25 (a) the receiving party’s counsel of record in this action, as well as employees
26 of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

1 (b) the receiving party, when disclosure is reasonably necessary for this
2 litigation, unless the parties agree that a particular document or material produced is for Attorney's 3 Eyes Only and is so designated;

4 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this 5 litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

6 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

7 (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of 8 confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service
9 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately
10 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

11 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 12 reasonably necessary and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound"
13 (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court. Pages of 14 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential material must 15 be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted 16 under this agreement;

17 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 18 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

19 4.3 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" Material or 20 items. If a producing party believes in good faith that, despite the provisions of this Protective 21 Order there is a substantial risk of identifiable harm to the producing party if particular documents
22 it designates as "Confidential" are disclosed to all other parties or non-parties to this action, the 23 producing party may designate those particular documents as "Confidential—Attorneys' Eyes 24 Only." Except with the prior written consent of the individual or entity designating a document or 25 portions of a document as "CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY," or pursuant to 26 prior Order after notice, any document, transcript or pleading given "CONFIDENTIAL –

1 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" treatment under this Order, and any information contained in, or 2 derived from any such materials (including but not limited to, all deposition testimony that refers
3 to, reflects, or otherwise discusses any information designated "CONFIDENTIAL –
4 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" hereunder) may not be disclosed other than in accordance with this 5 Order and may not be disclosed to any person other than:

6 (a) A party's retained outside counsel of record in this action, as well as 7 employees of said outside counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information
8 for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgement and Agreement to be Bound"
9 (Exhibit A);

10 (b) Experts specifically retained as consultants or expert witnesses in 11 connection with this litigation who have signed the "Acknowledgement and Agreement to be 12 Bound" (Exhibit A);

13 (c) The Court and its personnel;

14 (d) Court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom disclosure is 15 reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgement and 16 Agreement to be Bound" (Exhibit A);

17 (e) Any mediator appointed by the court or jointly selected by the parties;

18 (f) The author or recipient of the document (not including a person who 19 received the document in the course of the litigation);

20 (g) Independent providers of document reproduction, electronic discovery, or 21 other litigation services retained or employed specifically in connection with this litigation; and

22 (h) Other persons only upon consent of the producing party and on such 23 conditions as the parties may agree.

24 4.4 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or 25 referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party, 26 in accordance with Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(A), to determine whether the designating party will

1 remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion
2 to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the meet and confer process, the 3 designating party must identify the basis for sealing the specific confidential information at issue,
4 and the filing party shall include this basis in its motion to seal, along with any objection to sealing
5 the information at issue. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and 6 the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material
7 under seal. A party who seeks to maintain the confidentiality of its information must satisfy the 8 requirements of Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party filing the motion to seal.
9 Failure to satisfy this requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, in accordance with 10 the strong presumption of public access to the Court's files.

11 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

12 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party 13 or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take 14 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate
15 standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, 16 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the 17 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 18 unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

19 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 20 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 21 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses 22 and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

23 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated for 24 protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other parties
25 that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

26 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this

1 agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(b) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 2 ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must 3 be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

4 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents and 5 deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings),
6 the designating party must affix the word “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL –
7 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” to each page that contains confidential material. If only a portion 8 or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the producing party also must clearly 9 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

10 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties
11 and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other pretrial
12 proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony
13 after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after receiving the 14 transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of the transcript, or 15 exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party desires to protect confidential information 16 at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-trial conference.

17 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place
18 on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word
19 “CONFIDENTIAL” or the phrase “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” If only a 20 portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the producing party, to the extent 21 practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

22 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 23 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party’s
24 right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a 25 designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is treated 26 in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

1 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

2 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 3 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's confidentiality 4 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 5 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to 6 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 7 original designation is disclosed.

8 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
9 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding confidential
10 designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in a declaration 11 or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer conference with other 12 affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The certification must list
13 the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-14 to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

15 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
16 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under Local 17 Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of 18 persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and those 19 made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 20 other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to maintain 21 the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the challenge.

22 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
23 LITIGATION

24 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
25 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL" or 26 "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," that party must:

1 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the 2 subpoena or court order;

3 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 4 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 5 subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and

6 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by 7 the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

8 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

9 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential
10 material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving 11 party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized disclosures, 12 (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, (c) inform the 13 person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this agreement, 14 and (d) request that such person or persons execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be 15 Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

16 9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
17 MATERIAL

18 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 19 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 20 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision 21 is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or 22 agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree to the 23 entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

24 10. NON-TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

25 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving 26 party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts and

1 summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of destruction.

2 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all
3 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence,
4 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work
5 product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

6 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a 7 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

PURSUANT TO STIPULATION, IT IS SO ORDERED

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 502(d), the production of any documents, electronically stored information (ESI) or information, whether inadvertent or otherwise, in this proceeding shall not, for the purposes of this proceeding or any other federal or state proceeding, constitute a waiver by the producing party of any privilege applicable to those documents, including the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product protection, or any other privilege or protection recognized by law. This Order shall be interpreted to provide the maximum protection allowed by Fed. R. Evid. 502(d). The provisions of Fed. R. Evid. 502(b) do not apply. Nothing contained herein is intended to or shall serve to limit a party's right to conduct a review of documents, ESI or information (including metadata) for relevance, responsiveness and/or segregation of privileged and/or protected information before production. Information produced in discovery that is protected as privileged or work product shall be immediately returned to the producing party.
