03/19/2013	375	MEMORANDUM AND ORDER granting in part and denying in part 344 Motion to Dismiss for Failure to State a Claim; granting 347 Motion to Certify Class. For the foregoing reasons, Defendants' motion to dismiss is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART, and the claims against Defendants DeMarco, Caracappa, and Meyerricks are DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. All other claims survive. The Named Plaintiffs are GRANTED leave to file a Second Consolidated Class Action Complaint that corrects the pleading defects with respect to the claims against the Individual Defendants. Such amended pleading shall be filed within thirty days (30) of the date of this Memorandum and Order. Further, the Named Plaintiffs' motion for class certification is GRANTED. It is therefore hereby: ORDERED that the following classes and subclasses are certified: (1) an Injunctive Class comprised of all persons who, now or at any time in the future, are or will be detainees or prisoners in the custody of the Suffolk County Sheriff's Department and housed in the SCCF, with separate subclasses for those persons detained in Riverhead and Yaphank; and (2) a Damages Class comprised of all persons who are or were detainees or prisoners in the custody of the Suffolk County Sheriff's Department and housed in the SCCF and who were or will be released from the SCCF on or after April 5, 2009, with separate subclasses for those persons detained in Riverhead and Yaphank. The Injunctive Class and subclasses are certified to seek declaratory and injunctive relief only; whereas the Damages Class and subclasses is certified to seek any and all monetary relief available to the class. It is further ORDERED that Butler and Sims are appointed the class representatives for the Riverhead Injunctive Subclass; that Lofton and Alver are appointed class representatives for the Yaphank Injunctive Subclass; that King is appointed class representative for the Riverhead Damages Subclass; and that Lynch is appointed class representative for the Yaphank Damages Subclass. It is further ORDERED that the Named Plaintiffs' attorneys of record are appointed class counsel. So Ordered by Judge Joanna Seybert on 3/19/2013. C/ECF (Valle, Christine) (Entered: 03/19/2013)

09/19/2019		ELECTRONIC ORDER terminating 478 Motion for Summary Judgment; terminating 483 Motion for Summary Judgment. In its summary judgment motion, the County argues that Plaintiffs' claims are unexhausted and must be dismissed pursuant to the Prison Litigation Reform Act ("PLRA"). The County points out that none of the Representative Plaintiffs filed grievances regarding conditions at the Yaphank Facility and that while one Representative Plaintiff filed a pre-suit grievance concerning the Riverhead Facility, he did not grieve the conditions about which Plaintiffs complain in this action. (County Br., D.E. 483-29, at 15.) In response, Plaintiffs contend that the exhaustion requirement does not apply to their claims, that exhaustion was excused because the grievance process was a "simple dead end," that exhaustion was excused because inmates were hindered and intimidated from grieving, and as relevant here, that class members other than the Representative Plaintiffs (with the limited exception of Sims (Pl. Opp., D.E. 488, at 4-5 & n.3)) either properly exhausted under the PLRA or were excused from exhausting because they "are not incarcerated (or [] were not incarcerated at the time of joining the class action)." (See Pl. Opp. at 4-6, 13-15, 22.) Upon review of several complaints that were consolidated into this action, the Court notes that other inmates purport to have filed grievances prior to filing suit. (E.g., Compl., Case No. 11-CV-5569, D.E. 1, at 2 (Yaphank Facility inmate claiming that he filed a grievance but was not given a response); Compl., Case No. 11-CV-4562, D.E. 1, at 2 (Riverhead Facility inmate claiming that he "[f]iled numerous grievances about the conditions").) The Court does not pass on the parties' arguments at this juncture. Rather, to the extent certain class members fully exhausted administrative remedies or "are not incarcerated (or [] were not incarcerated at the time of joining the class action) and are therefore not subject to the exhaustion requirement," the Court directs Plaintiffs to file a motion on or before October 17, 2019 proposing those class members as substitute class representatives. The County's response shall be filed on or before November 15, 2019, and Plaintiffs' reply, if any, shall be filed on or before November 29, 2019. The Court TERMINATES the pending summary judgment motions (D.E. 478, 483) at this time and will reinstate them when the substitution motion is fully briefed. Ordered by Judge Joanna Seybert on 9/19/2019. (Torreblanca, David) (Entered: 09/19/2019)
