ORDER VACATING SHOW CAUSE ORDER

At a session of said Court, held in the U.S. Courthouse, Detroit, Michigan on February 3, 2010

PRESENT: Honorable Gerald E. Rosen
Chief Judge, United States District Court

On December 28, 2009, this Court entered an Opinion and Order denying Plaintiff's Motion for a Preliminary Injunction. In that Opinion and Order, the Court also directed the parties to show cause in writing within 14 days why the order denying the preliminary injunction should not be converted to a final judgment on the merits pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(a)(2).

Plaintiff timely responded to the Show Cause Order and Defendants replied. Both parties thereafter sur-replied and filed supplemental briefs.

Having reviewed and considered the parties' briefs, the Court has concluded that sufficient good cause has been shown for not converting the ruling on Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction into a final judgment on the merits. Therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Court's show cause order is VACATED. A Scheduling Order will be issued setting further deadlines in this case.

SO ORDERED.
