Johnson v. O'Brien

JC-MO-010-016

Your Honor:

I'm an inmate in the St. Louis County Jail, Clayton, Mo. During my stay in this jail, as a pretrial detainee, I feel that my constitutional rights have been violated by the jail staff in such ways as;

A. Lack of medical attention and treatment - Once an inmate suddenly becomes ill or ~~has~~ bring to the attention of the staff concerning toothaches, he suffers great pain until he can be put on a lat to go to the county hospital, which takes weeks or maybe months. Also, there's no medical supervision at all during the weekends.

B. Filth and dirt in the food - There has been numerous of occasions where hair, egg shells, and all kinds of debris food in the meals. Mainly because there are other inmates who serve the meals; without wearing hairnets or protective gloves.

C. Recreation time - Inmates are given the opportunity to gym facilities for the purpose of exercise; maybe, once or twice within a ninety day period. No more than once a month.

D. Bedding and clothing - There's been numerous of times when an inmate doesn't get his sheets and uniforms exchange for at least a month or maybe more.

E. Adequate law library - Of all the concern violations, I feel that the lack of adequate law information is one of the most important needs here. With proper legal information; a defendant can have the knowledge of what's facing him during pre-trial proceedings. Knowing his rights as a defendant will enable to prepare his defense in a better manner than what's been prepared in the past.

I respectfully request the court to appoint counsel to represent me in these charges or to include me as plaintiff in the suits that
