I. RECITALS

1. This matter was instituted by Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC” or “the Commission”), an agency of the United States, against Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation, a Delaware Corporation, under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (“Title VII”), and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991 (“CRA”) to correct alleged unlawful employment practices on the basis of national origin, including subjecting Hispanic employees to a hostile work environment, harassing Hispanic employees, and subjecting Hispanic employees to disparate terms and conditions of employment at its Grand Junction facility.

2. This action was consolidated with a lawsuit filed by Plaintiff Raymond A. (“Tony”) Arellano against Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation, 03-Z-0984 (PAC) for actions relating to Arellano’s employment at the Grand Junction facility. The use of the term “lawsuit” means the cases brought by the EEOC and Arellano and consolidated in Civil Action No. 03-Z-1663.

3. Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation denied it engaged in, or failed to correct, unlawful employment practices on the basis of national origin; denied it subjected its Hispanic employees to a hostile work environment; and denied it harassed Hispanic employees or subjected Hispanic employees to disparate terms and conditions of employment at its Grand Junction facility. Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation denied Arellano’s allegations.

4. By entering into this Consent Decree, Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation is not making any admission it violated any laws and the company affirmatively states that it continues to assert there were no violations of law as alleged by the EEOC or Arellano.

5. This Consent Decree, being voluntarily entered into by the Parties, shall not constitute any admission or an adjudication of the merits or the damages of this lawsuit and it will not be construed as an admission of any legal violations. Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation denies any such violations.

6. The Parties, desiring to settle this action by an appropriate Consent Decree, agree to the jurisdiction of this Court over the Parties and the subject matter of this action, and agree to the power of this Court to enter a Consent Decree.

7. This Consent Decree is final and binding upon the Parties as to the issues resolved, as well as upon their successors and assigns.

8. The Parties agree that this Consent Decree resolves the issues alleged by the Parties in this lawsuit and constitutes a complete resolution of all the Parties' claims against Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation that were made or could have been made against Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation in this action up to the date of entry of this Consent Decree.

9. This Consent Decree resolves all claims alleged in this lawsuit, including backpay, front pay, compensatory and punitive damages, interest, injunctive relief, attorneys' fees and costs and any other claims that may be raised out of the issues in this lawsuit.

10. In consideration of the payouts received pursuant to this Consent Decree, each Claimant and/or Class Member and Arellano agree to enter into a separate release and covenant not to sue.

II. JURISDICTION

1. The Court has jurisdiction over the Parties and the subject matter of this lawsuit. The EEOC's Complaint and Plaintiff Arellano's Complaint assert claims that, if proven, would authorize the Court to grant the monetary and equitable relief set forth in this Consent Decree against Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation. This Consent Decree conforms with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Title VII and is not in derogation of the rights and privileges of any person. The Court shall retain jurisdiction of this action for the duration of the Consent Decree for the purposes of entering all orders, judgments, and decrees which may be necessary to implement the relief provided herein.

III. DEFINITIONS

1. Claimant or Class Member. An individual who is encompassed by EEOC's allegations that Hispanic employees were subject to the hostile work environment at Hamilton Sundstrand's Grand Junction facility, and/or were subject to disparate terms and conditions of employment, and who is designated as a Claimant and/or Class Member and is listed on Exhibit 1 (filed under seal). Arellano is also a Claimant and/or Class Member.

2. Class. The class of individuals covered by this Consent Decree consists of twelve employees who worked at the Hamilton Sundstrand's Grand Junction facility during the timeframe from 1997 to the present.

3. Complaint of Discrimination, Harassment, or Retaliation. A complaint of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation, shall be any complaint, which comes to the attention of a supervisor, manager, or any human resources employee at Hamilton Sundstrand's Grand Junction facility and makes allegations that are understood, or reasonably should be understood, by any supervisor, manager, or any Hamilton Sundstrand human resources employee as an allegation of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation.

4. EEO. The term “EEO” shall refer to the phrase “equal employment opportunity.”
5. EEO Coordinator. A Hamilton Sundstrand employee who is responsible for ensuring compliance with this Consent Decree. Hamilton Sundstrand will appoint an EEO Coordinator. The EEO Coordinator will be assisted by the Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation EEO Manager at Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation’s Windsor Locks facility. Employees may contact the Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation EEO Manager directly if they have concerns that their EEO complaints will not be, or are not being, addressed by the EEO Coordinator.
6. Hamilton Sundstrand. Unless otherwise indicated shall mean Hamilton Sundstrand’s Grand Junction facility and employees. Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation was the named Defendant in this lawsuit.
7. Effective Date. The Effective Date of this Consent Decree is the date on which the Court gives final approval to the Consent Decree.
8. Parties. The Parties to this Consent Decree are Plaintiff U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”), Plaintiff Raymond A. (“Tony”) Arellano (“Arellano”) and Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation. The claims being asserted by the EEOC include the claims of the Claimants and/or Class Members.
9. Private Counsel. Attorneys representing Plaintiff Arellano in this action.

