Honorable Stephen R. Bough,

Thank you for your quick response.

In reference to Libertarian Party v. Bond, 764 F.3d 538, 542 (8th Cir. 1985)...

This has no bearing on my case as it does not solve the problem I am having with the separation of parties onto different ballots during a primary election. Enclosed, I have copies of 6(six) ballots from the Missouri Primary election dated August 4, 2020. As you can see, the Constitutional Party ballot only has 1(one) person running, for secretary of state. Had I chosen this ballot, I would have not been allowed to vote for governor or any other person during this election.

Also, the part about writing in a candidate is not available on any of the ballots, thus further restricting my ability to vote for someone in any party other than the one on the ballot I have chosen.

I understand that I am not stating that I belong to a party by selecting a party's ballot during a primary, but, in a sense I am by only being able to choose a single ballot that has only 1(one) party on it (or no party and not voting for any person at all), thus my mental anguish.

The members of the U.S. Congress has allowed the individual states flexibility in governing voting laws and regulations, yet has not stopped this type of practice.

I understand that I am allowed to ask you to appoint legal council for me at no cost to me, and I so ask that you do so.

I cannot locate the file/case of Lindstedt v. Baum, 141 F.3d 1169 (8th Cir. 1998) that you cited in your response or the constitutionality of said primary election practices.

If I am reading the case of F.D.I.C. v. Meyer, 510 U.S. 471, 475 (1994), I am not allowed to sue the U.S. Congress directly, yet am allowed to sue each of its members. By changing my file to read Members of the U.S. Congress as defendants instead of what I originally filed as U.S. Congress should resolve the issue of not suing the U.S. government.

I appreciate that you have granted me the ability to file without prepayment of fees due to my financial situation. As I am not working for anyone (%100 disabled SSD), I withdraw my request for leave to file action without payment of fees.

I would like to include my phone number should anyone decide to contact me in that manner. I am not comfortable using e-mail when dealing with important matters or documents. If you, however feel the need to use that type of service, feel free to contact me and I would be willing to give you one.
