05/07/2015	82	OPINION of USCA as to 78 Notice of Appeal, filed by New York Civil Liberties Union Foundation, New York Civil Liberties Union, American Civil Liberties Union, American Civil Liberties Union Foundation. USCA Case Number 14-0042-cv. Plaintiffs-appellants American Civil Liberties Union and American Civil Liberties Union Foundation, and New York Civil Liberties Union and New York Civil Liberties Union Foundation, appeal from a decision of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (William H. Pauley, III, Judge) granting defendants-appellees' motion to dismiss and denying plaintiffs-appellants' request for a preliminary injunction. The district court held that 215 of the PATRIOT Act impliedly precludes judicial review; that plaintiffs-appellants' statutory claims regarding the scope of 215 would in any event fail on the merits; and that 215 does not violate the Fourth or First Amendments to the United States Constitution. We disagree in part, and hold that 215 and the statutory scheme to which it relates do not preclude judicial review, and that the bulk telephone metadata program is not authorized by 215. We therefore VACATE the judgment of the district court and REMAND for further proceedings consistent with this opinion. Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe, Clerk

10/29/2015	84	OPINION of USCA as to 78 Notice of Appeal, filed by New York Civil Liberties Union Foundation, New York Civil Liberties Union, American Civil Liberties Union, American Civil Liberties Union Foundation. USCA Case Number 14-042-cv. Plaintiffs-appellants American Civil Liberties Union and American Civil Liberties Union Foundation, and New York Civil Liberties Union and New York Civil Liberties Union Foundation, move for a preliminary injunction, requesting various relief. We conclude that Congress intended to authorize the continuation of the bulk telephone metadata collection program for a limited period of 180 days, and decline to reach the constitutional issues for prudential reasons. We therefore DENY the motion for a preliminary injunction and REMAND for further proceedings in the district court consistent with this opinion and our prior opinion in this case.