IV. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Scope. This Consent Decree covers Hamilton Sundstrand’s Grand Junction facility and employees.
2. Term of Consent Decree. This Consent Decree shall remain in effect for two (2) years subsequent to the Effective Date, or until Hamilton Sundstrand’s Grand Junction facility closes if such closure takes place before two (2) years. In the event the terms and obligations outlined in this Consent Decree are not completed within the term, the EEOC and Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation shall meet and confer concerning all matters that are alleged to constitute noncompliance. The Commission reserves the right to file an enforcement action under Section IX ("Enforcement of Consent Decree") of this Consent Decree to extend the Consent Decree for whatever period is necessary to allow Hamilton Sundstrand to comply fully with the terms of this Consent Decree. At such time as the Grand Junction facility is closed, the obligations under Sections VI (Affirmative Relief) and VIII (Reporting and Recordkeeping) shall end.

3. Compliance with Federal EEO Law. Nothing in this Consent Decree shall be construed to limit or reduce Hamilton Sundstrand's obligation to comply with the statutes enforced by the Commission.

4. Effect of Consent Decree. This Consent Decree is final and binding upon the Parties as to the issues resolved, as well as upon their successors and assigns. Hamilton Sundstrand's compliance with this Consent Decree will fully and completely resolve all issues of law and fact which could be raised by the Commission, and Arellano, arising out of the below-referenced charges and this litigation against Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation.

5. Complete Consent Decree. This Consent Decree constitutes the complete understanding among the Parties with respect to the matters herein. The Parties agree that this Consent Decree resolves all issues raised in EEOC Charge Numbers 32AA00827, 320-2005-00736, 320-2005-00737, 320-2005-00738, and 320-

2005-00697, the issues alleged by EEOC and Arellano in this lawsuit, and constitutes a complete resolution of all the claims of EEOC and Arellano against Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation of unlawful employment practices under Title VII or other claims that were made or could have been made against Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation in this action and prior to the Effective Date of this Consent Decree. This Consent Decree resolves the following charges of discrimination currently pending before EEOC: 320-2005-00736, 320-2005-00737, 320-2005-00738, and 320-2005-00697. Arellano and Claimants and/or Class Members will sign individual releases and covenants not to sue for any actions or claims that were, or could have been raised against Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation, prior to the Effective Date of this Consent Decree.

6. Severability. If one or more provisions of this Consent Decree are rendered unlawful or unenforceable by act of Congress or by decision of the United States Supreme Court, the EEOC and Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation shall attempt to agree upon what amendments to this Consent Decree, if any, are appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this Consent Decree. In any event, the unaffected provisions will remain enforceable.

V. NON-DEROGATION OF EEOC RIGHTS

1. Waiver of Commission Claims. Nothing in this Consent Decree shall be construed to preclude the Commission from bringing action to enforce this Consent Decree in accordance with the enforcement provisions of Section IX (“Enforcement of Consent Decree”) below. Neither does this Consent Decree preclude the Commission from filing lawsuits based on charges not resolved in this Consent Decree.

2. EEOC Rights Reserved. The Commission reserves all rights to proceed with respect to matters not covered in this Consent Decree and to secure relief on behalf of aggrieved persons not covered by this Consent Decree. Under no circumstances shall the EEOC, by commenting or electing not to comment upon proposed policies or procedures pursuant to Section VI (“Affirmative Relief”), be deemed to have waived its right to investigate or litigate any alleged adverse effects of said policy upon equal employment opportunities. Nor shall the EEOC, by commenting or electing not to comment upon said policies or procedures, be considered to have accepted the validity of, or approved, the provisions adopted by Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation.

3. Charges Pending or Filed After the Effective Date. Any individual charges of discrimination pending or filed with the EEOC or the Colorado Civil Rights Division, after the Effective Date of this Consent Decree, based on conduct alleged to have occurred prior to the Effective Date of this Consent Decree (for employees not covered by this Consent Decree), will be processed by the Commission in accordance with its standard procedures. For Arellano and Claimants and/or Class Members, charges alleging solely actions alleged to have occurred prior to the Effective Date of this Consent Decree will not be deemed cause by the EEOC because all such claims are resolved by this Consent Decree.

