		JOINT STIPULATION OF DISMISSAL OF

1	ORDER
3	BASED ON THE PARTIES' STIPULATION AND GOOD CAUSE
4	APPEARING THEREFORE, this Court finds that Plaintiff Luis Pocasangre Cardoza may
5	not represent the alleged class of Hispanic applicants who contend that they were
6	discriminated against when they were not hired, and the alleged class of Hispanic
7	employees who contend that they were discriminated against when they were not
8	promoted, to driver ("SSR") positions in Cintas' Rental Division in violation of Section
9	1981, Title VII, FEHA and Section 17200 as set forth in the Fourth Amended Complaint

10 PREJUDICE Plaintiff Luis Pocasangre Cardoza's claims on behalf of this alleged class.

at paragraphs 33-40, 48(c), and 49(b); on this basis the Court DISMISSES WITH

This Court DISMISSES WITH PREJUDICE Plaintiff Luis Pocasangre Cardoza's individual claims that Cintas has violated Section 1981, Title VII, FEHA and Section 17200 by allegedly refusing to hire him as an SSR and refusing promote him to an SSR position because of his race (Hispanic) and national origin (El Salvador), and by causing him to resign as a result of discrimination.

The parties have agreed that Plaintiffs' counsel will not include any attorneys' fees or costs incurred as part of maintaining Cardoza's individual claims (or the class claims Cardoza has asserted if there is no adequate class representative to represent the putative class described in paragraphs 48(c) and 49(b) of the FAC), should they later apply for an award of attorneys' fees or costs in this litigation. However, if Plaintiffs or

2	Plaintiffs' counsel apply for an award of attorneys' fees and costs, this Order will not
3	preclude them from arguing that some portion of the time and costs spent on the class
4	claims asserted by Cardoza should be allocated to a claim on which Plaintiffs prevailed
	(including a claim of discrimination in hiring for the SSR job, if Plaintiffs prevail on that
5	claim); and nothing in this Order will preclude Defendant from asserting any legal
6	arguments in opposition to such an allocation.
8	Finally, Cintas may not recover costs against Plaintiff Luis Pocasangre
9	Cardoza.
