FIRST AMENDED SCHEDULING ORDER

Now before the Court is the parties' Joint Motion to Modify Scheduling Order (Doc. No. 44). The Court GRANTS the motion and enters the following amended scheduling order. This Order replaces the Court's September 23, 2011 Order.

December 15, 2011	The District shall respond to the United States' request for information and documents.
January 30, 2012	The United States shall conduct a site visit(s) to District's schools and the central office and shall interview selected District employees.
March 15, 2012	The United States shall advise the District of any additional information and documents needed as well as any additional persons it wishes to interview (either in person or telephonically) to conclude its review.
April 16, 2012	Informal discovery shall conclude, the District shall have provided all documents and information requested by the United States by this date.
June 30, 2012	The United States shall send the District a letter of findings regarding the status of the District's compliance with its federal desegregation obligations.

August 7, 2012

The District shall respond to the United States' findings. If the United States identifies any concern(s), the District shall propose remedial measures that it is willing to undertake and the timelines for implementing such measures.

September 30, 2012

The parties shall meet and confer either in person or by telephone in an effort to negotiate remaining issues in this case, if any.

This Order does not modify or eliminate any of the District's prior court-ordered reporting requirements, with the exception of the deadlines set in the September 23, 2011 Order.

The dates set forth herein shall only be modified for good cause, upon application and approval of the court.

It is SO ORDERED.

SIGNED this 23rd day of November, 2011.

MICHAEL H. SCHNEIDER
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
