- 1 Q. Okay. Anything else?
- 2 A. A working computer.3 Q. Fair enough. If you wanted to find out who
- 4 entered the text that is Exhibit 12, we're going
- to use your, the website or Joomla or some kind
- 6 of log on the computer to find that out. How
- 7 would you go about finding that out?
- 8 A. I don't know.
- 9 Q. What is your background or training or education
- in software or computers?
- 11 A. I have a computer science degree from Portland
- 12 Community College and a bachelor in information
- technology from the University of Massachusetts.
- 14 I've had, since 1985, so about approximately
- 15 16 years I have IT experience.
- 16 Q. You were employed at Nike; is that right?
- 17 A. Correct.
- 18 Q. What do you do at Nike?
- 19 A. I'm in the information technology department.
- 20 Currently I work on websites.
- 21 Q. Okay. Let's look for a minute at Exhibit 95.
- Would you take a minute and tell me whether you
- 23 recognize these as the e-mails that you provided
- to Mr. Roberson or his firm in response to our
- 25 request for documents?

- Q. Thank you. You've worked with Sergeant Cutrightthroughout that time period, I mean on and off?
- 4 A. Yes.
- 5 Q. Okay. When did you start doing work on the
 - website for the Columbia County Sheriff's
- 7 Office?
- 8 A. Approximately end of -- I don't know.
- 9 Q. Approximately?
- 10 A. It was at the time Sheriff Dickerson came into
- office and I don't recall. I think that was
- 12 2008 or 2009.
- 13 Q. Okay. I think the information we have is that
- he started in January 2009.
- 15 A. Yes.
- 16 Q. Does that sound about right to you?
- 17 A. Yes, it does.
- 18 Q. Okay. Is it the sheriff himself who asked you
- 19 to work on the website?
- 20 A. Yes.
- 21 Q. And you agreed?
- 22 A. Yes.

25

13

20

- 23 Q. And did he or anyone else tell you who would
- have the authority to ask you to post something
 - on the website?

Page 15

- 1 A. I do recognize those.
- 2 Q. Those are all documents that you printed off
- 3 from your computer?
- 4 A. Yes.
- 5 Q. Okay. And they're all documents that relate to
- 6 your reserve deputy work for Columbia County
- 7 Sheriff's Office?
- 8 A. Yes.
- 9 Q. Who is Sergeant Cutright?
- 10 A. Sergeant Cutright is a sergeant in the Columbia11 County Jail.
- 12 Q. You have been a reserve deputy with the Columbia
- County Jail now for approximately 13 years;
- 14 right?
- 15 A. Correct.
- 16 Q. So you've worked with Sergeant Cutright
- throughout that time period; is that right?
- 18 A. Can you restate the previous question about how
- 19 long I've been a reserve deputy with, what
- 20 division did you say?
- 21 Q. I'm sorry. I have written this down correctly.
- 22 When did you say you started with the Columbia
- 23 County Sheriff's Office?
- 24 A. Approximately 1997, June.
- 25 Q. So close to 15 years?

- 1 A. I don't remember.
 - 2 Q. What is your understanding of who has the
 - authority to ask you to post something on the
 - 4 website, if you know?
 - 5 A. I don't know.
 - 6 Q. Who has asked you to post things on the website?
 - 7 A. Sheriff Dickerson, Deputy McDowall, Sergeant
 - 8 Cutright, Deputy Rush, and Dorothea Jirka.
 - O Analysis is also also as
 - 9 Q. And who is she, please?
 - 10 A. She is a civil, she's our civil records clerk at
 - the sheriff's office.
 - 12 Q. Okay. Now, the first page of Exhibit 95 is an
 - e-mail to you from yourself forwarding a message
 - from Sergeant Cutright; is that correct?
 - 15 A. Yes.
 - 16 Q. You can't really tell from this when Sergeant
 - 17 Cutright sent it to you. Can you tell?
 - 18 A. No.
 - 19 Q. Is it your impression that it would have been
 - about the same date as the message you forwarded
 - 21 to yourself?
 - 22 A. Yes.
 - 23 Q. Okay. And he asked you to add information to
 - the, it says "the jail side of the SO website."
 - 25 What does that mean?

- 2 Q. BY MR. WING: I hand you Exhibit 149. I ask you 3 what that is.
- 4 A. I believe this is our most recent version of the 5 inmate manual.
- 6 Q. Do you know what the difference is?
- 7 A. I believe, well, I know there's some changes
- that were made to this because of some errors 8
- 9 that were in this.
- 10 Q. Do you know what those are?
- A. I can't, not without going through it. 11
- Q. The manual makes reference to the law library. 12
- 13 Is that the same law library that we saw in our
- 14 inspection?
- A. I believe so. 15
- Q. And that is a library cart; is that correct? 16
- 17 A. It's a cart that has books on it, law books.
- Q. Okay. The newest inmate manual makes a 18
- reference to the phrase "nuisance contraband" on 19
- page 15. Do you know what that means? 20
- 21 A. I'd have to review the policy.
- Q. Okay. I show you on page 15, it says "mail is 22

- 6 A. Yes.
- 7 Q. And is your signature the last page of that 8 document?
- 9 A. Yes.
- 10 Q. Do you know whose signature is on the page just 11
 - before that?
- 12 A. Appears to be that of Sarah Hanson, our county 13 attornev.
- 14 Q. Okay. Are you aware of any determination as to

- 17 A. No.
- 18 Q. Do you know how long it takes?
- 19 A. No.
- Q. Do you know if it takes more or less time than 20
- 21 it took since the judge entered his preliminary
- 22 injunction?
- 23 A. I don't know.
- 24 Q. Have you attempted to find out?
- 25 A. No.

