III.RELEASE OF CLAIMS

A. This Decree fully and completely resolves all issues, claims, and allegations made by the EEOC and/or Claimant against Perry Ford that are raised in the Complaint filed in this action in the United States District Court, Central District of California on September 28, 2004, captioned U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission v. Hysen-Johnson Ford d/b/a Perry Ford and DOES 1 to 10, Inclusive, Case No. CV 05-6695 DSF (CWx).

B. Nothing in this Decree shall be construed to preclude the Commission from bringing suit to enforce this Decree in the event that any party hereto fails to perform the promises and representations contained herein.

C. Nothing in this Decree shall be construed to limit or reduce Perry Ford's obligation to comply fully with Title VII or any other federal employment statute.

D. This Decree in no way affects the EEOC's right to bring, process, investigate, or litigate other charges that may be in existence or may later arise against Perry Ford in accordance with standard EEOC procedures.

E. The existence of this Consent Decree or settlement of the claims in the Commission's Complaint, in general, may not be construed in any way as an admission of any liability on Perry Ford's part.

IV.JURISDICTION

A. The Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this lawsuit pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 451, 1331, 1337, 1345, 1367 and 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(f). The Complaint asserts that, if proven, would authorize the Court to grant the equitable relief set forth in this Decree. The terms and provisions of this Decree are fair, reasonable, and just. This Decree conforms with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Title VII and is not in derogation of the rights or privileges

1 of any person. The entry of this Decree will further the objectives of Title VII and
2 will be in the best interests of Perry Ford, the Commission, and those for whom the
3 Commission alleges relief is appropriate (the Claimant). SCANNED

4 B. The Court shall retain jurisdiction of this action during the duration of 5 the Decree for the purposes of entering all orders, judgments and decrees that may 6 be necessary to implement the relief provided herein.

7 V.

8 EFFECTIVE DATE AND DURATION OF DECREE

9 A. The provisions and agreements contained herein are effective
10 immediately upon the date which this Decree is entered by the Court ("the 11 Effective Date").

12 B. The duration of this Consent Decree shall be two years from the date
13 of the Effective Date.

14 VI.

15 MODIFICATION AND SEVERABILITY

16 A. This Decree constitutes the parties' complete understanding with 17 respect to the matters contained herein. By the parties' mutual agreement, this
18 Decree may be amended or modified in the interests of justice and fairness in order
19 to effectuate the provisions of the Decree. No waiver, modification, or amendment
20 of any provision of this Decree will be effective unless made in writing and signed
21 by an authorized representative of each of the parties.

22 B. If one or more provisions of the Decree are rendered unlawful or 23 unenforceable, the parties shall make good faith efforts to agree upon appropriate
24 amendments to this Decree in order to effectuate the purposes of the Decree. In 25 any event, the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect unless the 26 purposes of the Decree cannot, despite the parties' best efforts, be achieved.

VII.COMPLAINCE AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

A. The parties expressly agree that if the Commission has a reason to believe that Perry Ford has failed to comply with any provision of this Consent Decree, the Commission may file a motion before this Court to enforce the Decree. Prior to initiating such action, the Commission will notify Perry Ford and its legal counsel of record, in writing, of the nature of the dispute. This notice shall specify the particular provision(s) that the Commission believes has/have potentially been breached. Absent a showing by either party that the delay will cause irreparable harm, Perry Ford shall have thirty (30) days to attempt to resolve or cure the breach in a manner satisfactory to both parties.

B. The parties agree to cooperate with each other and use their best efforts to resolve any dispute referenced in the EEOC notice.

C. After thirty days have passed with no resolution or agreement to extend the time further, the Commission may petition this Court for resolution of the dispute, seeking all available relief, including an extension of the term of the Decree for such period of time as Perry Ford is shown to be in breach of the Decree and the Commission's costs incurred in securing compliance with the Decree.

VIII.MONETARY RELIEF

A. Perry Ford shall pay a total of $13,000.00 as alleged damages to the Claimant. 2 employer contributions. Perry Ford will provide confirmation of the issuance of a 3 1099 form or the equivalent as required by law for the payment made to the
4 Claimant. SCANNED
