09/09/2009	310	ORDER entered by Judge Joe Billy McDade on 9/9/09. This matter is before the Court sua sponte on the Rule 23 hearing to be held on September 15, 2009. (1) The parties shall make an opening statement in support of the settlement agreement. The statement is limited to twenty (20) minutes with Plaintiffs going first. At the discretion of the attorneys, the statement may be made by attorneys for the parties and/or by a designated member of Plaintiffs' class or Defendant school district. In no event will an opening statement exceed 20 minutes. Thus for example, each side may elect to offer a 10 minute statement by an attorney followed by a 10 minute statement by a designee. (2) Opening statements will be followed by statements and comments by community members, parents, and students who have filed comments with the Court. These statements are limited to five (5) minutes. The following persons (in the order listed) have been selected to make such a statement at the hearing: (a) Dr. Evelyn Underwood (b) Pastor Jimmie O. Holmes (c) Reverend Vanessa Buchanan (d) Artice James (e) Devin H. Chambers (f) Patrick D. Thompson (g) Phillip R. Van Ness (h) Danielle Chynoweth (i) Linda Grady (j)

		Carol Ammons (k) Sonya Lynch (l) Donna Kindle (m) Sharon Ford. (3) These community statements shall be followed by closing statements by the parties. Closing statements are limited to ten (10) minutes. The parties may, at their discretion, address the concerns raised by community members. (4) The Court intends for the hearing to last no more than three (3) hours. In addition to the community members, parents, and student listed above, the Court received letters from Felicia Johnson (Doc. 306), Nina Sibley (Doc. 307), and Lynn Stuckey (Doc. 308), who are parents of students enrolled in the Champaign schools. These persons, however, did not provide a phone number on their letters. As they appear to be members of Plaintiffs' class, and if contact information is available (i.e. a phone number), Plaintiffs' attorneys shall inform these individuals that they may make 5 minute statements to the Court. 11/04/2009	322	ORDER entered by Judge Joe Billy McDade on 11/4/09 granting 282 Motion for Settlement. This Court finds that the proposed settlement agreement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and hereby APPROVES the settlement agreement. The settlement agreement represents a significant bargain for Plaintiffs that outweighs the potential merit of Plaintiffs' case and is not the product of collusion between counsel. The Court is convinced that the agreement represents the best method of continuing the progress made in the Champaign schools that was started by the Consent Decree. This Court further is convinced that the agreement places the future of Champaign school children in the hands of persons best equipped to educate: the administrators, teachers, and staff of the Champaign schools, the community they serve, and the parents that are part of that community. The Consent Decree is hereby TERMINATED in its entirety. (FDT, ilcd) (Entered: 11/04/2009)

12/11/2009		TEXT ORDER granting 327 Plaintiffs' Motion for Leave to File Corrected Reply Brief and Amended and Additional Exhibits. Instead of directing the Clerk to docket the attachments to Plaintiffs' motion for leave, the Court directs Plaintiffs to file their Corrected Reply, with corresponding attachments, as a stand-alone submission (i.e. not as part of a motion for leave to file) by December 16, 2009. The Court wishes to avoid any confusion as to exhibit numbering/labeling/identification, and Plaintiffs are in the best position to ensure that their Corrected Reply is submitted in a user-friendly manner. Defendant's deadline to file a Sur-Reply is extended to December 30, 2009. Defendant may broaden the scope of its Sur-Reply to include discussion of the new or changed information introduced in Plaintiffs' Corrected Reply. Entered by Judge Joe Billy McDade on 12/11/2009.
