(10)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	[Other docket entry] Motion hearing held on Defendant's emergency motion for sanctions. Defendant's emergency motion for sanctions is granted in part, denied in part and briefed in part as follows: EEOC is to direct BD to determine whether the e-mails are still there and, if so, to produce them to the defendant or else file an affidavit explaining why they no longer exist. EEOC is to provide defendant with an explanation of how the pay records support BD's claim for sexual harassment. Defendant's request for BD to appear for further deposition is denied without prejudice pending the outcome of her search for the e-mails. EEOC is reminded that they have a continuing obligation to make their best effort to produce documents as they are received, but no later than 7 days prior to depositions. Section C of motion for sanctions is briefed as follows: Response due 10/4/04; Reply due 10/12/04; Ruling by mail by 10/26/04 on the issue of whether the attorney-client privilege applies to communications between the EEOC and the class plaintiffs regarding their obligation to search for and produce documents.
