Some modifications proposed in the September 16, 2013, letter resolve prior deficiencies, and the court accepts proposed modifications 1 and 2. However, the Settlement Agreement still does not sufficiently establish mechanisms to enable court supervision of the settlement. Settlement agreements in similar Olmstead cases have established a more explicit and unrestricted monitoring role for the courts involved, and the agreements in these cases are instructive templates, see Order. If the parties have objections to provisions such as the ones excerpted above (see Order), they shall raise them with the court by letter. If not, the parties shall confer and provide the court with modifications to the current Settlement Agreement adopting sufficient similar provisions. Ordered by Judge Nicholas G. 04/20/2016	66	ORDER re 16-CV-1683, 13-CV-4165, and, 13-CV-4166: The court notes that the 10 and 13 letters requesting reassignment do not comply with the court's individual rules requiring parties to request a pre-motion conference prior to filing a motion. However, if Residents and Families Plaintiffs and Empire Plaintiffs wish to move for the reassignment and/or remand of Residents and Families United, they must make a formal, omnibus motion to that effect. The court sets the following briefing schedule: Residents and Families Plaintiffs and Empire Plaintiffs shall serve their motions upon all parties in all three above-captioned cases by April 29, 2016; those parties shall serve their responses upon Residents and Families Plaintiffs and Empire Plaintiffs by May 13, 2016; and Residents and Families Plaintiffs and Empire Plaintiffs shall serve their replies, if any, upon the other parties and electronically file the fully briefed motions by May 20, 2016. Finally, the court GRANTS Defendants' motion for an extension of time to answer the Second Amended Complaint in Residents and Families United, until fourteen (14) days following a decision on Plaintiffs' anticipated motions.
