

WO

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

Equal Employment Opportunity Commission,)	No. CV-06-2303-PHX-MHM
Plaintiff,)	ORDER vs.)
University of Phoenix, Inc., an Arizona corporation, and Apollo Group, Inc., an Arizona corporation,) Defendants.)

On May 2, 2008, the Court granted in part and denied in part a Motion to Intervene in the EEOC's enforcement action against the University of Phoenix and Apollo Group, Inc. (Dkt. #149). The proposed interveners whose Motions were denied have moved for reconsideration of the Court's Order. (Dkt. #152).

"The Court will ordinarily deny a motion for reconsideration of an order absent a showing of manifest error or a showing of new facts or legal authority that could not have been brought to its attention earlier with reasonable diligence." LRCiv. 7.2(g)(1). The motion "shall point out with specificity . . . any new matters being brought to the Court's attention for the first time and the reasons they were not presented earlier." Id.

The Court finds that the proposed interveners have not met their burden on their Motion for Reconsideration. They failed to demonstrate that the Court's Order constituted manifest error, or that they provided new facts or legal authority not previously before the

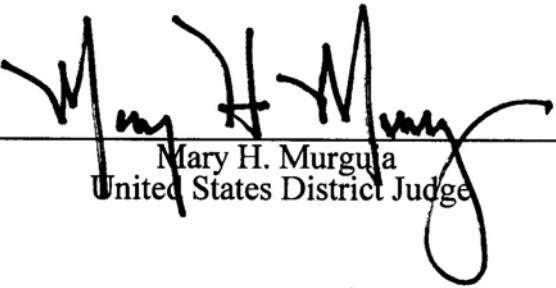

1 Court. Furthermore, the Response filed by the EEOC was filed in contravention of LR Civ.
2 7.2(g)(2), and thus, was not considered. (Dkt. #154).

3 Accordingly,

4 IT IS ORDERED denying the Motion for Reconsideration. (Dkt. #152).
