COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

INJUNCTIVE RELIEF SOUGHT

NATURE OF THE ACTION

This is an action under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, to correct unlawful employment practices on the basis of sex, and to provide appropriate relief to Dorothy J. Henderson and other similarly situated individuals, who were adversely affected by such practices. The Commission alleges that Dorothy J. Henderson and other similarly situated individuals had their work hours reduced and/or were forced to change shifts in favor of male employees because of their sex, female.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 451, 1331, 1337, 1343 and 1345. This action is authorized and instituted pursuant to Section 706(f)(1) and (3) of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C § 2000e5(f)(1) and (3) ("Title VII") and Section 102 of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. § 1981A.

1
AK

2. The employment practices alleged to be unlawful were committed within the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, West Palm Beach Division.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "Commission"), is the agency of the United States of America charged with the administration, interpretation and enforcement of Title VII, and is expressly authorized to bring this action by Section 706(f)(1) and (3) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(f)(1) and (3).

4. At all relevant times, Defendant, Intracoastal Health Systems, Inc. (the "Employer"), has continuously been doing business in the State of Florida and the City of West Palm Beach, and has continuously had at least 15 employees.

5. At all relevant times, Defendant, St. Mary's Hospital, Inc. (the "Employer"), has continuously been doing business in the State of Florida and the City of West Palm Beach, and has continuously had at least 15 employees.

6. At all relevant times, Defendant Intracoastal Health Systems, Inc. has continuously been an employer engaged in an industry affecting commerce within the meaning of Sections 701(b), (g) and (h) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e(b), (g) and (h).

7. At all relevant times, Defendant St. Mary's Hospital, Inc. has continuously been an employer engaged in an industry affecting commerce within the meaning of Sections 701(b), (g) and (h) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e(b), (g) and (h).

STATEMENT OF CLAIMS

8. More than thirty days prior to the institution of this lawsuit, Dorothy J. Henderson filed a charge with the Commission alleging violations of Title VII by Defendant St. Mary's Hospital, Inc. Pursuant to its investigation, the Commission found evidence that both Defendant Intracoastal Health Systems, Inc. and Defendant St. Mary's Hospital, Inc. discriminated against Dorothy J. Henderson and other similarly situated individuals. All conditions precedent to the institution of this lawsuit have been fulfilled.

9. Since at least September 1996, Defendant Intracoastal Health Systems, Inc. and Defendant St. Mary's Hospital, Inc. engaged in unlawful employment practices at their West Palm Beach Facilities, in violation of Section 703 of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2. Defendant Intracoastal Health Systems, Inc. and Defendant St. Mary's Hospital, Inc. discriminated against Dorothy J. Henderson and other similarly situated individuals by reducing their work hours and/or forcing them to change shifts in favor of male employees because of their sex, female.

10. The effect of the practices complained of in paragraph 9 above has been to deprive Dorothy J. Henderson and other similarly situated individuals of equal employment opportunities and otherwise adversely affect their status as employees, because of their sex, female.

11. The unlawful employment practices complained of in paragraph 9 above were intentional.

12. The unlawful employment practices complained of in paragraph 9 above were done with malice or with reckless indifference to the federally protected rights of Dorothy J. Henderson and other similarly situated individuals.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, the Commission respectfully requests that this Court:
