On June 27, 2000, defendant filed two motions to compel discovery in the above-referenced matter and served them on plaintiff by mail. Pursuant to Local Rule 7.06, DSC, the deadline to respond to these motions is July 17, 2000.¹ The parties are engaged in substantive and serious discussions regarding resolution of this matter and agree that the Court should stay the deadline for responding to defendant's motions until July 31, 2000. Defendant consents to this Order.

For the foregoing reason, plaintiff's deadline to respond to defendant's motions is stayed until July 31, 2000.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

The Hon. Bristow Marchant
United States Magistrate Judge

¹Counsel has included the additional three days granted by Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(e).
