The effort should be coordinated with the information system changes underway pursuant to the Armstrong court's order. To the extent that Defendants determine that certain of these functions can best be accomplished by modifying the DAPO information system, sufficient resources shall also be made available for that purpose. Planning for these changes shall be initiated within 60 days of this order. Defendants shall provide to the Special Master and Plaintiffs periodic reports on the progress of these changes; the first of these shall be due six months after the date of this order, and every six months thereafter until the Special Master determines the improvements are complete. The system changes shall be completed within one year and six months of this order. Defendants shall institute and maintain the infrastructure needed for self- monitoring, staffed by subject matter experts working in a department outside of the departments being reviewed. The infrastructure shall include staffing and resources sufficient to conduct site visits, assessments, and quality improvement efforts at the Decentralized Revocation Units, contracted jail facilities, contracted legal services for parolees, CDCR and non-CDCR facilities providing remedial sanctions, and other facilities and services falling under the auspices of the Valdivia remedies.