VI. AFFIRMATIVE RELIEF

1. Notice and Posting of Consent Decree Notice.

a. Posting. Within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date of this Consent Decree, Hamilton Sundstrand shall conspicuously post the Notice to Employees attached hereto as Exhibit 2, on the Human Resources bulletin board.

b. Orientation on Consent Decree. Prior to posting the Notice required in the preceding Paragraph VI(1)(a), Hamilton Sundstrand shall conduct an orientation meeting advising all supervisors, managers and human resource employees with authority over Hamilton Sundstrand employees, of the terms and conditions of the Consent Decree, with emphasis on the anti-retaliation provisions of the Consent Decree. Hamilton Sundstrand shall notify the EEOC of the dates, times and locations at least seven (7) business days prior to the orientation meeting. The EEOC shall have the right to participate in any or all such meetings during which time it will be given the opportunity to review the Consent Decree with the group to emphasize those parts of the Consent Decree the EEOC wishes to stress. In addition, Hamilton Sundstrand shall inform its supervisors, managers and human resource employees that any breach of, or failure to comply with, the terms and conditions set forth in this Consent Decree shall subject them to dismissal or other appropriate disciplinary action.

c. No Discrimination. Hamilton Sundstrand shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant in hiring, promotions, pay, assignment of duties, performance evaluation, discipline, terms, or knowingly subject an employee to a hostile work environment, because of national origin, race and/or color. Hamilton Sundstrand shall consider all Hispanic applicants on the same basis as all other applicants. Hamilton Sundstrand shall afford all Hispanic employees the same training and conditions of employment it affords all other employees in similar positions.

d. No Retaliation. Hamilton Sundstrand shall not retaliate against any current or former employee or Class Member for his or her participation in the EEOC process, for participation in the investigation by the EEOC into this matter; for participation in this lawsuit, or for asserting any rights under this Consent Decree.

2. EEO Coordinator.

a. Hamilton Sundstrand will designate an EEO Coordinator to oversee Hamilton Sundstrand's compliance with and implementation of this Consent Decree. The EEO Coordinator will be assisted by the Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation EEO Manager.

c. Meet and Confer with the EEO Coordinator. The EEO Coordinator and the Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation EEO Manager will meet (in person or telephonically) at least quarterly with the EEOC to review various EEO matters, including but not limited to the following:

- discuss investigation of employee complaints alleging discrimination, harassment, or retaliation (if any such complaints are raised); and
- discuss progress toward implementing those items set out in subparagraph “b” above.

3. EEO Training.

a. Development of EEO Training Program. Within 20 (twenty) days of the Effective Date of this Consent Decree, Hamilton Sundstrand shall submit to the EEOC an EEO training program for non-supervisory employees, supervisory employees, and human resource employees. Each training program will include the following information: (a) a detailed agenda; (b) curriculum vitae(s) for the individual(s) who will conduct the training; (c) a plan to ensure that all employees receive the required training. Any dispute between Hamilton Sundstrand and EEOC as to the adequacy of the Training Program shall be resolved under the informal resolution procedures set forth in Section IX below.

b. Amount of Training Required.

- Non-Supervisory Employees. Hamilton Sundstrand will provide non-supervisory employees at least two (2) hours of EEO training during the first year of this Consent Decree, or prior to any plant closure, and should at least 25% of the non-supervisory employees remain employed during the following year, an additional one (1) hour of training will be provided in the following year. This training may be by videotape or computer presentation and may be made by qualified Hamilton Sundstrand human resource employees.

- Supervisory Employees. Hamilton Sundstrand will provide supervisory employees at least two (2) hours of EEO training during the first year of this Consent Decree, or prior to any plant closure, and should at least 25% of the supervisory employees remain employed during the following year, an additional one (1) hour of training will be provided in the following year. This training must be conducted live and may be presented by qualified Hamilton Sundstrand human resource employees.
- Human Resource Employees. Hamilton Sundstrand will provide human resource employees at least four (4) hours of EEO training within the first year of this Consent Decree, or prior to the plant closure, and if 25% of the plant personnel remain employed during the following year, an additional two (2) hours of training will be provided in the following year. This training must be conducted live, by individuals not employed by Hamilton Sundstrand.
- Required Subjects of Training. At a minimum, the EEO training programs shall include the following:

Age Discrimination in Employment Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act;

- a review of Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation's non-discrimination employment policies;
- the prohibition on retaliating against any employee who complains about discrimination against himself or others, or participates in an investigation of a discrimination complaint;
- training for supervisors, managers and human resource employees shall include instruction on how to recognize complaints of discrimination and how to recognize inappropriate behavior in the workplace. It will emphasize the company's obligation to take prompt action in response to discrimination complaints, and emphasize the Human Resource Employee's role in conducting investigations and responding to and implementing discipline; and
- an explanation of the Dialog and Ombudsman program.

