CONSENT DECREE

MICHAEL E. HUNZ, Clerk
By any Dep. Clerk

A. This action was brought by the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("the EEOC" or "the Commission") on July 1, 2005, against Defendant Bogan, Inc./Hake Group ("Bogan/Hake") under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991 to correct unlawful employment practices on the basis of race (Black) and to provide appropriate relief to Charging Party Keith Riddick, and a class of similarly situated Black employees who were adversely affected by such practices.

In its lawsuit, the EEOC alleged that Defendant Bogan/Hake subjected Black employees to a hostile work environment based on race in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 ("Title VII"). EEOC further alleges that although Keith Riddick and class members complained about the racial harassment, Defendant Bogan/Hake failed to take prompt, effective, remedial measures to correct the racially hostile work environment. Defendant Bogan/Hake denies these allegations.

B. This Consent Decree is entered into by and shall be final and binding between the EEOC and Defendant Bogan/Hake, their directors, officers, agents, successors and assigns.

C. The EEOC and Defendant Bogan/Hake agree to entry of this Consent Decree, which shall fully and finally resolve all claims the EEOC raised against Defendant Bogan/Hake in its Complaint in Civil Action No. 2:05-cv-3389-TMG. This Consent Decree shall not constitute either an adjudication of or finding on the merits of the complaint and shall not be construed as an admission by Defendant Bogan/Hake of any violation of Title VII.

Findings

D. Having carefully examined the terms and provisions of this Consent Decree, and based on the pleadings, record and stipulations of the parties, the Court finds: (1) it has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter jurisdiction of this action; and (2) the terms of this Decree are fair, reasonable, equitable and just, and adequately protect the rights of the parties, class members and the public interest.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

Non-Discrimination and Non-Retaliation

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter of this action.
2. Defendant Bogan/Hake shall not engage in any employment practice which operates to harass individuals based on race in violation of Title VII. Specifically, Defendant Bogan/Hake shall not create, foster, or tolerate a hostile work environment based on race.
3. Defendant Bogan/Hake shall not engage in any employment practices which retaliate in any manner against any person, including but not limited to Keith Riddick, Jeffrey Campbell or any individual identified or named during this litigation and/or during the EEOC's investigation into the charges filed by Keith Riddick as a claimant, potential claimant, or witness, because of that person's opposition to any practice made an unlawful employment practice under Title VII or because that person has made a charge, testified, assisted or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding or hearing under Title VII.

4. Defendant Bogan/Hake shall not divulge, directly or indirectly, to any identifiable employer or potential employer of Keith Riddick, Jeffrey Campbell, and any individual identified or named during the EEOC's investigation into the charges filed by Keith Riddick as a claimant, potential claimant, or witness, any of the facts or circumstances related to the claims of discrimination against Defendant Bogan/Hake in this case or any of the events relating to their participation in the EEOC's investigation or in the litigation of this action.

5. Nothing in this Consent Decree, either by inclusion or exclusion, shall be construed to limit the obligations of Defendant Bogan/Hake under Title VII or the EEOC's authority to process or litigate any charge of discrimination now pending, if any, or filed in the future against Defendants.

DURATION OF THE DECREE

6. The Decree shall be in effect for a period of four (4) years from the date it is entered by the Court.

MONETARY RELIEF

7. The monetary relief will be paid in the following manner: within 14 business days after receipt of a Release executed by Keith Riddick and Jeffrey Campbell and the Court's entry of the Consent Decree, whichever date is later, Defendant Bogan/Hake will pay Keith Riddick and Jeffrey Campbell a total of four hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($450,000.00), as set forth on Exhibit 1. If Defendant Bogan/Hake does not make payment in the manner set forth in this Paragraph, the Court will enter a judgment for the entire amount remaining due, plus attorneys fees, costs, and interest paid at the legal rate, compounded daily.

The check(s) will be mailed to Keith Riddick and Jeffrey Campbell c/o Joanne Rathgeber, Esq., Hill Wallack, LLP, 111 East Court Street, Doylestown, PA 18901. If there are any changes in address, the EEOC will provide notice by certified mail to counsel for Defendant Bogan/Hake. If the EEOC

NOTICE TO ALL BOGAN/HAKE EMPLOYEES

This Notice is posted pursuant to a Consent Decree entered by the federal court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania in EEOC v. Conectiv, et al, Civil Action Number 05-3389, resolving a lawsuit filed by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") against Defendant Bogan/Hake.

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., as amended ("Title VII"), prohibits discrimination against employees and applicants for employment based upon race, national origin, sex, color or religion. Title VII further prohibits retaliation against employees or applicants who avail themselves of the rights under Title VII by engaging in protected activities, such as filing a charge of discrimination and/or testifying or participating in a Commission investigation. The EEOC is the federal agency which investigates charges of unlawful employment discrimination. The EEOC has the authority to bring lawsuits in federal court to enforce Title VII.

In its lawsuit, the EEOC alleged that Defendant Bogan/Hake subjected African-American employees to a hostile work environment based on race in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 ("Title VII"). Defendant Bogan/Hake denies these allegations.

This case has been resolved. Defendant Bogan/Hake will not retaliate against any person because he or she opposed any practice made unlawful by Title VII, filed a Title VII charge of discrimination, participated in any Title VII proceeding, or asserted any rights under the Settlement Agreement. Defendant Bogan/Hake will train its employees regarding racial harassment and Defendant Bogan/Hake's policy prohibiting racial harassment. Defendant Bogan/Hake will pay monetary relief to the aggrieved individuals. Defendant Bogan/Hake will not discriminate on the basis of race, national origin, sex, color or religion or any protected category.

If you believe you have been discriminated against, you may contact the EEOC at (215) 440-2600. The EEOC charges no fees and has employees who speak languages other than English.
