

PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS SUMMARY

Week ending July 24

SOUTH CAROLINA - NON-COMPLIANCE

* = Instances of possible interference.

*7/4--LHM--CHARLESTON - Reverend B. J. Glover, Chairman of the Charleston movement which sponsored demonstrations in that city in the summer of 1963, was refused service by Wesley W. Graves, manager of the Hotel Fort Sumter on July 3, 1964.

7/13--CHARLESTON - Police Chief (Folly Beach) Julian Bunch said after a recent riot in the beach, "I intend to enforce state statutes. Anyone who violates the laws will be arrested."

7/3--COLUMBIA - Reverend John Mungin reported that he was refused service at Little Joe's Sandwich Shop.

7/4--COLUMBIA - Two Negroes were stopped at the door and refused entrance to the Piggie Park Sandwich Shop. The President of Columbia's NAACP says he believes Columbians will react to the bill as they did to the integration of lunch counters which was a peaceful integration.

7/23--FOLLY BEACH - Test will be made 7/25. SA Deily of FBI says this is not a particularly troublesome area.

7/7--ISLE OF PALMS - Five Negro youths visited at Isle of Palms and Isle of Palms Beach and were informed by the Chief of Police that unless they left, he would arrest them for trespass. They left and no arrests were made.

7/7--LANCASTER - A group of Negroes were refused admittance to the Parr Theatre. The manager told them the first one who put a foot at the theatre would be shot.

*7/13--MYRTLE BEACH - Luther West, operator of a barber shop in the resort's bus terminal, has been quoted as saying he has been refusing to cut a Negro's hair.

SOUTH CAROLINA - NON-COMPLIANCE

7/9--ROCK HILL - Attempts to integrate various restaurants were largely unsuccessful. A meeting was called for 7/10 to discuss further testing.

7/12--WALTERBORO - Letter from Fellie Sweat advising refusal of admission at Cook Theatre.