- A. Again, I'd have to review our -- This is not a 1 2 policy.
- 3 Q. I see.
- 4 A. This is the inmate manual.
- 5 Q. Okay. It says, as defined on page 3 of this manual. Do you see that? Does that help you? 6
- A. Turning to page 3. It appears to be a typo. 7
- Q. Is there a place that defines it, to your 8
- 9 knowledge?
- A. I believe it's in our policy manual, but I'd 10
- have to look. 11
- 12 Q. Is there a limit on the amount of mail that a prisoner can accumulate in their cell? 13
- A. Again, I'd have to look through the policy. 14
- Q. So you don't know the answer to that? 15
- A. I don't know the answer right off the top of my 16 17
- Q. Do you think that there is a limit, you just 18 don't know how much it is? 19
- A. I don't know. 20
- 21 (Exhibit 150 marked for identification.)
- Q. BY MR. WING: Sheriff, I'm handing you 22
- 23 Exhibit 150, which is identified, the caption
- says Defendants' responses to Plaintiff's third 24
- interrogatories and request for production on 25

- Q. Why not? 1
 - 2 A. It's, I don't see the purpose.
 - 3 Q. Okay. If we turn to page 4 of Exhibit 150,
 - 4 there's an interrogatory answer, excuse me,
 - 5 interrogatory number 17 which asks generally for
 - 6 you to identify the instances in which the jail
 - 7 changed its policies, procedures or practices in
 - response to communication complaining about the
 - 9 policy procedure or practice. Do you see that?
 - 10 A. Yes.

13

- Q. Okay. Your answer makes reference first to on 11
- 12 or about March 26, 2010, the jail made changes
 - to its inmate mail policies in response to a
- 14 phone call from the ACLU. Do you see that?
- A. Yes. 15
- Q. It says "see Exhibit 95, pages 7 and 8." Do you 16
- know what this refers to? 17
- 18 A. Not specifically, no.
- Q. Was it ever brought to your attention that the 19
- 20 ACLU had called?
- A. Yes. 21
- 22 Q. Who brought that to your attention?
- 23 Originally I believe it was Sergeant Cutright.
- Q. And was that, to your understanding, he brought 24
 - it to your attention at the time that they made

time. So I don't agree that they apply to that and I think Judge Simon's ruling was clear that if you needed beyond the time you're allowed to ask questions under the failure to mitigate, you're entitled to a reasonable amount of time beyond the time limit. I agree with that. He didn't make that ruling, but I have no problem with that.

But even setting those aside, I think you were beyond the time you're allowed on other issues that you have talked about. I've allowed you to go into other issues. And to me it's just a matter of you want to stretch the leash further or farther out than I'm letting it beyond what I understand to be the scope of this deposition.

MR. WING: I'm trying to encapsulate this so that if we do have to address this with The Court, it's as simple as possible. I understand from your perspective you've allowed me to go further, but you've also then said, that's it. No more. And so I'm trying to articulate. I think you've said you believe the purpose of this deposition should be limited to asking

Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q.	You can answer. THE WITNESS: I don't know. BY MR. WING: So might it take you more time to process the same number of postcards that you could fit the content on a three-page letter? It hasn't been my experience, no. Have you ever received 12, 14, 16 postcards? Have I? Yes. Have you ever processed numerous postcards? Yes, sir. Okay. And how long would it take you to process 16 postcards? Not very long. I'm just scanning, you know, checking to make sure there's nothing on it and scanning to make sure there's no information in there that's detrimental or anything that shouldn't be and that's about it. But I don't have to open up an envelope to do that. How long does it take you to open an envelope? Few moments, seconds. And once you get it open, what's involved? Pulling the letter out.

THE WITNESS: It takes me a little longer. I mean, we've never done a study on it per se, but I know it takes me longer. Q. BY MR. WING: And you're comparing a single postcard with a single letter? A. Uh-huh. Q. Is that a yes? A. Yes, sir. I'm sorry. Yes. Q. And if somebody wrote you a three-page letter to prisoners, how many postcards would it take to equal the same amount of content as the three-page letter? MR. And then once you're scanning the letter, it doesn't take any more time to scan a letter than it does an envelope I mean a postcard, does it? I'd say no. Probably the same. Okay. So the increased amount of time that you associate with letters is the taking of the letter out of the envelope? Opening it and then getting it out, yes. Okay. And to use your words, that's a few seconds or a few moments; is that right? Yes.
