IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

KENNEDY DAVIS, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated Plaintiff, v. UNITED STATES PAROLE COMMISSION, et al. Defendants.	Case No. 1:24-cv-01312-TNM

JOINT STIPULATION AND ORDER REGARDING THE AUTHENTICITY OF DOCUMENTS

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED and agreed to by Plaintiff Kennedy Davis, on behalf of all others similarly situated, and Defendants United States Parole Commission (the "Commission") and the Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency ("CSOSA"), through undersigned counsel and subject to approval of the Court, that:

1. Documents produced on or before December 19, 2025 in the above-captioned case in connection with this action shall be presumed genuine and authentic under Federal Rule of Evidence 901, for purposes of the above-captioned case only.

2. For purposes of this Order, "presumed genuine and authentic" means that a document satisfies the authenticity requirement of Rule 901(a) and shall not be excluded from the evidence on authenticity grounds, absent a showing of good cause. For the avoidance of doubt, a Party seeking to admit a presumptively authentic document into the evidence is not required to authenticate that document using live testimony, video testimony, self-authentication, or any other means of authentication.

3. The parties further stipulate that the public records exception to hearsay within the meaning of Federal Rule of Evidence 803(8) shall apply and records, absent a showing of good cause, shall not be excluded from evidence on hearsay grounds.

4. This Stipulation does not preclude objections on grounds of relevance under Federal Rules of Evidence 401, 402, and 403.

5. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, this Order shall not in any respect preclude any Party from making arguments at trial regarding the authenticity of any document, even if that document is presumptively authentic and has been admitted into evidence.