4. Modification and Implementation of EEO Policies and Procedures.

a. Review of Policies. During the first year of this Consent Decree, Hamilton Sundstrand will reissue the revised policies attached hereto as Exhibit 3. Specifically, these policies are the Zero Tolerance Statement, Policy Statement on a Harassment-Free Workplace and Reaffirmation of Equal Employment Opportunities Policy. In making these revisions, Defendant Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation consulted with the EEOC.

b. EEOC Input Not a Waiver. Under no circumstances shall the EEOC, by commenting or electing not to comment upon Hamilton Sundstrand's proposed changes or amendments, be deemed to have waived its right to investigate or litigate any alleged adverse effects of said policy upon equal employment opportunities.

5. Separation Agreements or Releases.

a. Non-Retaliation in Assisting with Lawsuits or in Bringing Charges of Discrimination. Hamilton Sundstrand will remove all language from the Complete Release and Waiver of Claims section in the General Release and Covenant Not to Sue Agreement used in conjunction with the plant closure in Grand Junction that prohibits, in any way, or construes as a breach of said General Release and Covenant Not to Sue Agreement, assisting another person or entity in bringing a charge of discrimination and/or a lawsuit against Hamilton Sundstrand.

b. Non-Retaliation in Hiring. Hamilton Sundstrand will remove all language from the Complete Release and Waiver of Claims section in the General Release and Covenant Not to Sue Agreement used in conjunction with the plant closure that prohibits, in any way, or construes as a breach of said General Release and Covenant Not to Sue Agreement, a signee from re-applying for employment at Hamilton Sundstrand. Any signee to a General Release and Covenant Not to Sue Agreement shall have the same rights to be considered for future employment by Hamilton Sundstrand as any other applicant.

c. Non-Discrimination in Separation Agreements or Releases. Hamilton Sundstrand will provide performance incentive earnings to all employees on a non-discriminatory basis. Claimants and/or Class Members who are still employed must meet the eligibility requirements for performance incentive earnings as other similarly situated employees. Claimants and/or Class Members who receive a monetary payment under this Consent Decree are entitled to the same benefits afforded to any other employees who meet the eligibility requirements and are entitled to have those benefits calculated in a non-discriminatory manner, using the same method of calculating such benefits as used for other similarly-situated employees.

VII. MONETARY RELIEF

POLICY STATEMENT ON A HARASSMENT-FREE WORKPLACE

Each of us at Hamilton Sundstrand deserves a workplace where we can achieve our full potential. Nothing so utterly detracts from that environment as harassment of employees -- for any reason. When an employee is harassed because of some innate personal characteristic, such as race, gender, color, veteran status, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, age or religion, it is not only bad manners, bad business, and in most cases unlawful, it is also a violation of Company policy. Harassment is unwelcome conduct that interferes with and has no bearing on an employee's job performance. It can be spoken or written, graphic or physical and may include foul or obscene language or name-calling. It can be done to offend, or simply as insensitive joking. With any form of harassment, this conduct is obviously unwelcome if an employee complains. Even without a complaint, each of us must be sensitive to the way in which our words and actions are perceived by others. If they could reasonably be perceived as offensive and unwelcome, they can be unlawful harassment. Simply stated, harassment, of any kind has no place in the Company's environment and will not be tolerated.

Sexual harassment deserves special mention. It is plainly wrong and unlawful for a supervisor or anyone else in authority to base an employment decision such as hiring, firing, promotion, demotion or transfer on submission to or rejection of unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors. Such conduct is sexual harassment in its most direct form and is prohibited by law and Company policy. Sexual harassment can also be through unwelcome sexual conduct that unreasonably interferes with an individual's job performance or creates an intimidating hostile or offensive work environment. Sexual harassment may include explicit sexual propositions, sexual innuendo, suggestive comments, sexually oriented kidding or teasing, practical jokes, jokes about gender specific traits, foul or obscene language or gestures, display of foul or obscene material, and physical contact such as patting, pinching, or brushing against another's body. As with other forms of harassment, this type of conduct is obviously unwelcome if an employee complains. Again, even without a complaint, each of us must be cognizant of the way in which our words and actions are perceived by others. If they could reasonably be perceived as offensive and unwelcome, they can be unlawful harassment.

Each of us must help keep the workplace free of personal harassment. If you are being harassed, tell the harasser to stop; tell the harasser his or her advances, comments or gestures are unwelcome and offensive. If you have witnessed or been the victim of harassment, you should immediately notify the Company through one or more of these procedures: (1) inform your supervisor (unless he/she is in the alleged harasser), (2) inform your Human Resource Representative or (3) the Diversity/EEO Manager. United Technologies and Hamilton Sundstrand forbid retaliation against anyone who reports harassment or cooperates in an investigation of harassment.

It is the Company's policy to investigate each harassment complaint thoroughly and promptly. To the extent practicable, any complaint and the terms of its resolution will be kept confidential. If any investigation finds harassment has occurred, the Company will take disciplinary action, which may include the termination of employment.
