ORDER

This matter is before me on plaintiffs' supplemental motion for attorneys' fees. On June 3, 2004, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit affirmed the September 10, 2003 declaratory judgment of this Court, granting the plaintiffs all relief requested in their complaint. On August 12, 2004, the Eighth Circuit granted the plaintiffs' request for attorney fees in part, but specifically denied fees for all work done by plaintiffs in response to the defendants' motion to stay pending appeal.

The plaintiffs now move for the attorneys' fees that the Eighth Circuit denied. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988(b), the plaintiffs have demonstrated that they were prevailing parties at all stages of this litigation and that the attorneys' fees they have requested are reasonable. The defendants have failed to respond to this motion, and their time for doing so has expired.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that plaintiffs' supplemental motion for attorneys' fees [# 73] is granted, and plaintiffs are awarded attorneys' fees in the amount of $1,487.50.
