Appellants motion for an injunction pending appeal is denied for failure to comply with Fed. R. App. P. 8(a). Although appellants moved for an injunction pending appeal in the district court, they neither sought expedited consideration of the same nor awaited the district courts consideration of the motion on the date noted in their motion. This denial, however, is without prejudice to renewal, if necessary, following the district courts ruling on the motion for an injunction pending the appeal filed in the district court on October 17, 2011. To permit the district court sufficient time to consider the motion, the court grants temporary injunctive relief. Appellees are temporarily enjoined from releasing any further Referendum 71 petitions. This temporary injunction shall remain in effect for 5 days following the district courts ruling. The briefing schedule established previously shall remain in effect. (SA) (Entered: 10/25/2011)
