This is to advise you that on March , 1984, United States District Judge Neal P. McCurn entered a Partial Final Judgment by consent in this lawsuit. The Judgment deals with your rights to receive publications in prison and establishes procedures the defendants must follow in approving or disapproving publications you wish to receive. You must read the Partial Final Judgment itself if you wish to know exactly what your rights are. Full copies of the Judgment are available from: The Legal Aid Society, Prisoners' Rights Project, 15 Park Row, 7th Floor, New York, New York 10038

This notice is to be distributed to every inmate at Auburn and Clinton Correctional Facilities and is to be posted in each housing area of the facilities for a period of six months after entry of the Judgment and permanently posted in each facility's law library or libraries.
